

Marysville Outhits Minto To Win York-Sunbury League Fixture 8-3

Protest of Mining Town Troupe Upheld by The Executive of the League

Marysville downed Minto 8-3 in a league battle of the York-Sunbury Baseball league staged on the former's diamond last evening. The game one of the snappiest of the present league campaign, was featured by heavy slugging by both teams. Marysville, the squad which tied the Fredericton-Devon brigade 4-4 Wednesday night, had the edge on play during the greater part of the game.

Backed by airtight fielding support, the home team hurler Spicer held the invading clan to five hits, well scattered through the seven innings. The Marysville sluggers pounded Ed Titus' offerings for 12 hits. Three errors were chalked against Minto and two against the home team. Titus and Kelly formed the battery for Minto and Sapier and Paul for Marysville.

Protest Upheld
Officials of the league upheld the protest of the Minto team against the Fredericton-Devon squad in a recent game played at Devon. The executive ruled that the protest be allowed and ordered the game replayed. The protest was in connection with a double-play in the recent battle. It was contended by Minto that the winning run scored by Devon should not be allowed. At the time of the incident the score was tied, a batter was at the plate and two men were on bases. The batter hit a liner into right field and he was caught at first while one of the two other runners was caught at second. It was contended that the play was completed before the runner on third crossed the plate.

A protest was expected from the Marysville Club also against the Fredericton-Devon team, but as the league executive had not received it at the time of their meeting last night the tied score between the two teams in Wednesday night's game stands as recorded.

Maxie says that if Louis wants to fight him for the world's championship, he has to come knocking at his door. From this it is obvious that Maxie considers himself the world's champion, and Louis still the challenger.

President C. L. Dougherty of the York-Sunbury league upheld the Minto protest and ordered the disputed game of last week replayed. The expected protest from the Marysville team, over the game Wednesday night did not come. It looks as though the boys on both sides are going to take it stoically and let the thing go.

Something tells us that Bunny Austin will come bounding in ahead in the Davis Cup finals. Bunny is putting up a fine showing so far, and all indications show that he is getting near his game peak.

Of course we can't forget Don Budge and Von Cramm, and are not belittling them in the least. Two fine players, of proven ability, they are going to be stiff opponents for the English team.

Arthur Duffy and a team from the Palace Bowling Alleys go to Moncton tonight to take a whack at the Marven Cup. The team made a fine showing at the Maritime and Eastern Maine tournament in Saint John in May, and Nare expected to come through as well in the tourney tonight.

"HIGH BALL" KELLY RATES HIGH AS TURF PHILOSOPHER

Chicken Today and Feathers Tomorrow for the Famous Turf Character With String at Blue Bonnets

MONTREAL, June 24—The resumption of racing in Montreal; the thunder of hoofs at Blue Bonnets and the wild roar of the fans as steeds come tearing down the stretch has brought many famous characters back here.

Wrestling has its peculiar type of followers; boxing attracts a strange clientele, and both hockey and lacrosse magnetize different classes of enthusiasts.

High class musical shows illustrate a striking contrast in public ideas of amusement, and both tennis and golf, swinging into the aristocratic diversion, have, of course, their own exclusive devotees. It is doubtful, however, if anything brings into the limelight so many intermingled combinations of human nature as does racing. 'Twas ever thus.

And amongst those now in action, full steam ahead at the Blue Bonnets race track is Henry Bernard Kelly, a typical product of the turf. If you asked for Henry Bernard Kelly they would tell you such a person did not exist. But if you inquired of any owner, trainer, jockey or valet if they knew "High Ball" Kelly, he would immediately reply: "Sure! Who doesn't?"

Eternal Optimist
No one seems to know where the one and only "High Ball" Kelly first saw the light of day. He has been round and round the race tracks since he was a youngster. He was formerly a jockey, but weight caught up with him and he graduated into the ranks of the owners.

Today "High Ball" is a stout young man of about 35; he wears a dark hat, pulled over his right eye; his clothes are rough but clean and he carries an everlasting smile that has probably won him more friends than did John D. Rockefeller's millions.

Year after year "High Ball" comes back with a string of horses; once he had a fine large stable of 20 real thoroughbreds. Two years ago he slipped into Hamilton with two horses, one of which was Blue Gum. They hadn't heard much of Kelly around Hamilton, but after one eventful afternoon when Blue Gum, slipped into a soft spot, came down a handsome winner, and paid off at box car figures, they began to pay attention.

Other raisers rubbed their eyes in amazement and gasped: "Why, that horse belonged to 'High Ball' Kelly. We should have been on the lookout for it."

Kelly now has four horses at Blue Bonnets. He expects three or four real "flyers" from Tom Healy, John Whitney, Jim Widener or some other prominent New York owner in a day or two. He always does. He knows all the horses; all the riders and he carries his Form Chart under his hat. He is a walking compendium of horse lore.

Famous Character
They tell some funny stories about him. Once, he won $20,000 on the Kentucky Derby; he paid off all his debts, bought some horses, and an automobile, and then announced he was proud to be broke again. He has developed many a rider and he stands ace high as a trainer.

