

PRIZE BULL COMES TO MARITIMES

Prize Jersey Bull, Wonderful Standard 2nd, which comes to the Maritimes

The Prince Edward Jersey Club have recently purchased from B. H. Bull & Son, Brampton, the imported Jersey bull, Wonderful Standard 2nd. This bull was imported from Jersey Island some two years ago and has been used in the famous Brampton herd ever since, where he was mated with many of the best animals, including the world's record cow, Brampton Basilus.

His sire is the Silver Medal bull, Wonderful Standard, who has 30 tested daughters, and very few sires of the breed has as many prize winning sons and daughters as Wonderful Standard.

The dam of Wonderful Standard 2nd, is one of the great breeding cows of Jersey Island where she is still owned. She has a good record and several tested daughters and several outstanding sons.

This new purchase by the Prince Edward Jersey Club is the first spoke in their newly formulated wheel of progress that this progressive Club is undertaking.

EXPELLING JOURNALISTS

The refusal of the British Government to renew the labour permits of three German newspaper correspondents and the retaliatory action of the German Government in demanding the withdrawal of The London Times correspondent from Berlin constitute a most regrettable contretemps from whatever angle it is considered. The reasons given for the action are widely different. The British repudiate any suggestion that it is on account of the writings that the Germans are being refused permits to remain. On the other hand the German action was specifically declared to have been taken on account of what The Times' correspondent had been writing from Berlin. The German Government says it wants The Times' representative in Germany to be a man "who will pay less attention to work considered here as trivialities and more attention to what is wanted" (apparently what is wanted by Germany in The Times).

Considerable feeling seems to have been stirred on both sides by the incident. But it should be recalled that a very short time ago Mussolini invited several British correspondents in Rome to return home and withdraw Italian correspondents from London, because he was angry. He got over his temper quickly—and the British do not hold his hasty and rather childish action against him. It is, of course, just possible that Hitler will find it polite to reconsider his action also, though he is not given to sudden changes to such an extent as is Mussolini. But it would be highly regrettable if the matter were to take on the aspect of a diplomatic incident, as one London paper suggests today.

It may be taken for granted that the British Home Office would not have acted as it has done unless it had full justification for so doing. The fact that two of the three German newspaper men mentioned left for home immediately after the British announcement seems to indicate that they understood quite well why they had been refused renewals of their permits. Naturally, the German Government is angry; it would not be human if it were not. But it is entirely probable that its anger may be based upon the fact that it also knows why the Germans were invited to go home.

If The Times' correspondent is expelled, naturally The Times will not replace him. That would be tantamount to a consent to dictation from Berlin which no self-respecting newspaper could tolerate for one moment. The fact that the German and Italian press is absolutely regimented and cannot say a word that the Government does not approve, may have influenced Hitler in his action. But he will probably realize upon reflection that it is one thing to regiment your own press and a very different thing to try the same sort of game with the press of a foreign country. And he will certainly find that The Times possesses other sources of authentic news from Germany, even after Mr. Ebbetts has returned to London. If he is sincere in his profession of desire for British friendship, he will realize that he has made a

A REQUEST DENIED

"Can't you keep my name out of the paper. I don't mind paying a police court bill, or even going to jail, but would like to avoid the publicity." Every newspaper editor is familiar with this request. As soon as the police court is over, the parade starts. They climb the stairs, assume the most innocent, injured expression—and then out comes the pathetic plea.

Recently a man was charged with keeping liquor for sale and was sentenced to jail. He had it stored, back of his place of business. He Will Edward Return To England As Prime Minister?

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—In six months or a year Edward, Duke of Windsor, will return to England to stand for Prime Minister of the British Empire, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., predicts today. By his side will be the woman for whom he abandoned a throne. "Both Edward and Wally feel that he is needed more in England than abroad," Vanderbilt states in the current Liberty magazine. But not as king. Edward, he says, has no desire to return to that obsolete and impotent role; no more has Wally. "Naturally, she burns at the thought that she 'isn't good enough' for British royalty," Vanderbilt states. "But the obvious legal way to get back at the coterie who humiliated and slandered her is for her husband to go back home, stand for Parliament, and take his place at the head of the real government."

MAJOR CLASH TAKES PLACE IN CHINA

(Special to The Daily Mail)
CHINA, Aug. 11—The first major clash between the Japanese troops and Central Chinese troops at Mancow fifty miles from Peiping. The town is ablaze from Japanese shells. Twenty Japanese warships sailed past Shanghai today and this is the first naval advance. There are already thirteen Japanese warships in Shanghai. This is a result of the killing of the Japanese Lieutenant and seaman. The Japanese officials say that all depends on Chinese attitude. The Japanese up to this point have taken precautions and peaceful action at Shanghai.

