stated that you cannot buy food and liquor with the same money. When we are squandering upwards of three millions of dollars per year legally and perhaps as much more illegally in this province legitimate trade must suffer. End this colossal waste, said the speaker. He urged all present to use their influence for total abstinence and sobriety. A short address was also delivered by Rev. T. D. Bell of Fredericton who is assisting Mr. McLeod in the campaign.

More than three hundred people attended the service in George street Baptist church last evening when Rev. A. A. McLeod, Maritime Secretary for the Sons of Temperance brought a stirring and thought-provoking message. Rev. John Linton, pastor of the church presided and he was assisted by Rev. T. D. Bell. Taking as his theme, "Building the City of God, he spoke from the text, "There shall in no wise enter the City anything that defileth." The speaker asserted that it was impossible to build the City of God, to evangelize Canadian life, or to build a new world with the liquor traffic rampant. "You cannot build the City of God on a drink sodden society," Mr. MacLeod declared.

"Generally speaking," he said, "no response to the Christian appeal comes from women who are befuddled with cocktails, or from men who are bleary-eyed from beer drinking." He called upon the rank and file of church membership to become total abstainers. Proving from telling illustrations that liquor was a defiler, that it made sons of decent men, robbed wives and mothers of their heritage and little children of their birthright, that the use of liquor was the cause of death upon our highways, murder, neglect of child life and degrading to humanity, he called upon all to in self-denial, become total abstainers. "Every Christian should be a total abstainer," he declared. "There is a little public house which every man can close, it is the little public house just below his nose." The very best way to close the liquor stores and put the bootlegger out of business was to cease patronizing them, said the preacher. Anything that defiles humanity such as alcohol is doing, should be shunned and actively opposed by the Christian Church membership following the lead already given by the various church courts.

Mr. McLeod addresses a mass temperance meeting Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the Brunswick Street Baptist church. The United, Presbyterian and Baptist churches of the city are co-operating in this service. The various prayer meetings being merged into this temperance meeting. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Education

ada, the burden on the communities would be lightened and no district would be required to carry too great an amount of school taxation. Professor Kierstead advocated a county unit of administration to replace the community fund.

Continuing, he pointed out that with county and provincial support the country fund would raise what was necessary to support a school.

Dealing with the problem of secondary education, the speaker said that in comparison with other provinces, New Brunswick is "backward." One of the main steps to remedy this condition was the employment of more teachers, better facilities and a larger unit of administration.

Consolidated Schools

He stressed the necessity of additional Consolidated Schools in the province to provide for agricultural education and to avert the drawbacks in rural areas. The speaker then outlined the reasons why these schools are at present at a minimum in the province.

After dealing further with the problems affecting education in this province, the speaker referred to teaching methods. He suggested that a course of study be given teachers at regular intervals, dealing with the various methods of teaching. The speaker further said that the problem of proper teaching would, in a greater degree, be solved if a committee of representative teachers and educationists were to make a survey of the various methods of teaching.

The importance of the establishment of school libraries was also stressed by Professor Kierstead, who said that school authorities are not taking advantage of the "grants" to school libraries to the various rural schools.

During his remarks, the speaker said that the system of education has become too aristocratic and must be condensed. It should be made a general concern throughout the province, he said.

In conclusion, Professor Kierstead paid high tribute to Dr. A. S. McFarlane and Dr. Peacock, officials of the educational department of the government, whom, he said, were two of the outstanding leaders in educational work in eastern Canada. He expressed the assurance that with the two officials named there is little doubt that the educational problems will be solved.

MARITIME FOOD SHOW WAS MOST SUCCESSFUL

Maritime Goods Served Under Direction of Victor Hatheway Chapter Daughters of the Empire.

Several hundred people visited Castle Hall on Saturday afternoon to see the splendid display of Maritime products at the Maritime Food Show. The Victor Hatheway Chapter of the I.O.D.E. with the co-operation of several Maritime firms had arranged a most interesting and attractive demonstration.

The colors of the Order, red, white and blue were very artistically used to decorate the booths. Members of the Chapter, dressed in white uniforms, were in attendance at each booth, where they demonstrated the products advertised, distributed samples and explained different features of the products displayed. Four of the demonstrators were graduate dietitians. Adding greatly to the colorful scene was the charming array of spring flowers and plants and graceful palms arranged about the hall. During the afternoon piano music was furnished by Miss Gertrude Davis, Miss Irene Fenety and Miss Mildred Smith.

Many varieties of plain and fancy cookies and biscuits were shown by J. A. Marven, Ltd., Moncton. Mrs. Haary Wilson and Miss Harriet Van Wart explained to the many patrons, the outstanding values of these products.

