Halifax Entry Takes First in Kennel Show

SAINT JOHN, May 12—In a classy field of 86 entries, Ch. Netheridge Nickel, Sealyham, owned by Miss Alice G. O'Brien of Halifax was judged best in show at the second annual exhibition of the Maritime Ladies Kennel Club held yesterday.

The snow white little Halifax entry, shown by C. C. Sullivan, agent, strutted to the No. 1 position leaving Miss Dorothy M. Cassidy's Schipperke, Flapperette O' the South, and Mrs. R. C. Vaughan's Kendon Freckles, best of breed in the Cocker Spaniel class, in the judges' square. A large Coronation Day gallery gave the little Sealyham a great hand as Judge Alf Loveridge of Toronto presented Mr. Sullivan with the president's cup.

The best of show display climaxed one of the most successful one-day dog shows ever held in Saint John.

Other outside winners were Wamutta Mavis, Irish Setter owned by E. B. Campbell of Halifax, which took best of breed, William G. Smith's Burlington Bondman of Halifax which won best of breed in the wire hair fox terrier class, and Meg of High-standing, Imp. English Bulldog owned by Edwin M. Wright, Montreal, which took best of breed.

Leigh DeVoe's pointer, Easco Old Gold; J. E. Britt's setter, Ch. Eastmount Blue Moon; Mrs. R. C. Vaughan's cocker spaniel, Kendon Freckles; H. J. Keyes' Irish water spaniel, Idylwyld G Man; Mrs. A. A. Gordon Corbet's Afghan hound, Ramy; W. Earle's beagle, Thornhaven Fritz; G. H. Williams' rough collie, Laddie; L. T. Dow's German shepherd Spoke; Harry Aronoff's Great Dane, Goldie Great Dania; C. G. McCarthy's bull terrier, Mayflys Lady Dauntless; Gaswood Kennels' smooth fox terrier, Garwood Tip Lady; A. E. Smith's Irish terrier, Terry; Miss Marjorie Jarvis' Scottish terrier, Cos-tar McAndrew; the Misses A. S. and L. A. R. Kingsman's Pekingese, Wang Kuo Chung of An-Lu; Mrs. B. M. Frost's Boston terrier, Miss Flash Again of Saint John; and Miss Dorothy M. Cassidy's Schipperke, Flapperette o' the South, were Saint John's contributions to the class winners.

Mrs. M. B. Frost's entries in the Boston terrier class were the heavy winners in the special prizes and Mrs. Frost took first prize as the best lady exhibitor.

For the first time since the adoption of the new rule regarding the judging of sporting dogs, hounds were judged separately from the other sporting dogs. Among the hounds for the first time in the history of Eastern dog shows was an Afghan hound owned by Mrs. A. A. Gordon Corbet.

Spoke, a Saint John German shepherd dog owned by L. T. Dow, won his championship. It is the second dog of Mr. Dow's which has won a championship since last fall. Fritzie Pal, another of the same breed, won his championship at the Saint John Exhibition last September.

NEW YORK, May 13—Eve March, NBC actress who came to radio via Hollywood and Broadway, believes there is very little difference between a broadcast and a movie "take," as far as acting is concerned.

"Voice projection," she declares, "which is so integral a part of the theatre where one must play to the back row, has no place in either radio or pictures, because the microphone and camera bring the audience within a few feet of the actor and encourage a subtlety that is impossible to achieve on the stage."

Miss March was born in Hollywood and, as she says, "So was my father before me." She began her career in vaudeville and later was seen in such motion pictures as "Trouble Shooters" and "She Married Her Boss" before she came on to New York for the theatre and radio.

Miss March is currently heard over NBC in John's Other Wife, broadcast over the NBC-Red network, Monday through Friday, at 10:15 a.m., EDST, under the sponsorship of Louis Philippe Lipstick.

NEW YORK, May 13—Doris Hare, the English comedienne who was brought to America last winter by NBC, doesn't like the way critics are comparing her to her fellow-countryman, Beatrice Lillie.

"Not that I don't think she's a bit all right, mind you," Doris explains, "but people will listen in on the wireless and say the blighter's silly; she is not like Lillie. Say, that rhymes, doesn't it now?"

