Period Ending January 20, 1938

A District Training Course for Boy Scout Leaders has been started here. The first meeting was held on Wednesday evening at St. Dunstan's hall. The staff includes District Commissioner Good, District Scoutmaster Fred Barnes and Scoutmaster Cyril Barnes. There are to date, five Patrols, Beaver, Wolf, Wildcat, Owl and Crow. Candidates come from such farflung places as Leger's Corner and Shediac, in the Moncton district; and Shippegan, Caraquet, Petit Rocher, Tracadie and Sorelville, in the Gloucester County area. Nor does this exhaust the list. A promising start has been made and additions to our enrolment are expected.

The following candidates for a similar course conducted at Newcastle, during December last and the beginning of this month, have been recommended for Certificates: From Newcastle: Miss M. Ryan, Miss Salome, Mrs. Durick, Miss R. Crocker, V. Russell, Miss J. Price, Miss S. Craig, S. Harris, Miss V. Foran, Miss L. Copp, Miss Aitken, Miss Forsythe, Herbert Craik, Bill Farrer; and the following from Loggieville: Parker, Manderson, R. Holster, Harry Bolster, Murray Johnston and Bruce Dealy.

On Tuesday, with Commissioner Good and Cubmaster Harold Doherty we inaugurated a Wolf Cub Pack at Springhill. This Pack is being sponsored by Rev. H. T. Buckland, and there are sixteen boys enrolled, from the two schools, the Springhill upper school and the Garden Creek school. Meetings are being held in the hall, across from the rectory, and these will be held on Tuesday afternoons.

Among Good Turns which have come to our notice, we mention that Scoutmaster Peterson and the Tracy Troop have, for some little time past, been looking after a family of seven in their area. Durham contributed toys to the Fredericton 1937 toyshop, while Assistant District Commissioner Hawkins, of Douglas, reports having assisted three families or so, at Christmas.

Durham Camp is now in shape for meetings and last Saturday evening the Troop met in the new building to work on some fixtures, following which, they held a picnic supper on the premises, which are very fine.

BATHURST NEWS

BATHURST, Jan. 19—Sheriff H. A. Melanson left this morning for Saint John on a business trip.

Miss Alexina Levesque recently underwent a tonsil operation at the Sir James Dunn Hospital. Her condition is as good as can be expected.

Mrs. Harry Power has returned to her home at Moncton after spending a few days with her mother-in-law, Mrs. James Power. The latter has since gone to Tetagouche to spend the remainder of the winter with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Power.

Mrs. J. L. Neville of Fredericton is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. H. A. Melanson and Sheriff Melanson at the Court House.

Friends in Bathurst, Moncton and other points in the province will regret to hear of the passing of D. J. Leger on Sunday last in Winnipeg. Mr. Leger who was chief mechanical accountant for the C.N.R. was a former resident of Bathurst at the home of Sheriff and Mrs. H. A. Melanson. He is survived by his wife formerly Miss Nora Bourque of Moncton and by eight children, all residing in the West.

Mrs. Ned Doyle who has been spending the past few months at Truro, N. S., has returned home. Many friends will be pleased to hear that the condition of Mrs. Doyle is much improved.

The Chatham Juniors are playing the Bathurst Juniors this evening at the Bathurst rink. This will be the first big junior hockey game of the season.

The Bathurst High School are going up to Campbellton next week to play Campbellton High School hockey team.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Pre-Med. Dance

The third annual Pre-medical dance was put on last evening by the Pre-medical Society of the University of New Brunswick in Castle Hall. A program of fifteen dances and three extras was carried out. At midnight a delicious supper was served. A distinctive feature of the evening were the dance programs. They were in the shape of a coffin with a tombstone marked on the outside. The Society Crest and skeletons were used as decorations throughout the room. About sixty couples were present and were received by A. A. Dugan, President of the Society, Paul R. Gorham, Vice-President; Patrick Holden, Secretary of the Society; Mrs. C. W. Argue, Mrs. R. H. Wright and Mrs. F. J. Toole and were chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. C. W. Argue, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Wright and Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Toole.

Meeting of Celestial Chapter was held Thursday evening and presided over by Miss Sarah Burpee. Reports of committees and yearly reports of officers were presented. Two members were received. Plans were made for the raising of money, one means of which will be by the sale of a cushion donated by Mrs. Sada Cronkhite, one of the members who has been ill for some time. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Pearl Billings, in Barker's Point and gave her a farewell party. Singing and dancing were enjoyed following which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Billings assisted by some of the guests. During the evening Miss Billings on behalf of those present was presented a travelling case by Miss Winnie Price. Miss Billings is leaving on February 3rd for Ottawa where she will enter the Ottawa Civic Hospital as a student nurse.

Mrs. J. P. Corkery left this morning for Woodstock where she will spend the week-end.

Community Y Bridge

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Community Y entertained last evening in the Community Y Rooms in the Chestnut Building. Bridge was played at seventeen tables, the prizes going to Mrs. D. W. Griffith, Mrs. A. T. McMurray and Mrs. Holland Boone, Allan Ryan, J. Lorne Howatt and A. J. Albrant. The color scheme, blue and white was very effective. Following bridge a delicious supper was served. Mrs. D. J. Shea was general convenor and was assisted by Mrs. P. S. Watson, Mrs. F. E. McDiarmid, Mrs. J. D. MacKay, Mrs. Leslie Maynor, Mrs. Edward Perkins and other ladies of the auxiliary.

Hired Man Speaks Up

As Mr. Picobac turned in to ask for his mail, he found Herb, tobacco grower by instinct and hired man to the highest bidder, seated on the end of the post office steps. “Hello, Herb,” cried Mr. Picobac genially. “What are you sittin’ here for? You’re not out of a job, I hope.” “This is the first time I sat down for weeks,” Herb spoke up. “A hired man ain’t supposed to sit down.” Mr. Picobac nodded cheerfully. “A good man like you just naturally don’t get a chance to do much sittin’, Herb,” he said. “A tobacco man is always a busy man.” “Only chance I ever get to sit is when I come to town,” said Herb. “I’m waitin’ for the bus, that’s all.” “Well, Herb, I don’t mind telling you I enjoy sitting down once in a while myself,” confessed Mr. Picobac mopping his brow. “It seems to rest your hands and face. Your bus ain’t due for a while yet. Let’s you and me load our pipes from my new seal-tight Picobac pouch and sit down to a mild... cool... sweet smoke.”
