THEATRE of the AIR

ALL TIMES ATLANTIC STANDARD TIME While Europe's eye is fix'd on mighty Scotland:

TUESDAY'S PROGRAMMES

GANADIAN BROADCASTING CORP. CANADIAN BROADCASTING CORP. This is the official programme which you are entitled to receive over Stations CFNB, CHSJ, CKCW, and Stations CFNB, CHSJ, CKCW, and CHNC.

CBC, OTTAWA, 550 K. €.00—Program Resume 6.15-Edward Davis, Songs 6.30-Doris Scott, Songstress 6.45-Closing Stock Quotations 7.00-Rakov's Orchestra 7.30-The Witching Hour 8.00-Luigi Romanelli and Orch. 8.30-The Children's Album $.45-Roland Todd, Organist 9.00-This English 9.15-Ottawa Temple Choir 9.30-Symphony In Rhythm 10.00-Bonjour Paris, Monsoir 10.30-R.C.M.P. Dramas $1.00-Symphonic Strings 11.30-I Remember 11.45-The News 12.00-Music for Music's Sake 1230-In a Modern Mood

CKAC, MONTREAL, 730 K. 6.15-Summary and weather 6.20-Pianologue 6.30—Sleepex Program 6.45-The Fireside Program 7.15-L'Heure Recreative 7.30-Le Reporter Salada 7.45—Programme Valda 8.00-L'Ecole de Hockey de l'Air 8.15—Song Time 8.30-Queens Hotel Trio 8.45—The Don Juan of Song 9.00-The Provincial Hour 10.00-Di-So-Ma 10.45—Silver Strings 11.15—Westinghouse Newscast 1.30-Del Casino, Songs #1.45-Four Stars 12.00-Molson Sports Reporter 12.30-Orchestra

WEAF, NEW YORK, 669 K. 6.00-Songs by Carlotta 6.15-Terry and his Pirates 6.30—Jack Armstrong 6.45-Little Orphan Annie 7.00-Science in the News 7.15-Don Winslow of the Navy 7.30-Press Radio News 7.35-Today's Sports 7.45-Billy and Betty 8.00-Amos 'n' Andy 8.15-Local Varieties 8.30-Steine Bottle Boys 8.45-Benno Rabinoff 9.00-Johnny Presents 9.30—Lady Esther's Seremade 10.00-Vox Pop 10.30-Hollywood Mardi Gras 130-Jimmy Fidler 45—Serenade 200-Violin in the Night 10.15-Orchestra 12.30-Orchestra

WABC, NEW YORK, 800 K. 5.00-Myrt and Marge 5.15-Bob Byron, whister 5.30-Story of Industry $.00-Follow the Moon 6.15-Life of Mary Sochema 6.30-Dear Teacher 6.45-Dorothy Gordon's Corner 7.00-All Hands on Deck 7.30-Press Radio News 7.35-Sports Resume 745—George Hall's Orch. 8.00-Poetic Melodies 8.15-Song Time 8.30-Famous Actors' Guille 9.00-Newspaper Drama 9.30-Al Joison Show 10.06-Watch the Fun Go By 10.30-Jack Oakie College 11.00-Swing School 1.30-Russell Dorr, Baritone 11.45-Four Stars 2.00—Tomorrow's News Tonight 12.20-Orchestra

WBZ, BOSTON, 990 K. 5.00-Peggy Wood Calling 6.15-Edward Dacies 6.30-Singing Lady 6.45-Tom Mix 7.00-String Time 7,30-Press Radio News 7.85-Tony Russell, Tenor 7.45-Lowell Thomas 8.00-Easy Aces 8.15—Dramatic Program 8.30-Lum and Abner 9.30-Edgar A. Guest 9.00-Husband and Wives 1.00-To be Announced 10.30-Roy Shield Review 11.00-Gen. Hugh Johnson 11.30-Orchestra 11.30-Past Masters' Program 12.00-Vagabonds 12.15—King's Jesters

WTIC, HARTFORD, 1040 K. 6.00-Songs by Carlotta 6.15-Terry and his Pirates 6.30—Jack Armstrong 6.45-Little Orphan Annie 7.00-News 7.15Studio Program 7.30-Wrightville Clarion 7,45Shero Trio 8.00-Amos 'n' Andy 8.15-Vocal Varieties 8.30-Chateau News Reporter 9.00-Johnny with Russ Morgan 9.30-Wayne King's Orchestra 10.00-Vox Pop 10.30-Hollywood Mardi Gras 11.30-Jimmy Fiddler

11.45-Miss Fisher Directs

12.00-News

WEDNESDAY'S PROGRAMMES

This is the official programme which you are entitled to receive over CHNC.