A vivacious, blue-eyed blonde, Doris Hare speaks a good deal like her scripts. Maybe you've heard her run rampant on the NBC-Blue network. She's been on the air since March 10. Perhaps you caught her doing a guest spot on James Melton's Seal-te programme on May 8.

Doris is a protegee of Noel Coward and has appeared in several of his shows in London. Her cottage in Sussex is called "Noel Cottage," after the actor and playwright.

FREER TRADE LEADING ISSUE AT CONFERENCE

Easing of World Barriers to Vie With Defense in Deliberations

LONDON, May 13—Judging by the developments of the past week, the issue of freer trade is likely to share the Imperial Conference spotlight with the problem of defense.

There is much talk about Empire armament, but sooner or later somebody asks, "What about Roosevelt's freer trade plan?" It is well to remember that President Roosevelt contends that economic disarmament is the surest path to peace. The belief is widespread that the two great English-speaking democracies should enter into a trade treaty, not only because it would be mutually beneficial, but because such a gesture might well tip the scales in favor of international political appeasement.

It is equally well known that modification of the Ottawa agreements, so as to open the British market to United States foodstuffs, fruits, lumber, manufactures, is essential if such treaty is to be made.

Question for Dominion
This places a difficult issue before the Dominion Governments. Are they prepared to surrender part of their treaty advantages in the British market in aid of a larger international settlement?

If so it is reasonably sure that the so-called Oslo Powers, France and the South American republics also would join the low tariff movement, creating a broad base for further world recovery. It is thought barely possible that the dictatorships would then be lured away from their policies of self-sufficiency.

These, it is agreed, are weighty considerations for a conference which meets in the shadow of war but precisely how the issue will be raised is uncertain. Certainly no Dominion delegation will raise it.

Mr. Baldwin said in Parliament on March 12, that matters affecting the Ottawa agreements will only be discussed bilaterally and not by the conference as such. Since Mr. Baldwin spoke, however, pressure for an Anglo-United States treaty has increased tremendously.

British Press Engrossed
In the past week practically all important daily and weekly newspapers have devoted editorial or news space to it. This includes the Times, Manchester Guardian, Yorkshire Post, Morning Post, News-Chronicle, Herald, Economist, Spectator, News and Talisman.

There have been variations in the degree of warmth but all are agreed that the British Government should co-operate with any movement to liberate trade. Many state definitely that the issue involves the Ottawa agreements and must be submitted to the conference, but it is obvious that quick action is impossible.

The British Government still adheres to the most-favored-nation clause extending to all treaty nations any concessions granted to one. This is being assailed and will have to be reconsidered carefully before any substantial advance can be achieved in the negotiations with the United States.

Therefore all the conference is likely to deal with is the general principle. Is it in favor of co-operation in a freer trade movement? Is it prepared to reverse the Ottawa policy of economic imperialism? Are the Dominions ready to surrender part of their existing protection in the British market to these ends?

Canada for Quid Pro Quo

It is agreed that the British delegation will probably raise the issue either at the conference or directly with Dominion delegates. The Canadian delegation, while not seeking this issue, undoubtedly, if faced with it, will support freer trade. At the same time it will have to be definite that there will be advantages as well as disadvantages in the larger field. If the United States is serious about the new policy, Canada will easily be compensated for any losses incurred, and there may be significance in the announcement that the Australian delegates are returning via Washington.

SPRINGHILL NINE DOWN HUB CUBS IN EXHIBITION 6-5

MONCTON, May 13 — Springhill Fence-Busters, Nova Scotia baseball champions last year, nosed out the Moncton Cubs in the first ball game of the year here on Speedway Park this afternoon by a score of 6-5. Before an exceptionally large crowd the teams dished out almost mid-season form and although both used four pitchers during the struggle, none of the elbows were bearing down on the old "cannon" ball, although big "Stow" McLeod, ace Springhill right-hander, pasted the odd fast one down the alley.

