WILL ANTICOSTI ISLAND PASS INTO DUTCH-GERMAN CAPITALISTS' HANDS?

Quebec Paper Fears This Island May Be Made
A German Base In Event Of War

The Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph has the following editorial regarding the purchase of Anticosti Island by Dutch-German capitalists:

"It is true that the Island of Anticosti is in private ownership, it is true that it was owned for many years by a foreign capitalist. Conditions have changed radically, however, and the world today is in a critical state; to say nothing of the fact that there is a vast difference between having the island in French hands and in those of certain other European countries.

"The Montreal Gazette reports in a copyrighted article that the Consolidated Paper Company gave an option on this valuable property to a Montreal financier early last summer and that the latter is on the point of closing a deal for its sale to a syndicate mainly composed of Dutch and German capitalists who propose to build and operate on Anticosti a sulphite pulp mill that will afford employment to some 1,500 or 2,000 men.

"We do not know the exact authenticity of this report nor whether the deal will go through successfully in the end. The Gazette is a responsible newspaper, however, with abundant means of informing itself on a matter of this kind and supplies a great amount of supporting detail. The matter therefore, is serious enough to warrant serious thought by the people of Canada and so far as capitalists having any connection with Nazi, Fascist or Communist countries are concerned, this paper for one demands insistently that the Dominion Government at once adopt and enforce a policy of: 'Hands off Anticosti!'

"Anticosti is an island with an area of more than 3,000 miles, situated in the Gulf of St. Lawrence off the Gaspé Peninsula, 360 miles northwest of this city. In other words it is right at the front door of Canada in general and of the Province of Quebec in particular. Many of us have not yet forgotten the report of the discovery of cement foundations in this district in 1914 that although ostensibly for industrial purposes, would have served equally well for gun emplacements in certain contingencies. "Today less than ever can Canada afford to make available to a possibly aggressive foreign power any property capable of being developed under peace conditions into an effective military base for attacking this Dominion, in the event of war—declared or undeclared. And if Anticosti is sold to a Dutch-German syndicate, there is nothing to prevent its use in that way. But even apart from the threat of invasion Quebec certainly does not want to see a community of from 6,000 to 8,000 Dutch and German people settled off the coast of Gaspé as a centre of Nazi propaganda from which the entire Province may be poisoned.

"The public interest takes precedence over private interest, of necessity, and the deal outlined by the Gazette can only be a losing one for Canada and Quebec, no matter how great the economic advantage of which it holds out the promise may be—and, actually, these are not so considerable, after all. Ottawa should act immediately and stop at all costs the sale of Anticosti to interests under Adolph Hitler's thumb!"

Author of the famous book of this name

BE A GOOD LISTENER—

"We all enjoy talking when we have an interested listener and few human beings are proof against the implied flattery of rapt attention."

"Often even the most violent critic, the most confirmed kicker, will see the light of reason when simply allowed to talk without interruption. It gets the poison out of his system, as it were."

"So, if you want to be regarded as good company and a pleasant fellow, learn how to listen. To be interesting, be interested."

"Ask questions that the other man can answer and will want to answer. Give him a chance to talk about himself."

"If you wanted people to shun you, to make fun of you, even to despise you, one of the very best ways to do it would be never to listen to anyone for long—to talk incessantly about yourself instead."

"We all know people like that—and avoid them like the measles."

"Remember, we are all more interested in ourselves and our wants and problems than in anything else under the sun. If I have a toothache, it means more to me than war in China or revolution in Spain."

"Think of that the next time you take part in a conversation."

HAVE YOU SMOKED A TURRET LATELY?

YOU will find that most smokers like to talk about their favourite cigarette. Turret smokers, for instance, enjoy discussing their preference for Turrets . . . the milder, cooler smoke they give, and the satisfying taste of the unique and original Turret blend. That is why you'll please your friends at Christmas if you give them Turrets in the handsome gift wrappers of 50 and 100 cigarettes.
