Thought That Hon. Mr. Squires Will Be Selected as Leader of Party

One of the largest delegations seen in this city in many years was assembled here today from different parts of the province for the purpose of attending the Provincial Convention of the Conservative party. One special train brought 500 delegates from Saint John, and an exceptionally large number were present from the County of Gloucester.

The deelgates included nearly all the former members of the Provincial Legislature and ex-cabinet ministers such as Hon. Dr. H. I. Taylor former Minister of Health; Hon. D. A. Stewart, former Minister of Pubfic Works, and Hon. Lewis H. Smith former Minister of Agriculture.

Hon. Dr. Hanson Presides

The convention was called to order shortly after half past two this afternoon by Hon. Dr. R. B. Hanson, K.C., P.C., former Minister of Trade and Commerce in the Bennett Government, and former member of the Dominion Parliament for York-Sunbury. The entire seating capacity of the city Opera House was taken up, and many delegates were crowded in to the street, where they listened to the speeches through loud speakers Overflow audiences were also accom-SION TO MEET modated in adjoining social club malls, where amplifrers were also installed, making it possible for many the City Council will meet in the more than the Opera House would
