SPORT DUST If McPherson had had a little glue in his mitt last night in all probability two of Devon's runs would never have been tallied. He was playing a little telow his usual form, but for such a small matter we won't criticize him too heavily. If he had held the ball, Devon would still have won. ----00---

Dinny Dinsmore was blowing them down last night in regular "Popeye" fashion. Often wondered if Dinny eats spinach. That ball 'zings' across the pan at a nice clip, and seems to jump any way he wants it to. After all, there's a lot of beef behind it. ---00--

Marysville may have accounted for a run last night, if Dougherty hadn't tried to put three gallons in a two gallon jug. When this is tried, the result is that 'one' is spilled out. That's what happened to Dougherty; he tried to get three bases on a two base hit and the base 'ump' got

12 ENTRIES FOR HAMBLETONIAN GOSHEN CLASSIC

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 10-Twelve finely-tuned three year old trotters went through their final paces today in preparation for tomorrow's renewal of the Hambletonian and then faded into the background while Greyhound, the wonder horse of the decade, failed by a narrow margin to smash a 15 year old world record.

The stage was set for the Kentucky Derby of light harness racing when the owners of the dozen trotters filed their intention of going after the purse of $40,000.

While preparations for trotting's chest race were going on behind the scenes, Creyhound thrilled today's crowd of some 15,000. The grey streak from E. J. Baker's stable of St. Charles, Ill., was timed in 1.581/4 against the clock but failed by 11/2 seconds in an attempt to break the international mark of 1.56% set by Peter Manning in 1922.

Driven by Sep Palin, Indianapolis veteran, Greyhound, himself winner of the 1935 Hambletonian, trotted the last half mile in 57 seconds but need ed 1.041/4 to go the first half, after going the first quarter-mile in 301/2 seconds.

Earlier in the season over Goshen's half mile track, he hung up a mark of 1.59% for twice around the oval after trotting a mile in competition in 1.571/4 last year.

One of the spectators was Giovanni Maiani of Milan, Italy, here to complete arrangements for the home and abroad match between Greyhound and Muscletone, second in the 1934 Hambletonian before being sold to the Italian sportsman.

"Greyhound showed me enough to believe that the pair will furnish a ead duel,' said Maiani. 'I wouldn' be surprised to see your horse win here but Muscletone should square matters at home, where the tracks are not so hard.'

Meanwhile, Desota, owned by Paul Bowser, Boston wrestling promoter, remained the firm choice to take down the major share of the Hambletonian purse. Fortunate enough to draw the favored pole position for the first of the two best in three mile heats, the son of Peter Volo was quoted at three to two.

Hired Man Speaks Up

As Mr. Picobac turned in to ask for his mail, he found Herb, tobacco grower by instinct and hired man to the highest bidder, seated on the end of the post office steps. "Hello, Herb," cried Mr. Picobac genially. "What are you sittin' here for? You're not out of a job, I hope."

"This is the first time I sat down for weeks," Herb spoke up. "A hired man ain't supposed to sit down."

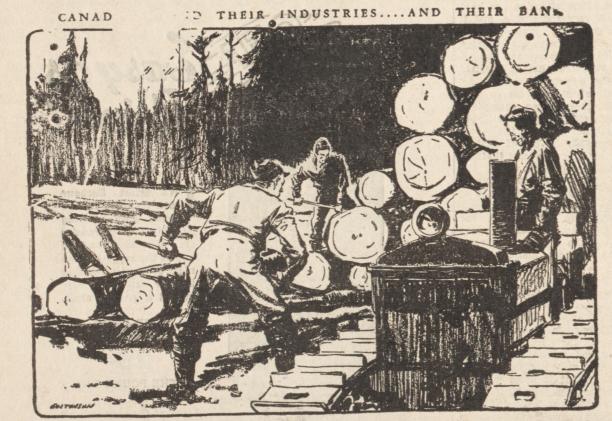

Mr. Picobac nodded cheerfully. "A good man like you just naturally don't get a chance to do much sittin', Herb," he said. "A tobacco man is always a busy man." "Only chance I ever get to sit is when I come to town," said Herb. "I'm waitin' for the bus, that's all."

"Well, Herb, I don't mind telling you I enjoy sitting down once in a while myself," confessed Mr. Picobac mopping his brow. "It seems to rest your hands and face. Your bus ain't due for a while yet. Let's you and me load our pipes from my new seal-tight Picobac pouch and sit down to a mild ... cool ... sweet smoke."

· THE FOREST INDUSTRIES ·

The forest area of Canada on which there is timber of merchantable size is larger than the total area of France and Germany combined; the standing timber on this is estimated at 274 billion cubic feet. An area of even greater extent is covered with young growth.

This vast reservoir of wood is the source from which Canada drew wealth in excess of $110,000,000 in 1934 (the latest figures available) in the form of primary products such as:

• raw material for saw-mills, pulp mills, wood distillation, charcoal plants;

logs. pulpwood, bolts, etc., for export,

· firewood, railroad ties, posts, poles, fence rails, mining maple sugar, balsam gum, resin, cascara, tanbark,

The total value of manufactured products made prince pally from raw materials of forest origin was $404,435,948. Forest products in 1936 afforded an excess of exports over imports-$158,560,000-very important to Canada's international trade.

The Bank of Montreal has co-operated with every activity of the forest industries - assisting in every phase of production and marketing. The Bank has had the priva ilege of financing a large share of the export business of these industries. Thousands of workers are depositors, sharing in the safety and facilities of the Bank with their employing companies.

Some of the Bank's services most frequently used by employers and employees in the forest trades: Commercial accounts, foreign currency accounts; financing of shipments; commercial loans and discounts; collections; trade and credit information, safekeeping of securities; vavings accounts; personal loans; money orders; travellers cheques; banking by mail.