Cookies, salad dressing, candies, desserts, sauces were shown in one booth. Mrs. Frank Shute and Miss Rita Underhill were most efficient demonstrators.

A vase of red roses and show cards illustrating the same announced the famous Red Rose Tea and Coffee of T. H. Estabrooks Co. Ltd. Mrs. F. Corbin gave interesting talks on the different blends of tea, and distributed samples.

Many different kinds of bread, rolls and cakes were exhibited by Eastern Bakeries. All were neatly wrapped in cellophane and made a very appetizing array. Mrs. R. G. Loughlin was in charge of this booth and answered any questions about the display.

Local M.M.A. merchants had arranged in their exhibit cooked and uncooked meats, cereals, flour. Mrs. Charles Johnston and Miss Christine Howie were present and demonstrated the use of Teabisk for making biscuits.

Against a background of national blue, the blue and white cans and the orange and black packages made a colorful picture. Pyramids of baking powder cans showed that this is one of their outstanding products. Mrs. K. C. Bishop demonstrated the use of the baking powders and the many varieties of spices shown by means of cakes containing these ingredients. Mrs. A. F. VanWart showed that many tempting desserts can be made from the large assortment of jelly powders.

Tasty butter, rich cream and milk were attractively displayed in a show case. Mrs. Earle Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Moore discussed with the patrons the excellent qualities of these products, and also of the delicious ice cream.

The "True-Value" box occupied a very prominent place in the exhibit. Other varieties of the tasty candies were displayed. Mrs. A. McF. Limerick was ready with any information about the display.

Tickets on a hand-tinted picture by Miss Madge Smith were sold by Misses Florence Branscombe and Claire Fowler. The holder of the lucky ticket was Mrs. F. H. Rowe.

At five o'clock a supper was served in the banquet hall. Among the many good things on the menu were ham, New Brunswick peas, and Red Rose tea and coffee. Members of the Chapter and Guides of the 97th I.O.D.E. Fredericton Company served. The supper room was most attractive with small tables, each centred with tiny shamrocks. Window boxes and baskets filled with quantities of Easter lilies, daffodils and ferns were greatly admired. Small palms about the room completed the floral decorations which were by Bebbington's Gardens.

Two door prizes, a case of ginger ale and a bag of flour, were won by Mrs. Jennie McCarthy and Mrs. M. M. McFarlane.

The committee in charge of this very successful Food Show and supper was: Mrs. K. R. McAdam, Mrs. W. Hedley Wilson, Mrs. E. A. Skene, Mrs. Delmas Oltz, Mrs. A. McF. Limerick, Mrs. Frank Shute, Miss Maggie Jean Chestnut, Miss Harriet VanWart and Miss Dora Wetmore.

The whole display was personally inspected by P. S. Watson, managing director of the central office in M.M.A., who came here from Saint John for that purpose. The display was a most creditable one and demonstrated that our Maritime Merchants and manufacturers can place on the market goods that cannot be surpassed anywhere.

duction and protecting their farmers against foreign competition. They therefore have regulations making it difficult to import table or consumption potatoes, but at the same time they permit the free importation of reliable seed, and at times even assist financially. It is therefore necessary that, of the potatoes we produce, a greater portion should be of certified quality. Let it be clear, at the present time we are not encouraging an increased production of potatoes. We are recommending, however, that a greater proportion of those being produced, should be of seed quality.

"Realizing that an extension of potato markets appeared to be the most promising solution of the economic problem of many growers, the Department made a preliminary survey of possible markets.

"Late in November 1935, the Department made trial shipments consisting of some 1,900 crates, holding 66 pounds each, to Uruguay and Argentina. Late in February, a preliminary survey of potential markets was made in several South American countries. Contacts were also made with government officials, dealers and growers. Information descriptive of our certified seed has been extensively distributed in many countries where seed might be required. These activities have already borne fruit."

Helps END A COLD Quicker

The 3-Minute VapoRub Massage

Massage VapoRub briskly on the throat, chest and back (between and below the shoulder blades). Then spread it thick over the chest and cover with warm cloth.

Almost before you finish rubbing, VapoRub starts to bring relief two ways at once—two direct ways:

1. Through the Skin. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice or plaster.
2. Medicated Vapors. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by body heat, are breathed in for hours—about 18 times a minute—direct to the irritated air-passages of the nose, throat and chest.

This combined poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation—helps break congestion. While the little patient relaxes into comfortable sleep, VapoRub keeps right on working. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Avoids Risk of Stomach Upsets
This safe, external treatment cannot possibly upset the stomach, as constant internal "dosing" is so apt to do. It can be used freely, as often as needed, even on the youngest child.

Now White—Stainless

Thanks to a new process, VapoRub now comes to you in white stainless form. Only the color is removed; it is the same VapoRub—the same formula and the same effective double action.
