Cathedral Men's Club

Hold Bean Supper
The regular weekly meeting of the Cathedral Men's Club held last evening in the Memorial Hall, Church St., was preceded by a bean supper to which all men of the church were invited. A large attendance partook of the ample supplies of food offered.
The meeting opened as usual with prayers in unison led by Very Rev.
Dean Moorhead, followed by a general sing-song which was made much more enjoyable by the violin accompaniments played by Ronald Ward.
Mr. Ward, an accomplished musician, was sincerely thanked by the members, for his participation in the program. After a short business session, H. B. Durost gave a short address on the development of chemical plant foods or fertilizers which conveyed much information to his audience and was greatly enjoyed by them. Play was then resumed in the cumulative card tournaments. Scores for the evening showed George Bliss to be high among the forty-five players, and Martin Horncastle leading the bridge division. The National Anthem ended still another instructive and most enjoyable evening for the Cathedral Men's Club.

Y.M.C.A. Meets Definite Human Needs Says Mr. Albrant

Aiding the individual to make better use of leisure time will probably be one line in which definite and extended activity will be shown by the Y.M.C.A. in the future, said R. J. Al-brant, general secretary of the Community "Y," in speaking at the weekly meeting of the Fredericton Y's Men's Club last evening. Mr. Al-brant reviewed the growth of the Y.
M.C.A. from its beginning in England mainly as a Bible study group to its present international scope.

This growth could be explained, he thought by the fact that the Y.M.C.A. met definite human needs, and had shown its ability both to pioneer and to hand over work to other organizations that were able to look after it.
Different aspects of this meeting of varied needs were touched on. Along with attention to use of leisure time, Mr. Albrant also thought the future might see a withdrawal from physical training activities among those children who could be served through the schools, as the latter took over more of this work.

Various angles of mental development, and character building were also touched on by the speaker. Referring to character in particular, Mr.
Albrant said he felt this was something that had to "caught" rather than "taught."

Horace A. Hanson, presiding at the meeting, introduced the speaker and extended the thanks of the Club.

Mrs. J. P. Corkery, wife of the proprietor of the Queen Hotel recently left for an extended trip to California. Mrs. Corkery will spend the remainder of the winter as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law Dr. and Mrs. M. G. McLean at Glendale, Calif.

Miss Hockin Guest Speaker

The February meeting of St. Paul's Service Club was held last evening at the home of Miss Muriel MacDougall with the president Miss Muriel Young in the chair. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer gave her report. This was followed by a devotional period after which the business of the meeting was discussed.

The members were very pleased to have as their guest speaker Miss Hockin, Maritime Secretary Student Christian Movement, who gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on her work among the Indians on Vancouver Island. She also discussed conditions in China, having lived there until eleven years ago and hopes to return there in the near future as a missionary. A social hour was then spent refreshments being served by the hostess assisted by Miss Carrie Porter.

Willett—Doochan

A pretty wedding took place at St.
Dunstan's Church this morning when Miss Bertha Elizabeth Doochan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Doochan of this city was united in marriage to Joseph Robert Phillip Willett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ulderick Willett of River du Loup, Quebec. The ceremony was performed at eight thirty with Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. L. Carney officiating at nuptial mass. The bride wore a wedding gown of brown velvet, the skirt being floor length with elbow length sleeves and she wore long white gloves. She wore a small turban hat and shoes to match the dress and she carried pink roses. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Rose Doochan who wore a wine colored velvet dress, small hat and matching shoes. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by Donald Tait of South Devon.

Following the ceremony the wedding party returned to the home of the bride where a wedding breakfast was served. Assisting was Mrs. H. H.
Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Willett left immediately for Saint John and Halifax where they will spend the remainder of the week. For travelling the bride wore a flowered crepe dress, dark green coat with fitch trimmings and brown accessories. On their return they will be in Fredericton for a time following which they will take up their residence at Sussex.