YANKEES STRETCH LEAD IN AMERICAN LEAGUE BATTLES

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—New York Yankees today turned back the second-place Red Sox with a doubleheader victory in Boston that stretched their American League to 11 1-2 games.

They outlasted Tom Yawkey's $3,000,000 collection in a 14-inning thriller to take the opener 8-4 and then clubbed four fingers for a 10-4 victory in the nightcap, cut to seven innings by darkness.

In Cleveland timely clouting produced a double victory for the Indians over St. Louis Browns, Bob Feller taking the opener 5-2 and Denny Galehouse the second 7-2.

The Senators won their third straight game over the Athletics by 5-4, but lost the service of shortstop Cecil Travis for an indefinite period.

Cubs Trim Pirates
NEW YORK, Aug. 11—Combining Clay Bryant's five hit pitching with an 11-hit attack led Red Lucas that included Augie Galan's 17th homer and Gabby Hartnett's eighth, and National League leading Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 5-1 in Chicago today.

Three straight hits in the ninth inning, including a single by pitcher S. Johnson, gave Cardinals the winning run and a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati Reds in St. Louis.

Alex Kampouris hit a home run with one in base in the second to give the Reds their only scores.

knew he was breaking the law—that he was taking a chance—but he took it deliberately, and after being caught he was "game" in the sense that he was quite resigned to going to jail. But he dreaded the publicity. It wouldn't be so bad, if he could only have the case kept out of the newspapers. And so the request was made in his behalf. But the plea didn't sound very convincing. There are times when a man makes a "slip" on the spur of the moment—a first offender, whose early training has been neglected, probably, and who in the natural course of events may never offend again. He may steal food for his family—or otherwise be the victim of unfortunate circumstances. Newspapersmen are sometimes torn between duty and desire, when the circumstances demand publication of such a case in the public interest—

But when a man deliberately and knowingly plans his crime, realizing the consequences if he is detected, and is quite content to take the punishment of the court—all done for the purpose of personal gain—we believe he should be given the publicity as well.

In fact, such a case in our opinion, is deserving of the most prominent headlines.

THE FOREST INDUSTRIES

The forest area of Canada on which there is timber of merchantable size is larger than the total area of France and Germany combined; the standing timber on this is estimated at 274 billion cubic feet. An area of even greater extent is covered with young growth.

This vast reservoir of wood is the source from which Canada drew wealth in excess of $110,000,000 in 1934 (the latest figures available) in the form of primary products such as:

- raw material for saw-mills, pulp mills, wood distillation, charcoal plants;
- logs, pulpwood, bolts, etc., for export;
- firewood, railroad ties, posts, poles, fence rails, mining timbers;
- maple sugar, balsam gum, resin, cascara, tanbark, moss, etc.

The total value of manufactured products made principally from raw materials of forest origin was $404,435,948. Forest products in 1936 afforded an excess of exports over imports—$158,560,000—very important to Canada's international trade.

The Bank of Montreal has co-operated with every activity of the forest industries—assisting in every phase of production and marketing. The Bank has had the privilege of financing a large share of the export business of these industries. Thousands of workers are depositors, sharing in the safety and facilities of the Bank with their employing companies.

Some of the Bank's services most frequently used by employers and employees in the forest trades: Commercial accounts, foreign currency accounts, financing of shipments, commercial loans and discounts, collections; trade and credit information; safekeeping of securities; savings accounts; personal loans; money orders; travellers cheques; banking by mail.

COTTON TOWN NINE DROP LEAGUE TILT TO MINTO MINERS

Marysville slipped back farther last night in the standings of the York-Sunbury league, when they were practically banished from the play-downs by the hard hitting Minto Miners. The Minto nine ran up a total of 10 runs, and Marysville's best was four, making the game a little lop sided. With Devon now a game-and-a-half ahead of the Cotton-town team, it looks quite certain that they will not see the play-offs.

The game was a loose affair, Minto having no trouble in banishing the Marysville squad. Currie hurled four of the six innings but was batted out of the box. Lawrence relieved him in the 5th, and pitched a pretty steady game for the other two innings.

A large number of long hits featured the Minto turns at bat. Doubles and triples were plentiful, while Burgess cracked out a homer with no men on.

Batteries were: Marysville, Currie, Lawrence and McPherson. Minto, Barnett, Taylor and Kiley.