CBC, OTTAWA, 550 K. 6.00—Program Resume 6.15-The Four of Us 6.30-Adventures of Jamie and Josie 6.45—Closing Stock Quotations 7.00-Harry Kogan and Orch. 7.30—Canadian Capers 8.00-Markowsky and his Orch. 8.15-La Salle Cavaliers 8.30-Major Bill 8.45-Kathleen Stokes, Organist 9.00-Laughing with Canada 9.15—The Campbell Sisters 9.30-National Sing Song 10.00-Dramatic Mystery Series 10.30-Spotlight Parade 11.00-Labour Organization 11.30-Orchestra 11.45—The News 12.00—Restless Bows

CKAC, MONTREAL, 730 K. 6.00-Social Announcements 6.15—Summary 6.30—Sleepex Program 6.45-The Fireside Program 7.15-L'Heure Recreative 7.30-Le Reporter Salada 7.45-L'Amour Contre la Haine 8.00-Melody Time 8.15-Le Cure de Village 8.30-Malenfant and Daunais 8.45-Don Juan of Song 9.00-Les Montagnards de Quebec 10.00-Chantons en Choeur 11.00-La Ligue des Proprietaires 11.15—Westinghouse Newscast 11.30-Patti Chapin, Songs 12.00-Molson ports Reporter 12.30—Orchestra

12.30-Waltz Intermezzo

WEAF, NEW YORK, 660 K. 6.00-Not for Ladies 6.15-Terry and the Pirates 6.30-Jack Armstrong 6.45-Little Orphan Annie 7.00-America's Schools 7.15-Don Winslow of the Navy 7.30-Press Radio News 7.35-Songs 7.45-Billy and Betty 8.30—Orchestra 8.15-Uncle Ezra 8.30—Swing Harmonicas 8.45-Jean Sablon 9.00-One Man's Family 9.30-Lady Esther's Serenade 10.00-Town Hall Tonight 11.00-Hit Parade 11.45-Alstair Cooke 12.00-Orchestra 12.15-Ink Spots 12.30-Orchestra

WABC, NEW YORK, 860 K. 5.00-Curtis Institute 5.45-Dr. Dafoe 6.15-Life of Mary Sothern 6.30-Children's Corner 6.45-To be Announced 7.00-Jack Shannon, Songe 7.15-Four Stars 7.30-Press Radio News 7.35-Orchestra 7.45-The Singing Waiters 8.00-Poetic Melodies 8.15—Hobby Robby 8.30-Arolian Trio 8.45-Boake Carter 9.00-The Cavalcade of America 9.30-Texaco Town 10.00-Chesterfield Presents 10.30-Colonel Jack 10.00-Gang Busters 11.30-Del Casino, Songs 12.00-Tomorrow's News Tonight 12.30-Orchestra

WBZ, BOSTON, 990 K. 6.00-Neighbor Nell 6.15—The Four of Us 6.30—Singing Lady 6.45-Tom Mix 7.00-Orchestra 7.30-Press Radio News 7.35-Jack Baker, Tenor 7.45-Lowell Thomas 8.00—Easy Aces 8.15-Dramatic Program 8.30-Lum and Abner 8.45-Charlotte Landing, Soprano 9.00-Eddy Duchin 9.30-To be Announced 10.00-Musical Comedy Hits 11.00-Gen. Hugh Johnson 11.15-Songs 11.30-Waltz Interlude 12.00-Vagabonds 12.15-Kings' Jesters 12.30-Orchestra

6.00-Not for Ladies 6.15-Terry and the Pirates 6.30-Jack Armstrong 6.45-Little Orphan Annie 7.00--News 7.15-The Revellers 7.30-Wrightville Clarion 7.45-Vic Arden's Orch. 8.00-Amos 'n' Andy 8.15-Uncle Ezra 8.30—Highway Safety Address 8.45-White Eagles 9.00-One Man's Family 9.30-Wayne King's Orch. 10.00-Walter O'Keefe and Orch. 11.00-Your Hit Parade 11.45-Talks by Alistair Cooke 12.00-Orchestra

WTIC, HARTFORD, 1040 K.