Excellent Program by St. Dunstan's Young People

A combination of short dramas, recitation and musical numbers forming a well presented program followed by a social evening and refreshments was presented by the Young People of St. Dunstan's Church who were given another opportunity last evening of being hosts to their friends. A large number of guests were present and the program was as follows: Group choruses, folk songs and rounds by the pupils of the Provincial Normal School; a declamation by Miss Theresa Rice; a short play by Miss Glenna Forman, Miss Frances Claire and Warren Layden; a piano

Martin, and a short play entitled "A Congregation of Sufferers" was put on by Miss Helene Lejeune, Miss Gilberte Allain, Miss Emalda Bastar-ache, Miss Helen Berriau, Miss Mar-

Miss Rachael Malenfant and Miss Laure LeBlanc; a declamation "Elegy on the Death of a Bulldog" by Miss Jennie Calssie; instrumental solo by sented by Miss Laure LeBlanc as Calpurnia Rachael Malenfant as Cleopatra Margaret Hay as Portia, Marion Landry as Sarah, Harold Lynch

CONDITION BETTER

Many friends of J. Malcolm Mc-Bride, popular U.N.B. student who has been a patient at Victoria Public Hospital following an operation will be pleased to learn that he is feeling some better today.

Official Eye Rubber's Assistant. At the first quiver of an eyelid murine is gently dropped in its drowsy eyes which open gradually to the cruel light of day. It sees its shadow—whether or not.

Amid loud cheers these public spirited citizens then restore the groundhog to its lair and return to their homes to celebrate in a convivial manner what their initiative has assured to be a bigger and better spring.

ards; Mrs. Amelia Gorman, who left a legacy to the church; George Colter, one of the promising young men of the congregation; Mrs. Wm. Vradenburg, a most devoted member; and Mrs. R. S. Curll, whose recent death was a great loss, she being one of the most active and gifted persons in the church. The Minister asked the meeting to stand in silent tribute to those who had passed on, after which prayer was offered for the families thus bereaved.

The Pastor's report showed that 31 persons had been received into membership during the year, and 22 new families had been added to the Roll, making the total number of families about 350.

The financial report was presented by the treasurer, Leslie Wood, and showed all bills paid for the year, and a surplus of $216. The treasurer reported that the Missionary and Maintenance Fund allocation of $1,630 had been raised in full. The four Women's Auxiliaries reported, the Ladies Aid, Mrs. Bartlett; Ada Schleyer Circle, Mrs. Harrison; the Young Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. W.
Johnston; L. A. Wilmot Mission Band, Miss Stewart. Total amount raised by these organizations $1,128.
Mrs. F. W. Harrison reported $151 contributed to the Benevolent Fund.

Women's Missionary Society, Mrs.
Randolph Crocker, reported allocation raised; Minnie Smith Miss. Society, Miss H. Young, and the Mission Band, Young People's Society, through Ralph Peters, reported a good year. W. E. McMullen gave the Sunday School report. This showed real progress in the most important part of the Church's work. There is an enrollment of 407, including the Brotherhood, and receipts of $430.
A total of some $11,000 was raised for all purposes.

The report of the nominating committee of the Official Board was presented by Col. R. Crocker and adopted. Dr. Bartlett heartily thanked the officials and people for their cooperation, and spoke of the happy relationship that existed between the Minister and congregation.

Following the business a social hour was enjoyed, when the ladies served refreshments. The meeting was voted one of the best yet held.

Mrs. Moses Brown,
Former Resident,
Dies At Lynn

Many old friends of forty years ago will regret to learn of the death at Lynn, Mass., yesterday, of Mrs.
Catherine Brown, widow of the late Moses J. Brown, formerly of this city. Mrs. Brown passed away following a short illness from the infirmities of old age. She was 89 years of age. About forty years ago she left Fredericton with her husband and family and located at Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. Brown is survived by one son William Brown of Lynn, and by two daughters one of whom is Mrs. Howard Turigton of Lynn, formerly Miss Gertrude Brown who is expected to accompany the remains to this city.
Several nephews and nieces in this vicinity include William Edward Neal-is of Royal Road, Fred and Percy of Saint John and Victor Nealis of this city. Mrs. Edward Case of this city and Miss Maude Currie of Royal Road are nieces of the late Mrs.
Brown.

