RADIO ROLE RE-ENACTED IN REAL LIFE

Last year in an episode of the NBC serial, Backstage Wife, Ken Griffin saved a mythical yacht from disaster during a storm. The other day Ken played the identical role in real life when he maneuvered his storm-battered sloop, Revenge, through a slashing gale on Lake Michigan to win the coveted Mackinac racing division cup. His sloop covered the 331-mile course from Chicago to Mackinac Island, Mich., in 76 hours, 38 minutes, 49 seconds. Griffin and Vivian Fridell, who are the Larry and Mary Noble of Backstage Wife, are shown aboard the Revenge just before the race. Miss Fridell did not make the trip.

DID YOU KNOW..

....that Andrew Godfrey owns every modern means of conveyance except a locomotive engine.
....that Andre Kostelanetz, within a month of his arrival in America, began his musical career here as accompanist for outstanding singing stars of the Metropolitan Opera.
....that Kate Smith broadcast her first program after having played four shows in a personal appearance at the Capitol Theatre. Then, after singing five of the current hit tunes, she had to hurry away from the mike to a fifth show and a special midnight benefit.
....that despite the fact that Gracie Allen is the official dancer of the Burns household it's George Burns who appeared in vaudeville with Sid Gary in an act billed as "The Fantastic Steppers". (NOTE: George still doesn't know why they called themselves by that elegant name—their entire act was from dialogue and singing!)
....that the reason Phil Spitalny ranks the "William Tell" overture as one of his favorites is that it was the very first composition played under his baton when he made his bow as a conductor.
....that Jack Oakie, Prexy of radio's mythical Oakie College, once amused Lucille LaSueur (she's now Joan Crawford) by wearing a raccoon coat and acting like a rah-rah sophomore, when they were both in the chorus of a Broadway musical show.

NEWS AND NOTES

Distinguished guest at Robert L. Ripley's Friday the 13th Believe It Or Not broadcast was Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, widow of the 23rd President of the United States.

After the program, in a chat with Ripley, Mrs. Harrison corroborated many of the facts which are to be presented on his air show Friday, August 20, at 9:00 P. M., EDT, over the WJZ-NBC network. Typical of the incredible coincidences they discussed is the fact that her late husband, President Benjamin Harrison, 23rd United States' President, was the third son of John Scott Harrison, Congressman from Ohio, who was the third son of Wm. Henry Harrison, 9th President of the United States, who was the first son of Benjamin Harrison, the first, who was a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

August 20, when these and many other historical oddities will be revealed by Ripley is the 104th anniversary of President Harrison's birth.

Jack Miller begins his seventh season as accompanist and conductor for Kate Smith, when she starts her new air series Thursday, September 30 at 8:00 P. M., EDT, over the WABC-CBS network.

January 1, 1938, will mark eight association between the two artists, Miller having played for the songstress for the first time on her radio debut in 1931.
Phil Spitalny and his all-girl orchestra, heard every Monday at 9:30 P. M., EDT, over the WEAF-NBC network, on the "Hour of Charm" broadcasts, will charm Clevelanders in person when they begin an engagement at the lake city's Palace Theatre, Friday, September 3rd.
Deanna Durbin, 14 year old soprano singing star who was introduced to the airwaves last season by Eddie Cantor, has been signed to the comedian's new series which makes its bow to listeners in Sunday, September 12, at 8:30 P. M., EDT, over the WABC-CBS network.

JOSH HIGGINS TO HAVE PARK NAMED FOR HIM

CHICAGO, Aug. 19—The dedication of Josh Higgins Park, a 30-acre tract being established at Finchford, Ia., in tribute to Joe Du Mond, NBC actor and singer, and his NBC program, Josh Higgins of Finchville, will be broadcast during the first half hour of the National Farm and Home Hour on Thursday, August 26, over the NBC-Blue Network from 1:30 to 2:00 p. m., EDT.

The Cedar Falls Chamber of Commerce and a committee of Finchford citizens received the park as a tribute to Du Mond, native of Finchford, because of the publicity he has brought the little town "by the bend of the river." Former production manager of WMT at Waterloo, Ia., Du Mond created the character of Josh Higgins and the fictional Finchville, microphone counterpart of his native town, before coming to NBC networks.

During the broadcast of the dedicatory exercises, Du Mond will appear as Josh Higgins and will introduce "my neighbor," Governor Nels Kraschel, as principal speaker. Other Iowa officials, including State Senator John J. Berg, who plans to introduce a bill to the legislature to convert Josh Higgins Park into a State park, are expected to speak. Music will be supplied by the Cedar Falls Band, national prize-winning organization of Cedar Falls, Ia.

Josh Higgins of Finchville is heard Mondays through Fridays over the NBC-Red Network at 10:00 a. m., EDT.

"Unions Agree to Wage Rise" says a headline, and there doesn't seem anything remarkable in that.

To save cloth Hitler has ordered that Germans' shirts be shorter. This is getting too personal altogether.