ST. ANDREW'S

of the City of Albany, Albany, N. Y., and Eighty-eighth Anniversary, wishes U. S. A., 134th Anniversary of St. An- you Good Cheer and muckle luck on drew's Day, November 30, 1937.

The fate of Empires and the fall of Kings;

While quacks of State must each produce his plan, And even children list The Rights of Man: From brawling nations and their fierce contention

Let's turn to Scotland's Saint to night's attention.

-Adapted from Robert Burns. Greetings Committee: Dr. George HOT youth ever is a ranger, M. Wiley, Dr. Harold W. Thompson, Ewen Macintyre

Greetings and best wishes from St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society of North Vancouver, British Columbia. O, the hare to the hillside, the deer to the glen; To the eagle his eyrie, high up on the ben

Ilk creature, no matter how far he may roam,

Harks back to the place he regarded as home: But the Scot carries Scotland to ends o' the Earth, land o' his birth. Dougald Brown, President; W. S. Mitchell, Bard.

St. Andrew's Society of Richmond Then Scotland's right and Scotland's and District sends greetings to all brother Scots. Oor Richmond town of great renown I'll drink a cup to Scotland yet,

Where Oil and Rail and Water meet, Wi, a' the honours three. McDonald Street and Nevin neat Are just as Scotch as you could seek We're proud to celebrate The Day In song and toast The Scottish Way HERE'S TAE YE Roderick MacLennan, President; leorge Smith, Secretary, Richmond, California.

Kindly accept, on behalf of The Saint Andrew Society of Glasgow, our ledge Rivers, president. heartiest greetings on the anniversary of Saint Andrew's Day, 30th November, 1937. We trust that you will peg. have a very pleasant night. William Adam, C. A., F. D., Hon.

Secretary, 109 Bath Street, Glasgow. The Rt. Hon. The Earl of Cassillis, F. D., D. E., F.R.S.C.S., President. Saltire House, Glasgow.

Saint Andrew's Society of Guelph sends cordial greetings on the One Hundred and Tenth Anniversary. "Green be thy hills, auld Scotia, And fertile be thy plains, man, Where friendship, love and freedom

To bless our nymphs and swains, man.' Dr. G. G. NcNab, President.

St. Andrew's Benevolent Society, Hamilton, Ont., sends greetings to Brother Scots at kome and abroad on their 102nd Celebration of "The Day." East, West, around the Scottish coast Are harbours large and small, Where ships and boats can lie at ease, Outside, seas crash and fall.

Into the large ports steamers go And largest ship that floats, But in the snug, small harbours steal The humble fishing boats.

And if, some day, my boat comes home, A small port will I seek, Nearby the Auld Kirk on the hill, Around which lumbeads reek.

-John Stephen, Bard. Norman Macdonald, President; J. C. Munro, Secretary.

Scots' Charitable Society of the City of Boston, Massachusetts, on its Two Hundred and Eightieth Anniversary, extends cordial greetings to our Sister Societies on this St. Andrew's Day, November Thirtieth, Nineteen Hundred and Thony-Seven.

"Fair Schiand, dear as life to me Are thy majestic hil's: And sweet as purest melid, The music of thy rills, The wildest cairn, the durkust dei! Within thy rocky strand, Cossess our me a living trad -Thou art my native land.' John Speirs, Secretary; Robert Bowie. President.

Saint Andrews Society, Saint John, New Brunswick, One hundred and thirty-eight anniversary, sends to all Scots greetings:

Tae Brither Scots in ither parts We son' a greeting frae our hearts Guid luck, guid cheer an' a' that goes Tae keep them free frae cares an'

-A. Gordon Leavitt. Gordon C. Wilson, Secretary; Chief Justice J. B. M. Baxter, President.

