Sunlight or Moonlight Now Come Into Living Room At Flick of Switch

By Jean Prentice

A fresh note of modernism is injected into this Chinese Chippendale living room through the installation of a concealed lighting unit recessed behind the curtains. The effect produced is that of warm sunlight streaming through the window.

THERE seems to be simply no limit to the ingenuity of these lighting people nowadays. A press of a button, and they give you day-light, or moonlight, or night light, in your own living room. And it's almost laughably simple!

Lighting panels built into hidden places produce the effect. They are often used over the latest kitchen sinks, although in such cases, ordinary colorless bulbs are employed. Recently this type of lighting has become quite popular in living rooms, particularly where there is a bay window.

Easily Installed

The lighting unit itself consists of a metal box, approximately thirty inches long, six inches wide, and seven inches high. It contains three 40- or 60-watt bulbs, depending upon whether you have light or dark shades. The amount and color of light desired also determines the number of bulbs. Flashed opal glass is used at the bottom of the unit to diffuse and soften the light.

There are two ways of installing such a unit, which is a regulation fixture, obtainable at many electrical stores. When built into a new house, it is recessed into the ceiling, adjacent to the window. In a house that has been already built, two polished metal reflectors containing 60-watt lamps can be mounted between the over-drapes and the glass curtains. These reflectors are also standard equipment, easily installed by your electrical contractor.

Choice of Colors

Where there is no space between the draperies and curtains, a row of small 10-watt bulbs or several luminaire lamps may be mounted behind the valance or curtain cornice. The wiring can be so arranged that a choice of colored light is simply a matter of which switch is pressed.

In these modern times, there's no need to permit the original architectural limitations of a room to stand in the way of modernity. And you'll find that the modest investment yields ample dividends in the added enjoyment you derive from your home.

Helps END A COLD Quicker

The 3-Minute VapoRub Massage

Massage VapoRub briskly on the throat, chest and back (between and below the shoulder blades). Then spread it thick over the chest and cover with warmed cloth.

Almost before you finish rubbing, VapoRub starts to bring relief two ways at once—two direct ways:

1. Through the Skin. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice or plaster.

2. Medicated Vapors. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by body heat, are breathed in for hours—about 18 times a minute—direct to the irritated air-passages of the nose, throat and chest.

This combined poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation—helps break congestion. While the little patient relaxes into comfortable sleep, VapoRub keeps right on working. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Avoids Risk of Stomach Upsets

This safe, external treatment cannot possibly upset the stomach, as constant internal "dosing" is so apt to do. It can be used freely, as often as needed, even on the youngest child.

Now White—Stainless

Thanks to a new process, VapoRub now comes to you in white stainless form. Only the color is removed; it is the same VapoRub—the same formula and the same effective double action.

"I'm for Peace,"

. . . said Mr. PICOBAC

A benign expression spread over Mr. Picobac's countenance. Removing his pipe, he leaned against the desk of the Essex Centre Grand Central Hotel, and gazed at his audience of two.

"I'm a peaceful man," repeated he. "I try to be a good neighbour, same as President Roosevelt does . . . and Mr. Baldwin. But . . ."

"You don't like people to walk on you," suggested George Boniface, genial proprietor of the hostelry.

"Peace with self-respect," agreed the Burley tobacco patriot. "Canada is a self-governing, self-respecting Dominion in the British Commonwealth of Nations. She's not looking for trouble. But I'll say she will hold up her end if trouble ever starts."

"Well, don't start anything around here," advised Gus, who drives the bus that meets all the trains.

"Don't worry," rejoined Mr. Picobac, puffing in great content. "I won't. As long as I have enough Picobac tobacco for a mild . . . cool . . . sweet smoke, there'll be no trouble with me. I'll keep the peace and be a friendly neighbour."