The remains will arrive in this city tomorrow on the eleven o'clock train and will be taken to St. Dunstan's Church where solemn service will be held at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made at the Hermitage.

Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Catherine Nealis and was born at Royal Road and married Moses Brown many years ago and removed to this city. The late Mr. Brown conducted a shoe shop at the corner of Queen and Westmorland Streets in the office now occupied by R. Lee McCutcheon and the family resided over the store.

Her husband will be remembered as a member of the old "Brayson's Band," in its day one of Fredericton's leading musical organizations. The Brown family were deservedly popular with a large circle of friends and were leading members of St. Dunstan's Church in years that are gone.

Passed Away At Newcastle, N. B.

Mrs. Isabella Miller, widow of the late Eben Miller, of this city, passed away at Newcastle early this morning. Mrs. Miller who was well known and highly respected came to Saint John, N. B., from Glasgow, Scotland, about 90 years ago with her parents, Robert MacMurray and Janet Barton MacMurray. She came to Fredericton after marrying Mr. Miller and lived here until 22 years ago when she went to Newcastle to reside with her sister, the late Mrs. R. H. Gremley.
She is survived by three nieces, Mrs.
O. N. Brown, Montreal; Miss Elizabeth Scott Gremley, Newcastle, Mrs.
G. Philmore Miller, Provincetown, Mass.; and two nephews, A. S. Gremley, Newcastle, and Frank J. Gremley, Mass. A. S. Gremley and Miss Gremley will accompany the remains here.

TO APPROACH

ed to donate $50,000 for the building providing the society would be responsible for the upkeep can still be induced to supply the money under the new plan.

The approach to the City Council will apparently be made despite the fact that the present council has no right to pledge future councils to a yearly grant of money for any purpose.

A portion of the land now owned by the Dominion government and designed as Officers Square is the contemplated site of the museum—if the Dominion Government will sell and the veterans will stand for it.
Under the new plans the building would house the museum upstairs and the Y.M.C.A. quarters down.

When the council will be approached is not known—"soon" was the information secured by The Daily Mail.

Sunlight or Moonlight Now Come Into Living Room At Flick of Switch

By Jean Prentice

A fresh note of modernism is injected into this Chinese Chippendale living room through the installation of a concealed lighting unit recessed behind the curtains. The effect produced is that of warm sunlight streaming through the window.

THERE seems to be simply no limit to the ingenuity of these lighting people nowadays. A press of a button, and they give you daylight, sunlight, or moonlight at any hour of the day or evening—right in your own living room. And it's almost laughably simple!

Lighting panels built into hidden places produce the effect. They are often used over the latest kitchen sinks, although in such cases, ordinary colorless bulbs are employed.
Recently this type of lighting has become quite popular in living rooms, particularly where there is a bay window.

Easily Installed

The lighting unit itself consists of a metal box, approximately thirty inches long, six inches wide, and seven inches high. It contains three 40- or 60-watt bulbs, depending upon whether you have light or dark shades. The amount and color of light desired also determines the number of bulbs. Flashed opal glass is used at the bottom of the unit to diffuse and soften the light.

There are two ways of installing such a unit, which is a regulation fixture, obtainable at many electrical stores. When built into a new house, it is recessed into the ceiling, adjacent to the window. In a house that has been already built, two polished metal reflectors containing 60-watt lamps can be mounted between the over-draperies and the glass curtains. These reflectors are also standard equipment, easily installed by your electrical contractor.

Choice of Colors

Where there is no space between the draperies and curtains, a row of small 10-watt bulbs or several luminaire lamps may be mounted behind the valance or curtain cornice. The wiring can be so arranged that a choice of colored light is simply a matter of which switch is pressed.

In these modern times, there's no need to permit the original architectural limitations of a room to stand in the way of modernity. And you'll find that the modest investment yields ample dividends in the added enjoyment you derive from your home.