St. Andrew's Society, London, Can-

Oh Lan O Heather and O Heath, O cairnies, crags and cakes; Tho we dae dwell in ither lan's, We dinna forget Scotia's Patron Saint. Immortal as thy memory is, Mang hills o fadless fame, We meet this nicht to honour

St. Andrew An lang cherished be his name. George Overton, president; James Haldane, secretary.

The St. Andrew's Society of Phila- P'raps I'd not mind you from afar,

(Continued from Page Eight) Greetings from St. Andrew's Society | delphia, celabrating its One hundred

> St. Andrew's Day, 1937. Whose songs are first to heart and tongue wherever Scotsmen greet together And far out alien scenes among go mad at the glint of a sprig of William F. Main, Secretary; Samuel F. Houston, President.

With fraternal greetings from the Saint Andrew's Society of Kingston, Ont., on this, its 97th Anniversary. New scenes ever its desire;

Cauld Eild, doubtfu' o' the stranger. Thinks but o' haudin' in the fire. Midway, the wanderer is weary, Fain he'd be turnin's in his prime Hamewith-the road that's never Back where his heart is a' the time -Charles Murray. Mr. J. H. Mitchell, President; M. D. Monroe, Hon. Secy.-Treas.

dreary.

For Auld Lang Syne. St. Andrew's Society of Cornwall sends greetings: "Scotland Yet"

They tell o'lands wi brighter skies. For enshrined in his heart is the Where freedom's voice ne'er rang; Gie me the hills where Ossian dwelt, And Coila's Minstrels sang! For I've nae skill o'lands, my lads, That ken na to be free:

> might, And Scotland's hills for me.

C. E. Bigelow, secretary; W. Mack Alguire, president. Cornwall, Ont., St. Andrew's Day.

The St. Andrew's Society of Charleston, South Carolina, upon this, her Two Hundred and Eighth birthday, wishes for you health, wealth, wit an'

Robert C. Black, Secretary; M. Rut-

The St. Andrew's Society of Winni-

The heather hills of Scotland are, To us upon the prairies' rim, Like beacons gleaming from afar, To light the wand'rer home. They hint of things worth reckoning,

Of strengthened faith and steadfast-And by their ceaseless beckoning

Stir memories of home. So, fellow Scots on earth's highway, Well blest with pioneering feet, On this St. Andrew's festal day, We greet where'er you roam. Mr. Justice Robson, president, Robt. Stevenson, Bard.

Saint Andrew's Society of Montreal, 102nd anniversary. Greeting:

This is the Nicht to Scotsmen dear when they forgether year by year, At home, abroad, by land and sea, to Mirth and joy be wi' you a'." spend an oor in social glee;

sae croosely do they crack and sing, that roof and rafters dirl and ring; An' roon the warl ye'll hear them ca' gie us your han', we're brithers a'. Hugh M. Wallis, president.

Greetings from the St. Andrew's Society of Rhode Island, Pawtucket, R. I. St. Andrew's Day: We cannot see you face to face, We cannot warmly shake your hand.

But thought can conquer time and Send greetings on this St. Andrew's ings. space And compass quickly sea and land-

On this glad night wherever Scotsmen May happy memories make your lot Guide us in the far lands complete.

Greetings from Saint Andrew's Society of the State of New York, 105 East Twenty-second Street, New York

The Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island. Dear Fellow Scot:

When you listen to Robbie Burns' compare with it. It took another of our Patron Saint. Scot to compose a suitable parody We toast to the day, the hill and the which was read and heard with great eatisfaction at a St. George's Dinner The lads o' the bonnet, the plaid and t Baghdad. Here it is: 'Oh, Chieftain of the pudden race, Inlovely and devoid of grace, n my affections you've no place

Oh Haggis! You grey and naked little heap, The gastric organ of a sheep, At times you haunt me in my sleep, Oh Haggis! The night I sampled you I saw The Loch Ness Monster at my door-I've tried you once, but nevermore, Oh Haggis!

A thing of mystery are you not? Of hearts and lungs and who knows Sing anew her bannie braes, what-On Scotland you're a horrid blot,

Oh Haggis! All freaks should be in a museum,

Were you so housed I'd sing 'Te Deum, Oh Haggis! You'd look quite natty in a jar

Where things both strange and monstrous are-

Opera Direct From Stage of Met Again to Be Broadcast Over NBC

RICHARD CROOKS

Oh Haggis! The parodist, Dr. Harry Chapman Sinderson, M.V.O., O.B.E., F.R.C.P., etc., Edinburg, captained both the Edinburgh University cricket and soccer teams in his day, and was a Scottish Internationalist in both games. We can always joke at oor ain exense whilst considerately letting others pay the piper. May you have a grand nicht wi the Haggis and the incidentals. T. M. MacMillan, Secretary; Walter R. Shaw, President.