Several years ago they had an old boss in Agua Caliente that couldn't win a selling race. "High Ball" asked for a chance to train him. He got it and the supposedly broken down thoroughbred finished first at 10 to 1.

It was a claiming event and "High Ball's" entry had shown such form he was immediately claimed. And High Ball was fit to be tied. He gave up the horse to his new owner with a dark and threatening growl, expressed himself quite freely about the "Halter Brigade" and then disappeared with the proceeds of the claim.

"High Ball" came back with a new horse and won again, but three times the other four-year-old, which a big owner had taken, finished a bad fifth or worse.

"Why, that horse can't run a lick," protested the new owner to his trainer. "Why did we ever add him to our string?"

"Thought he was real good, Boss," apologized the trainer with a sigh of regret. "He just about equalled the track record last week, you know."

"That's so," said a stranger, standing near, "but you people should have claimed 'High Ball' Kelly, too."

Favorites Advance In Wimbledon Tourney

Austin Budge and Von Cramm Reach the Fourth Round

WIMBLEDON, June 24 — Don Budge of the United States today blasted Christian Bousset, French left-hander, off the courts in a third round match of the all-English tennis tournament and increased British fears that Fred Perry's relinquished title is due for a journey across the Atlantic.

While all favorites advanced, Budge's 6-1, 6-4, 6-2 victory over the highly regarded Frenchman was so convincing that bookmakers quit taking bets on him at any price. "Why toss good money away?" one of them asked.

Budge's most feared rivals, Baron Gottfried Von Cramm and Heinrich Henkel of Germany and H. W. (Bunny) Austin of Great Britain all entered the fourth round.

Von Cramm was given a stiff fight by the Japanese, Jiro Yamagishi, 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6 to 4, and Austin had difficulty with young Jack Bromwich, Australia, before taking a 6 to 2, 4 to 6, 6 to 0, 8 to 6 win.

The crowd got so excited about Budge's game that they forgot their usual Wimbledon calm and raised a continuous comment that distracted the Californian to the extent he had to appeal to the umpire for quiet early in the second set.

With Queen Mary an interested spectator, the British-French women's doubles team of "Billy" Yorke and Mme. Rene Mathieu scored a notable first round victory over Alice Marble and Katherine Winthrop, United States, 6 to 2, 6 to 4. It was the Queen Mothers' first appearance at Wimbledon since the death of George V.

The favored team of Helen Jacobs, United States, and Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling of Denmark and Germany, defeated Mrs. A. H. Melhows and Mrs. K. J. Underwood, Great Britain, 8 to 6, 6 to 2. Jean Saunders, formerly of Calgary, teamed with Miss A. E. L. McOstrich of England to defeat Margery Middleton and Alice Burton, 6-1, 6-3.

YANKEES CONQUER BROWNS 9-6 IN LEAGUE FIXTURE

Selkirk and Dickey Collect Homers--Senators Win

NEW YORK, June 24—Bump Hadley allowed St. Louis Browns six runs in the first three innings today and then pitched one-hit ball the rest of the way as the Yankees came from behind for a 9-6 victory.

Manager Joe Cronin's long-distance slugging paced Boston Red Sox to a 9-0 victory over Detroit in Boston and enabled Lefty Gomez to gain his sixth win of the season.

Washington Senators ran their winning streak to five straight games, downing Cleveland Indians 8-2 in Washington behind steady pitching of Monte Weaver.

Cubs Outlast Giants

NEW YORK, June 24—The Cubs outlasted a display of Giant power and put on considerable extra-base wallowing themselves to whip the New Yorkers 10-5 today and take the "crucial" Chicago series three games to two.

In St. Louis, the Cardinals walloped the Brooklyn Dodgers 13-3 and wound up the series with two wins out of three.

CANADA'S TRADE WITH THE WORLD

In the last calendar year Canada had a foreign trade amounting to $1,663,093,000, an increase of 19.7%, as compared with an average of 8.1% for 24 leading countries. In this exchange the Dominion had a favourable balance (including exportation of gold as a commodity) of $393,000,000.

Another feature of international trade was the tourist business, incoming and outgoing, totalling $355,568,000, the balance in Canada's favour being $155,958,000.

With the figures for tourist trade added to those for ordinary commerce, our international trade rose to $2,018,661,000, with a total balance in Canada's favour of more than half a billion dollars.

Banking plays a vital part in the upbuilding of the foreign trade of Canada, and foreign trade is the backbone of the native industries which are the foundation of Canada's economic structure.

In providing financial service for this enormous trade a leading part is played by the Bank of Montreal, which, with its 500 branches throughout Canada, its own offices in financial centres abroad, and its own banking correspondents throughout the world, carries through promptly and smoothly the task of financing the movements of an infinite variety of commodities.

The Bank's services include: Loans to importers and exporters; purchases of bills of exchange representing exports; providing commercial credits for purchases abroad; purchase and sale of exchange "futures" for protection against price fluctuation in foreign currencies; special wire facilities with the important exchange markets to speed transactions; reports of character and standing of foreign firms; commercial accounts; foreign currency accounts; safekeeping of securities.
