Social Happenings

Cabinet Members' Wives Reception (Hostesses)

One of the outstanding social events during the session of the Legislature was held Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, when Mrs. A. A. Dysart and the wives of the members of the provincial cabinet held a reception in the corporation committee room in the Legislative Building. The very large number of guests, among whom were the members of the Legislature, were introduced by Major T. C. Barker, and received by Mrs. A. A. Dysart, Mrs. J. B. McNair, Mrs. A. P. Paterson, Mrs. W. S. Anderson, Mrs. C. T. Richard and Mrs. F. W. Pirie.

The serving tables were most attractively arranged, being covered with beautiful lace cloths and centred with silver baskets of daffodils and green and white carnations on reflectors, and green and yellow tapers in silver holders. As it was St. Patrick's Day, pots of shamrocks were artistically arranged about the room and a beautiful basket of spring flowers adorned the piano. Mrs. W. G. Clark, Mrs. F. H. Copp, Mrs. F. T. B. Young and Mrs. Walter H. Gilbert presided over the tea cups.

Those replenishing were Miss Eleanor Colter, Miss Mabel Sterling, Miss Martha O'Neill, Mrs. W. A. Haines, Miss Margaret Hall, Miss Kathleen Cain, Mrs. F. B. Osborne, Mrs. A. H. Tweedie, Mrs. Douglas Tims, Mrs. Claire Young, Miss Nella Hawthorne, Miss Marion Copp, Miss Helen Babbitt, Mrs. J. B. Dickson, Mrs. E. Allison MacKay, Miss Maggie Jean Chestnut, Mrs. Earl Smith, and Miss Anna Kelly.

Mrs. J. B. Crocker was in charge of the serving of the guests and those assisting her were Miss Esther Estabrooks, Miss Beatrice MacFarlane, Miss Burla Todd, Miss Jessie Peacock, Miss Helena Hurley, Miss Dorothy Rowan, Miss Molly Barry, Miss Margaret Lynch, Miss Althea Alexander, Miss Eileen Keenan, Miss Dorothy Kydd, Miss Anne Marie Donnette, Miss Sally Bumpce, Miss Ethel Manzer, Miss Edith Young, Miss Anna Hughes, Miss Isabel Patterson, Miss Mary VanWart, Miss Madeline Scott, Miss Catherine MacLaggan, Miss Esther Cremin, Miss Doreen Harper, Miss Louise Hill, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Shirley Anderson, Miss Margaret Fraser, Miss Barbara Wetmore, Miss Glenith Burt, Miss Patricia Jenkins, Mrs. R. H. Chestnut and Miss Helen Ryan.

The Picardy Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, of which Mrs. T. C. Barker is regent, did the catering for this charming affair. A pleasing feature of the function was the sing song of popular Irish airs in which members of the Legislature took a leading part and were joined by a number of those present.

Following Reception

Following the reception Mrs. Dysart entertained the wives of the Cabinet members and the members of the Legislature and other out-of-town visitors. Some of the guests played bridge while others enjoyed a social chat.

Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. A. R. Slipp entertained at luncheon yesterday.

At Home Today

Mrs. Hedley Bridges is at home at the tea hour this afternoon as usual.

Guest in City

Mrs. Henry Odland, of Seattle, Washington, has arrived in the city to be the guest for a few weeks of her sister Mrs. Kenneth L. Golding and Mrs. George E. Fisher.

Celestial Chapter O.E.S. Meeting

The Celestial Chapter of the Eastern Stars held their regular meeting last evening in the Masonic Hall with the Worthy Matron, Miss Sally Bumpce in the chair and a good attendance of members. Routine business was carried out and reports from the different committees were heard. A feature of the meeting was the draping of the charter in memory of Mrs. C. G. McDowell of Truro, N. S., during which Mrs. H. S. Wright sang "Crossing the Bar." At the conclusion of the business a novel St. Patrick's contest was held the prizes being won by Mrs. W. A. Caldwell and Mrs. Arthur McCarthy. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

the late Harry Anderson, the Jaffray family and others who stood for high principles.

"I am not complaining about the three Toronto newspapers, because we know a lot about them. We know who owns them. Their identity is well known. I am dealing with the press as a whole," he said.

Mrs. Colby Authoress

Yesterday The Daily Mail published what has since been referred to by different citizens as a most interesting and well-written article on the music of Ireland. In publishing this article we, through a misunderstanding, stated that it was from the manuscript of the late Hon. Judge Carleton. The fact of the matter is that the article was written by Mrs. Mary Doan Colby, official Supreme Court stenographer for New Brunswick and was returned to her upon the death of Judge Carleton who had been sent the manuscript for his criticism. Judge Carleton who was a noted writer and the author of many articles and plays accompanied the manuscript with a letter in which he stated that Mrs. Colby's article on Irish music was one of the best which he had ever read. Those who had the pleasure yesterday of reading Mrs. Colby's article will agree with Judge Carleton that it was an excellent piece of literature. Mrs. Colby is herself a musician of more than ordinary talent.