Caledonian Society of Montreal. St. Andrew's Day, 1937, Greetings: Here's a health to the land of the mountain and the glen,

To the land of the lake and the river, Where the wild thistle grows in her rude, rocky den, Proud Freedom's stern emblem for

The land of the claymore, the kilt, and the plaid, The bagpipe, the bonnet, and feath-

Let's join heart and hand, all upstanding in pride, Here's the land of the bright blooming heather."

-Hugh Macdonald. A. J. Lawrence, president; J. G. Withers, Hon.-Secretary.

they may be: Anniversary.

"May care and trouble never fash, but Gahn. -A. R. Walker.

Sir John Afrd, K.B., president; James S. Murray, Secretary.

St. Andrew, Nov. 30th, 1937.

Scottish lads and Scottish lasses Far out in the west Day

Sincere, and of the best. May Scotland's grand traditions So splendid and so true

That we win honour too. George Walker, president, E. G. Hampton, Secretary.

St. Andrew's Society of Richmond County, Que., sends greetings to kin- We're thankfu' for oor biggin', dred societies and friends.

James A. Smillie, president; Rev. H. C. Sutherland, D.D., Chaplain.

Saint Andrew's Society of Regina Address to a Haggis" on St. An- sends greetings to its fellow kindrew's nicht, think of the envy of the dred societies with wishes for good puir Sassenachs who have nothing to cheer and happy fellowship on this day R. Lamont, Hon. Secretary.

the feather,

The land o' the mountain, the stream and the river. The land o' our ancestors,-Scotland

James Cromb, president; Fred T. Reid, secretary.

St. Andrew Society (London) kindly greetings to kith and kin at hame and ayont the seas. Come, ye votries of the lyre, Trim the torch of heavenly fire, Raise the song in Scotia's praise, Sing her thousand siller streams, Bickering to the sunny beams; Sing her sons beyond compare, Sing her daughters, peerless, fair, Where those who like can go and see Sing till Winter's storms be o'er, The matchless bards that sang before

-Tannahill (1810). Chief, Rt. Hon. Baron Alness, M.A. L.L.B., L.L.D., President, Miss C. MacVinish.

The Saint Andrew's Society of Chatham, Ontario, Sends Fraternal Greet-

"MANON" OPENS MATINEE SERIES

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 - With the broadcast of "Manon" on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 4, the National Broadcasting Company inaugurates its seventh consecutive season of Saturday matinee broadcasts direct from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York. Every Saturday matinee during the regular season will be broadcast over the nation-wide NBC-Blue Network. The opening program will begin at 2.55 p.m., A.S.T. and will bring to millions of opera lovers the celebrated voices of Richard Crooks, American tenor, who will Chevalier

BIDU SUYAU

ORCHESTRA LEAD-ER PLAYS MANY INSTRUMENTS ON CBC PROGRAMME

Bert Niosi to be Guest On Next "Canadian Capers" Tomorrow

feature when he is presented as guest artist with Percy Pasternak's orch- 20, 1938. estra on the CBC programme, "Can-To our Sister Societies wherever December 1, at 7:30 p.m., AST., over formance of Massenet's Manon Miss St. Andrew's Society of Toronto, play six different instruments (piano, she made her Metropolitan debut Canada, sends friendly greetings to flute, clarinet, saxophone, trumpet and last February. At that time she all Sister Societies on this, its 101st trombone) in presenting his solo num-the modern mood, specially arranged work in Miss Sayao's debut. for the programme. Among the selections to be highlighted by the orch-St. Andrew-Caledonian Society of estra will be: "Getting Some Fun Out Day Is Done," "Cuban Pete" and "Our Penthouse on Third Avenue".

