Still Confined to Home With Illness

Friends will regret to hear that the condition of Mrs. H. Ralph Gunter is not improving as fast as was at first expected. Mrs. Gunter had the misfortune to slip on the ice in front of her home early in the winter, breaking her ankle and has since been confined to her home. Mrs. H. H. Gunter is also confined to her home through illness.

Better Luck Next Time

She's everything a girl should be—Exquisite, tip to toe Perfection . . . pink and white and gold—
The sweetest thing. Although She didn't win that beauty prize (Those judges must be blind.) More azure eyes or dimpled chin I know they'll never find! That mouth of hers . . . a rosebud curved Adorably, for kisses! Those honey curls. She's lovelier far Than filmdom's fairest misses! And yet she won no beauty prize. Incredible, but true.
(I'll send her photo in again When those front teeth come through!)

Pretty Wedding At Brunswick Street Baptist Church

The marriage of Mary Adelaide Baker, of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Baker, of Melvern Square, Annapolis county, Nova Scotia, to Allan MacLean Grant, of Fredericton, son of Mrs. Willis Grant and the late Mr. Grant, of this city, took place at three o'clock this afternoon at the Brunswick Street Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gerald W. Guiou, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of guests and interested friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Venetian lace with bridal veil, held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Johanna Hill roses. Miss Ruth Grant, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Gladys Ferguson, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids and were gowned alike, the former wearing pastel blue georgette and the latter in charming pink georgette and both wearing matching hats of mohair and carrying pink roses. Little Miss Gwendolyn Guiou daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Gerald W. Guiou as junior bridesmaid, was gowned in green chiffon with yellow mohair bonnet and carrying an old-fashioned nosegay. Ronald S. Simms acted as best man, while W. T. Walker and Harold Porter were ushers. As the bride entered the church the vested choir sang "O Perfect Love," and during the signing of the register Mrs. Guiou rendered "Because." The wedding march and Recessional were played by Miss Gertrude Davis. The church had been tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and white lilies.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and a number of invited guests repaired to the Brunswick Street Baptist Church parsonage where a reception was held. The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake and the floral decorations consisted of lilies of the valley and similar. Presiding over the tea cups were Mrs. Charles McGibbon and Mrs. J. F. Allen. Assisting was Miss Donna Wetmore, Miss Edith Brown, Miss Mildred McCain, Miss Emma Trafton, Miss Gertrude Davis, Mrs. John Linton, Mrs. H. S. Wright, Miss Dorothy Palmer (Douglas Harbour, N. S.). Those serving at the bride's table were Miss Helen Fraser and Miss Mary Ferguson. Replenishing were Mrs. R. M. McGibbon and Mrs. A. H. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant later left on a wedding trip to the United States returning by way of the White Mountains and Montreal, and will reside in the city. The bridegroom is chief accountant of the Maritime Electric Company, Ltd. The bride's travelling costume was a green linen suit with brown accessories. The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Baker, Melvern Square, N. S.; Harry Saunders, St. Stephen, N. B.; Mrs. Percy Minue, Miss Helen Grant and Miss Ruth Grant, of Saint John; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ingersoll, Miss Laura Parks and Mrs. W. K. (Historical Society Executive
At a meeting of the executive of the York-Sunbury Historical Society last evening, matters concerning the unveiling of a memorial to the late Benjamin Tibbitts were discussed.

The Ladies' Aid of Douglas Harbour will serve lunches and refreshments, and a goodly number of people from Sheffield expect to be present. The joint picnic of the Science Club and the Historical Society will be held in connection with the event. Cars will carry members to and from Scotchtown, leaving Fredericton about two o'clock on the appointed date.

Among interesting accessions for the Historical Society museum are a number of old books from Mrs. Annie Whitaker, including four volumes of Encyclopedia Britannica a century and a half old; also a book printed in 1714 and at one time owned by Rev. Samuel Cook, first Anglican rector here. Ernest Greene, F.R. Hist. S., of Ottawa, sent a copy of his pamphlet, "A Little Study in Loyalist Genealogy," in which he gives credit to members of this Society for having supplied him with certain facts. A copy of the "Pictou Advocate" was sent in by Mrs. Joseph Gunning, of Pictou, containing accounts of the steam packet "Royal William," the first to cross the Atlantic, and of the first railway in British North America. Miss de Vatte, of Louisburg, sent information concerning restoration of fortifications there. Routine business was also transacted.

The Earl and Countess of Bessborough left London shortly after the Coronation for Stansted Park, their seat in Hants to spend ten days.

A WEDDING WISH

Dear Bride-to-be, within that home where you will soon be "Mrs." I hope you'll find a wealth of things besides just love and kisses.

New curtains at the windows,
New rugs upon the floor,
New towels to grace a brand new rack where none have hung before.

New linen in the closet,
New pans upon the stove,
New knick-knacks all about the place, a varied treasure-trove.

New silver on the table,
New cook books to be read,
New underthings to hang on hooks before you go to bed!

New rings upon your finger,
And in your heart a song
That makes "his" love seem bright and new, your whole life long!
ALICE LARSON.

Nature has done a great deal for New Brunswick!

With an ideal summer and autumn climate, with six hundred miles of coast line, with the finest fishing waters in the world, with breath-taking beauty everywhere, Nature has certainly done a great deal for New Brunswick. And your Government has been busy telling people everywhere about these attractions and in providing the kind of roads tourists demand.

OUR VISITORS SHOULD BE MADE COMFORTABLE

But great beauty and good roads are not enough. We must also see that our visitors are made comfortable while they are here—that they are well-housed and well-fed and well-treated. Now as you can readily see, your Government cannot look after these most important factors. They are your responsibility—especially the responsibility of those of you operating hotels, restaurants and tourist camps. It is you who must see that guests get the fresh, native foods they enjoy. It is you who must supply comfortable beds and clean sanitary arrangements. It is you who must guard against all overcharging.

YOUR PLACE IN THE PICTURE

Remember that though Nature has done a great deal for New Brunswick, it is only we Natives who can make it the kind of place people will want to come back to. And we can't afford to sell the tourist business short. It means money in our pockets.

If there is any way that we can be of assistance to you, write us.