Whole Club

Last evening a meeting was held of the Whole Club in the Y.M.C.A. room with the president, Miss Annie Perreay in the chair. About sixteen members were present. A feature of the evening was a lecture given by Miss Kate Stewart on First Aid. Following business meeting refreshments were served. Miss Brigham and other members of the Ladies Aid were present.

Local Elks Entertain

On St. Patrick's Day

The Donnybrook Fair put on by the Elks Club last evening was a success in every way. The guests included the members of the Legislature and in the vicinity of one hundred citizens. The guests were received by Walter H. Vail, Exalted Ruler, George M. Byron, Past Exalted Ruler, Leo F. Cain, leading Knight, and Mayor A. J. McEvoy, House Manager. The evening was spent in singing Irish songs with Leo F. Cain at the piano and Tommy Boyd leading in the chorus singing. During the evening refreshments were served including a good old Irish stew. The reception room, music room, drawing room and other apartments of the Elks were appropriately decorated for the evening and each of the guests who smoked was presented with an Irish pipe. The following invitation sent to the members of the Legislature were in the form of a verse the author being Leo F. Cain, leading Knight. The verse was as follows:

On tell me, have you heard the news
Abroad throughout the town,
On Patrick's Day, the Elks have planned
To honor his renown,
St. Patrick's Day by all to keep,
The old as well as young,
In ancient lays the harp to praise
By swift and tuneful tongue.

The Finnegan and Flahertys,
The Mulligans and Flynns,
McFadden's, Vails, O'Mundles too,
The Colwells, Boyds and Finns.
With jigs and reels by fiddlers played
With stalls upon the green,
And Irish stew with Irish brew
The finest ever seen.

In "Irish Eyes" your voice to raise
And "Wearin' o' the Green,"
Fred Ryan keeping voices smooth
With potions oft and keen.

So come and join in wholesome vein
St. Patrick's Day to keep,
And bring your friends to share your fun;
And pledge both long and deep.

The Friendships made in Elksdoms realm
So lasting, firm and true,
We shall expect to see you there,
And YOU and YOU and YOU.

—The O'Cain.

UNITED BAPTISTS MEET AT BLISSVILLE

A Full Programme, Including Strong Social Doctrine, Old Time Evangelist and Missionary Addresses

FREDERICTON JUNCTION March 17.—The regular quarterly meeting of the United Baptist Fourth District was held in Central Blissville United Baptist Church yesterday morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. T. A. Glendenning in the chair.

The officers and delegates present were:
Oromocto—Rev. T. A. Glendenning, President.

French Lake—Willard C. Smith, Secretary Treasurer; Thomas Wood, McAdam—Mrs. G. H. Narrowmore, Mrs. Hamilton Moore.

Fredericton Junction—Rev. B. G. Linton, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howe, H. H. Stewart.

Winnell—Austin Hoyt, Miss Pearl Kirkpatrick.

Patterson Settlement—Stanley J. Parsons, Mrs. B. Parsons.

Central Blissville—Licentiate John W. Mott, Elgan F. Smith, Mrs. Austin J. DeWitt.

Many unofficial representatives were also present from Winnell, Patterson Settlement, Central Blissville and Fredericton Junction. The visitors were royally entertained by the Blissville people.

Mrs. Frank A. Taylor of Hoyt presided at the organ and Mrs. Milton A. Smith of the same place assisted in the choir singing several solos.

The opening devotional exercises were conducted by the President, who spoke on "Hindering the Gospel," which, he declared, resulted from neglect of private, family and public worship.

When business was taken up, a surplus was reported after all bills paid.

Rev. B. G. Linton, Elgan F. Smith and Mrs. Parsons were appointed a Resolutions Committee.

After discussion it was, on motion of J. W. Mott, resolved to ask the Young People's Societies to be responsible for one session at each District Meeting.

It was decided to hold the June annual meeting at McAdam.

The President favored the Third District's plan of having one or more outside ministers hold special meetings with small congregations unable to entertain a District Meeting. This being a Quarterly meeting, financial reports were incomplete.

Rev. B. G. Linton

Business over, Rev. B. G. Linton gave an address on The Christian Church in the World Today. Mr. Linton spoke, in part, as follows:

What should be the reaction of the Church to present day conditions? Shall we say: Oh, well, we can't do anything about it! There was great danger that the Church of today would be content to say so, and go on leaving the problem unsolved.

We are living in history-making times, and we need intelligent Church membership, to study conditions with a view to finding the remedy. Dare we as Christians neglect such situations as we now see in China, Germany, Austria, Spain and other lands?

The Church began its history in very stirring times. It felt the urgency of the Message of Christ and the supreme importance of its worldwide publication before the soon-expected end of the world. While the Christian ideology concerning the end of the world has changed, the need for that message is just as urgent as ever if the world is to be saved from ruin socially, culturally and religiously.

The political organizations of today are challenging Christianity as strongly as ever before. There is no room for vital Christianity under the dictatorships of today. The alignment between the Fascist totalitarianism of Germany, Italy and Japan and such states, on the one hand, and democracy on the other is growing extremely sharp. Christianity has no chance in totalitarian states. As events are moving, the message of our own pulpits may soon be dictated by governments, unless we act soon and vigorously to preserve what freedom is still left in the democratic countries.