Cubs outthrew the visitors 11 to 7 but five juicy errors by the four Moncton infielders helped along the weak clubbing of the Nova Scotia club and took advantage of the breaks, a most important factor in a ball game. Although they were nosed out of a win, after assuming a 4 to 0 lead in the fifth session, the Cubs looked impressive today and, clad in brand new white uniforms trimmed with a bright red, should give a good account of themselves before the curtain rings down in the autumn.

George Urquhart started on the slope for the homesters and did not allow a run and only two hits during the time he worked on the hillcock and he was followed in turn by Bill Pollock, who gave up two safeties and then by Tracey, who grounded one bingle, and Lloyd Pollock finished up the game by allowing a pair of safe blows. "Buz" Barton, Cub backstop, led the swatters with three safe hits in four trips to the plate, while Temp Vanbuskirk and Lee Cusack of the Cubs also gathered two hits in four times up. For the Nova Scotians, "Sailor" McDonald, a swell

Swift's Hurling Paves Way for N.Y. Victory

NEW YORK, May 12 — New York Giants formally hoisted their 1936 National Baseball League pennant but the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates "crowned" them 6-5.

Pittsburgh twice came from behind to take the lead and made their second rally stick by Bill Swift's relief pitching in the last three frames.

Swift replaced Joe Bowman after Dick Bartell walked to start the home half of the seventh. Lou Chiozza's sacrifice put the typing run on 2nd base but Swift retired the side and held the Giants hitless for the rest of the game.

"Pie" Traynor's swashbuckling crew holds a lead of 3 1-2 games over the second-place Cardinals.

It took Brooklyn's Dodgers six innings to solve Lloyd Moore's pitching, but when they did, they belted him and Cincinnati Reds for a 5-1 victory in Brooklyn with a seventh-inning scoring spree that netted all their runs.

The victory, Brooklyn's third straight, kept them in the first division.

Despite two homers Boston Bees dropped their sixth consecutive game to Chicago Cubs 6-2 in Boston.

Charley Root, veteran right-hander held the home forces to five hits, including circuit drives by Gene Moore and Tony Cuccinello, while chalking up his first 1937 triumph.

Collins Gets Circuit Drive

"Ripper" Collins of the Cubs slapped one of Johnny Lanning's offerings into the right field stands, after Linus Frey singled in the fourth inning.

The Cardinals defeated the Phillies 15-3 in Philadelphia, routing three Philadelphia hurlers with 20 hits, including three home runs, two triples and six doubles.

Ducky Medwick and Pepper Martin led the assault with four hits each. Medwick hit two home runs, one a powerful blast over the left field wall, duplicating a feat heretofore accomplished only by Cliff Lee, Wally Berger and Jimmy Foxx.

Karl Grace and Brusic Ogradowski also walloped round trippers.

Trounce Senators 13-5

NEW YORK, May 12 — Chicago White Sox took advantage of "Buck" Newsom's wildness today to pile up a big early lead and trounced Washington Senators 13-5 in Chicago.

Mixing Zeke Bonura's fourth home run of the season, and three other hits with seven passes, the Sox scored seven runs before Newsom was removed in the fourth inning. They added two more before Carl Fischer could retire the side in the same session and compiled their four final runs in the eighth off Joe Cascarella.

How to Ease a Cold Quickly

1. Take 2 "ASPIRIN" tablets and drink a full glass of water. Repeat treatment in 2 hours.
2. If throat is sore, crush and stir 3 "ASPIRIN" tablets in 1/2 glass of water. Gargle twice. This eases throat rawness and soreness almost instantly.

Get Quick-Acting, Quick-Dissolving "Aspirin." Take 2 Tablets

The modern way to ease a cold is this: Two "Aspirin" tablets the moment you feel a cold coming on. Then repeat, if necessary, according to instructions in the box.

At the same time, if you have a sore throat, crush and dissolve three "Aspirin" tablets in one-third glass of water. And gargle with this mixture twice.

The "Aspirin" you take internally will act to combat fever, cold pains and the cold itself. The gargle will provide almost instant relief from rawness and pain, acting like a local anesthetic on the irritated membrane of your throat.

Try this way. Your doctor, we know, will endorse it. For it
