BOARD OF TRADE OUTING HELD AT BURTON

Delightful Picnic Supper Held on the Beautiful Grounds of W. W. Hubbard.

The annual Board of Trade picnic held on the beautiful grounds of the Burton Hill Orchards owned by W. W. Hubbard was a decided success. It might have been more largely attended by the members of the Board of Trade but those who were present enjoyed themselves thoroughly during the afternoon and evening. Members of the Board of Trade and their friends left the City Hall at 2.00 o'clock for the picnic grounds and others drove down for supper later in the afternoon. Supper was served under the apple trees in the orchard and was under the direction of the ladies of the Women's Institute of Burton of which Mrs. R. D. W. Hubbard was present. The supper was one of the best ever served at a picnic and the members of the Women's Institute of Burton are to be complimented on their good cooking and the efficient service of yesterday. The menu consisted of hot scallops, salad, cold ham, baked beans, brown bread, rolls, cake, pie, relishes, tea and coffee. The President was ably assisted by the following ladies: Miss Inez Banks, Mrs. Hayward McCain, Mrs. Kipp, Mrs. John Yates, Mrs. Allee Burpee, Miss Cambridge, Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Miss Edna Randall, Miss Florence Martin, Mrs. Ella Smith, Mrs. A. Nichol, Mrs. A. Cavanaugh, Mrs. R. D. W. Hubbard and Miss Marion Hubbard.

E. C. Atkinson presided at the supper table. P. L. Cooper in a witty speech moved a vote of thanks to the ladies for the bountiful repast which had been served, the motion being seconded by the former Mayor of Fredericton J. A. Reid. During the afternoon the guests at the picnic were escorted through the apple and pear orchards by R. D. W. Hubbard and W. W. Hubbard and were given a chance to sample different varieties of fruit and information on the production of the highest type of New Brunswick apples.

The Homely Road

The homely road to happiness
Is better than the best
Of rich and mighty roads that go
Through grandeur to the quest.

The homely road is built on love,
Unselfish, kindly acts,
And it has deep sincerity
That grandeur often lacks.

The homely road so simple is
That many pass it by,
Impressed by gaudy promises
That richer roads hold high.

The homely road of kindly love,
That is the blessed road
To happiness, leads straight to its
Bright, beautiful abode.
—George Elliston.