Few branches of Christianity would be willing to come under despotic rule. But if we keep on taking the current political changes without action we may lose the liberty we have so long enjoyed. The time has come for the Church to stand up against all un-Christian attacks.

While we are trying to save the individual soul, we must not forget the necessity of saving it in the social setting in which we find it. Some social action must be taken, for individual salvation cannot be separated from social salvation—it is both, or none.

Our whole social structure today is practically pagan. By a process of compromise the early Church gradually became assimilated to its selfish environment instead of redeeming the corrupt pagan society and reconstructing it on Christian principles. Shall we compromise with Fascism and be swallowed by it?

To be truly Christian we must take desperate action to back up the great democracies, in the spirit of Jesus Christ, and mould the cultural and social systems of the day in accordance with the teachings of Christ.

This cannot be in a despotic government of any kind or name. Democracy cannot function truly unless and until it be founded on Christianity.

Afternoon Session

In the afternoon, the President again conducted devotional services, and gave the second address on Hindering the Gospel. The Gospel was further hindered, he said, by the lack of willing workers and by lack of giving. The survey of a certain town had shown $12,000 spent by its people for tobacco alone, while the three churches and a seven-roomed school together absorbed $2,000 less.

W. M. Society

After a song service, conducted by the President, Mrs. T. M. Howe took the chair and conducted the Women's Missionary meeting. She was assisted in the devotional exercises by Mrs. A. J. DeWitt, who read the Scripture, and Mrs. J. W. Mott, who offered prayer. Mrs. M. A. Smith sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

Missionary needs were presented by Mrs. Earle Smith of Hoyt, who emphasized the great need of prayer and giving.

Mrs. G. H. Narrowmore reported financially for the first half of the year. The Societies of Fredericton Junction, Geary, French Lake, Rusagons, Upper Gagetown and New Maryland had gone "over the top," and the whole District's missionary giving was some $28 in excess of the same period in previous year. The prospects for the year were good. Mrs. Narrowmore also gave a reading, "Do Missions Pay?" Mrs. Howe gave a missionary address and Mr. Mott sang a solo.

Evening Session

The evening song service was conducted by Rev. B. G. Linton.

Resolutions

The report of the Resolutions Committee was submitted by Rev. B. G. Linton, recommending the following:

1. The heartfelt thanks to pastor and people of Central Blissville for their splendid hospitality given the visiting representatives, and to all who helped in the program.

2. Congratulations to those churches that have already gone over the top in denominational giving, with the hope that by the end of the year all will have done so.

3. That the churches and all their organizations be urged to give the most careful consideration to the great questions of the day, first, to enquire into and understand the sources of the present comparative freedom of thought and action in democratic countries, and second, to preserve these liberties from the attacks of those who, either for mere lust for power, or in despair, are turning their eyes towards despotic forms of government; at the same time not forgetting for a moment that Canada is still a member of the League of Nations and, therefore, morally bound to do everything possible to uphold the independence of every sister member.

After discussion on Section Three, by H. H. Stewart, who heartily approved of it, and emphasized the importance of at once reorganizing and standing by The League of Nations and putting its idea of collective security into full practice, the Resolutions were adopted unanimously.

The remainder of the service was evangelistic. Scripture was read by Rev. B. G. Linton, Mrs. M. A. Smith sang as a solo, "Hushed Was the Evening Hymn." Deacon T. M. Howe offered prayer. Mrs. Smith sang another solo, "My Task." The evangelistic address was then given by Licentiate Mott, who spoke on "Three Great Days"—of Promise, Salvation and Judgment.

Natural, Painless Foot Corrective Adjustments

Natural Healing Arts

"Things you should know about your feet."

The first step towards the correction of common foot trouble is to know your foot. Inside and out, how it is constructed, what it has to do, and the conditions necessary to its proper function. Understanding these, you can correct the practices that are punishing your feet and intelligently aid nature in strengthening the abused and weakened members.

Following the routine demands of our mechanized civilization with its concomitants of wheeled transportation, swivel chairs, imperfectly fitting socks and shoes, the feet become the most unintentionally abused and neglected parts of our bodies, working under these handicaps, they cannot be expected to do their duty indefinitely without complaint. HURTING feet are a warning signal. The pain signifies a mal-adjustment at some point. Assuming the foot to have been normal before, the pain may result from abuse, misuse, or disuse.

"FIND AND CORRECT THE CAUSE QUICKLY."

Failure to do so means that you will have a more deeply involved maladjustment later on, with perhaps, as frequently occurs, resultant bodily ailments.

"GIVE YOUR HARD-WORKED FEET SOME ENCOURAGEMENT"
Your two feet contain nearly one-third of the bones in your body, failing in their function, they impair your capacity for effective work or healthful play. Take the time and thought to care for them.

"DO NOT SUFFER WITH FOOT DISORDERS."

We specialize in Natural, painless foot corrective adjustments.
