

BOY MINISTER LIKES HIS TOYS BUT IS SERIOUSNESS ITSELF IN PULPIT

Stands On Chair When Preaching---Speaks Five Languages

PEORIA, Ill., July 27—A 7 year old boy evangelist, an ordained minister took time off from his preaching duties today to roll in the sand and play with an electric train—his favorite diversions.

Charles Jaynes, Jr., of Riverside, Calif., delivered a sermon at Bloomington, Ill., and then joined his parents at his California home for a rest. He arrived here Thursday from Roanoke, Va., after making a cross-country speaking tour, accompanied by a tutor, Miss Neva Duff.

Rev. B. G. Drake, at whose Trinity Tabernacle the boy was admitted to the ministry Thursday night, described the young evangelist as the youngest ordained minister in the world. But added, 'he's just an ordinary boy.'

'There's nothing Charles likes better,' Drake said, 'than to put on a play suit and roll around in the sand but in the pulpit he's different—serious, sincere and determined.'

He usually stands on a chair when he delivers his sermons, Miss Duff said, and claps his hands and pounds his fists on a table to emphasize his points. He wears a knee-length black suit, with white collar and cuffs, anklets and white shoes. He is short for his age and a bit pudgy. His black hair is bobbed.

Miss Duff said he had been preaching since he was three years old. On his first appearance he delivered the Gettysburg address. The tutor said the youngster had conducted services in 17 states and 130 cities and had given more than 1,000 sermons. He speaks five foreign languages, Spanish, German, Japanese, Indian and a Congo-Belgian African dialect. He memorizes sermons prepared by his parents or Miss Duff, the latter said.

'When I grow up,' he told an interviewer today, 'I want to be a fire man or a baseball player in the daytime, but preach at night.'

The tutor said psychologists rated the boy's mind equal to that of a 12-year-old.

Another feature was a great "Scout World Friendship Wheel," the living Scout spokes of which, representing the different Scouting countries of the world, involved, singing, about a figure representing the Scouts' patron saint, St. George. On a giant checker board small Wolf Cub checker men hopped about as they were moved in an actual game.

THE FOREST INDUSTRIES

The forest area of Canada on which there is timber of merchantable size is larger than the total area of France and Germany combined; the standing timber on this is estimated at 274 billion cubic feet. An area of even greater extent is covered with young growth.

This vast reservoir of wood is the source from which Canada drew wealth in excess of $110,000,000 in 1934 (the latest figures available) in the form of primary products such as:

- raw material for saw-mills, pulp mills, wood distillation, charcoal plants;
- logs, pulpwood, bolts, etc., for export;
- firewood, railroad ties, posts, poles, fence rails, railing timbers;
- maple sugar, balsam gum, resin, cascare, tanbark, moss, etc.

The total value of manufactured products made principally from raw materials of forest origin was $404,435,948.

Forest products in 1936 afforded an excess of exports over imports—$158,560,000—very important to Canada's international trade.

The Bank of Montreal has co-operated with every activity of the forest industries—assisting in every phase of production and marketing. The Bank has had the privilege of financing a large share of the export business of these industries. Thousands of workers are depositors, sharing in the safety and facilities of the Bank with their employing companies.

Some of the Bank's services most frequently used by employers and employees in the forest trades: Commercial accounts, foreign currency accounts; financing of shipments; commercial loans and discounts; collections; trade and credit information; safekeeping of securities; savings accounts; personal loans; money orders; travellers cheques; banking by mail.
