TRUCK RUNS OVER COLORED YOUTH AT DEVON TODAY

Aerial MacIntyre Is In The Hospital Seriously Injured

Unavoidable

Chased Into Street By Companion On Way To School

Chased out onto the street in boyish play by a companion, Aerial MacIntyre, 14 year old son of Israel MacIntyre, Barker's Point, fell beneath the wheels of a heavy truck driven by Albert Thompson, and as a result of the accident is on the "danger list" in Victoria Public Hospital.

The accident occurred at about 1.30 as the two boys were going to school and the truck was proceeding up Union Street. Although the truck was being driven at a slow rate of speed, the suddenness of the boy's action allowed the driver no chance to avoid striking the unfortunate coloured lad.

The wheels of the heavy truck passed directly over the boy's body. He was immediately rushed to the hospital for medical attention. It is understood that there is little hope for recovery.

The accident, which occurred at the corner of Union and Bridge Streets, and was witnessed by several passersby, was investigated by Royal Canadian Mounted Police of the Fredericton Detachment. It is understood that no negligence existed on the part of the driver and the accident was unavoidable.

DRAWS BLACK PICTURE OF RESULT OF EDUCATION IN THIS CENTURY

Dr. Carleton Stanley, President Dalhousie Univ., Speaking Here Yesterday, Scores Materialism Of North American Democracies

Asking the question "To What End, Education," Dr. Carleton Stanley, president of Dalhousie University, spoke to a large audience at the evening service in Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday. One of Canada's outstanding thinkers, Dr. Stanley is a type of speaker above the ordinary in that he delivers his point in a series of questions, his own thoughts subtly running through the discourse, but the answer to the questions being left to the minds of his audience for their answer.

In beginning his address, Dr. Stanley took the example of the book "Rassias," a little-read work of Samuel Johnson, written in 1758. The story deals with the then peaceful country of Abyssinia, with the plot based on an engineer who learned to fly. A native prince seeks the engineer and asks him to divulge his secret so that all men may be educated and may learn to fly. The engineer considered the danger of his secret, how the surrounding nations might turn the learning into an arm against his country, how the high mountains surrounding his country would then be useless as a wall of defence, and how the nations would attack and ruin the stronghold of peace, refused to disclose his knowledge.

Comparison

The illustration gave food for much thought when one considers the Abyssinia of today, invaded, subjected, and no longer a valley of peace. It seems that the question implied by the speaker was "Is this one of the ends of education?"

Dr. Stanley quoted a statement made at the beginning of the pres-

Democratic Rule Faced With Greatest Danger In History

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the Y. Community Rooms for the purpose of hearing a report by Professor Malcolm MacPherson on the Peace Conference. The meeting called by R. J. Albrant on behalf of the Citizens Committee, held in the Y Community rooms yesterday afternoon was well attended by representatives of the various groups of the city and individuals who contributed to the defraying of the expenses of the delegate to the Peace Conference which was recently held in Toronto. Mr. Albrant was chairman. He stated that since the conference he had received a communication from the head committee who stated that they had been much pleased with the work and qualifications of the delegate Professor Malcolm MacPherson who was elected chairman of the Resolutions Committee on the first day of the committee. The chairman reported that the contributions had amounted to sixty-three dollars and yesterday's meeting had been called for the purpose of hearing Professor MacPherson's report who was the only delegate to the conference from the Maritime Provinces.

An interesting report was given by Professor MacPherson. The Peace Conference had been sponsored by the League of Peace and Democracy whose aim was promotion of peace the Conference having taken a democratic stand on all questions of international interest. The Peace and Democracy League although not working along the same lines as the League of Nations Society in Canada has its support of the latter. There were speakers taking part in the Conference who were prominent in the League of Nations. The most important work accomplished at the Conference had been the resolution taken to adopt a definite policy of peace activity. The conference worked on a four point program, the discussions centering on restoration, the production of arms, the strength of the League of Nations and the support of the League of Nations in bringing about a peaceful change of the international situation of the day. A discovery of some method is essential to remove the causes of war and the mobilizing of all bodies in groups in an attempt to express to the Governments of all democratic countries the (Continued on Page Four)

Local Fire Department Answers Four Calls Over Week-end

One of the busiest week-ends of some time was experienced by the Fire Dept. this week, answering three alarms yesterday and one this morning. The alarms on Sunday were all of a minor nature, occasioned by overheated pipes or chimney fires.

This morning an alarm came in from the grocery store of George A. Farris, York street, where a small blaze was in progress in the floor of his adjoining apartments. The blaze, which was quickly extinguished by the use of chemicals, originated from a faulty chimney at the point where it passed through the floor.

The first call yesterday was from the home of E. Allison MacKay, University Avenue, and was due to an overheated pipe. The call from the home of W. A. Stephens, Waterloo Row, resulted from the same cause. The third alarm of the day came from the residence of Mrs. Edward

S. C. M. ASK AID FOR THE MINTO STRIKERS

Robt. Porter Addresses Baptist Sunday School; Refers to Daily Mail

Bobby Porter, a senior student of the University and a member of the Students' Christian Movement Society of that institution, took up the time of the George Street Baptist Sunday School yesterday afternoon in connection with an address in which he appealed to the Students' Class for aid in connection with the Minto strike situation. Mr. Porter's appeal resulted in ten dollars being voted for the relief of sufferers from the strike. Mr. Porter stated that this ten dollars would go towards the fund to purchase flannel, shoes and incidentals which, he claims, were much needed by the women and children in the strike area in Minto.

In the course of his address Mr. Porter painted a horrible picture of the Minto miners' shack; more than one coal operator, he claimed, was not providing suitable accommodation for the miners. He referred to the conditions under which the miners worked, mentioning particularly two prominent operating concerns, one of whom has always had the credit of giving his workers the best accommodation available.

Mr. Porter denied the statement published in The Daily Mail from leading Minto clergymen and others to the effect that Minto did not require assistance from outside sources. Mr. Porter also made other statements regarding The Daily Mail which were entirely uncalled for.

Whilst those present at the Sunday School who voted unanimously to donate this amount to the Minto sufferers, still there were some of those present who felt that the matter was beyond the scope of Sunday school activities, and that the clergymen and others at Minto should know what was wanted. At the same time it is thought that the S.C.M. is sincere in making the appeal, believing it to be their duty as a Christian organization.

A letter today from a prominent traveller who knows the Minto situation, is along the same line as was expressed by the clergyman, viz: that the S.C.M. donations are not required.