> The stacks hae a' been thackit-We've laid aside the plough, The tatties a' are howkit, An' the simmer dargs are thro'

In the neuk sae snug an' clean, Sae canty we foregather When the days are creepin' in. Noo winter's comin' surely,

An' noo beside the ingle,

Wi' cauldrife win's an' snaw,-Altho' oor cot's but sma', We envy nae the riches Sae mony try to win;

We hae oor simply pleasures When the days are creepin' in. -R. MacLean Calder.

Dear Mr. Limerick:

forted us so much.

ELLIE CALDWELL CROCKET. her.

iest breath,

If change of clime or fortune should the studio doors! efface Thine image from my memory's foremost place: If anything that wealth or fame im-Should e'er displace thee from my heart of hearts;

(Continued on Page Seven)

des Crieux, and of Bidu Sayao, the brilliant Brazilian soprano, who created a sensation last year in her first season at the Metropolitan. The conductor will be Maurice de Abravanel.

All of the most important artists of last season will again be heard at the Metropolitan, Edward Johnson, manager of the Metropolitan announced. These will include Gina Cigna, Vina Bovy, Maurice Brownlee, Natalie Bodanya, Kerstin Thororg, Lotte Lehmann, Lauritz Melchior, Kirsten Flagstad, Giovanni Martinelli, Lawrence Tibbett, John Charles Thomas, Friedrich Schorr, Ezio Pinza, and Ludwig Hoffman. Newcomers to the Metropolitan include some of the most distinguished voices of the younger generation of opera singers. Rosa Pauly heard last summer at Salzburg; Enid Szantho, Hungarian-Irish contralto of Vienna. Covent Garlen and Bayreuth; Marita Farrell chosen for high lyric roles in Wagner repertoire; Jan Kiepura, lyric tenor, always famous in America as a star in motion pictures, and Bruno Landi, young Italian lyric tenor, will be among those making their debut at the Metropolitan in the coming Nine additions have been made to the Met repertory, including Walter Damrosch's "The Man Without a Country,' and three operas by Richard Strauss. The chief revival will be Verdi's immortal "Otello," restored to Metropolitant repertory after a lapse of 24 years.

The season itself has been extended two weeks to meet the demands from regular subscribers and others who were disappointed last year Bert Niosi, well known dance och- when they sought to purchase tickestra leader, will be heard in a novel ets. It will continue through sixteen

The opening broadcast will be one adian Capers," to be broadcast from of the most popular works in the the Toronto studios on Wednesday, Metropolitan repertory. In this perthe national network. Mr. Niosi will Sayao returns to the role in which evoked the enthusiastic praise of ber, "Nobody's Sweetheart", by Gus New York critics for the freshness and charm she brought to the role. Percy Pasternak and his swing Most of the cast for Manon will be prchestra will present dance music in the same as that which presented the

Sister Societies on the Anniversary of which was published recently, "When SHRT EATING ON St. Andrew, Nov. 30th, 1937 RADIO ROW SINCE BESS MADE GOOD IN DRAMA SERIES

Several Attempts To Crash Radio Brought Promises to Eat the Starched Apparel If She Made Good

For the last several years, therehas been some pretty fancy shirt-eat. John F. Fletcher, president; Hugh ing going on among midwestern radio moguls, and it's all Bess Johnson's

"If you're radio material I'll eat Extend to the officers and members my shirt," was said, not once, but of St. Andrew's Society our sincere with heartbreaking frequently to that thanks for the very beautiful floral handsome young woman - who is now one of radio's most sensationally The many acts of kindness from successful stars. For Bess had provour friends in our deep sorrow com- ed herself to be such excellent "radio material" that said moguls must feel pretty silly about having discouraged

Countless times la Johnson tried The St. Andrew's Society of the to break into radio and as often she City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, sends was turned down, usually with the you our heartiest greetings as we join advice to "forget about trying to with you in celebrating this Saint break into radio before you break Andrew's Day, November 30th, 1937. | your heart - you'll never make the Dear Land, in which I drew my earl- grade." Undaunted by this gloomy comment, Bess swallowed her pride If aught subdue my love for thee but and got a job as radio's first soundeffects woman...anything to open

> And from that inauspicious beginning she blossomed out as a commercial spieler, script and writer, producer, director and dramatic airactress of first magnitude. Now she's winning new laurels for her performance as star of "Hilltop House," topnotch CBS serial drama.