SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Evening Bridge

Mrs. George W. Chapman was hostess at a delightful bridge last evening at her home on Woodstock Road. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. M. McKinnon, Mrs. Walter Limerick and Mrs. F. H. Rowe. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Roy Graham, Mrs. B. R. Ross, Miss Muriel Fraser and Miss Geraldine Chapman. The rooms were bright with early spring flowers.

Badminton Hostess

The hostesses at the tea-hour this afternoon following badminton play at the Fredericton Armouries are to be Miss Helen Grace, Mrs. E. O. Skene, Mrs. A. G. MacPhail, Miss Thelma Kierstead, Miss Gertrude Davis and Mrs. Earl Smith.

The Newman Club "At Home" is being held this evening at the Mount Royal Hotel.

Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley entertained at dinner recently at Carleton House, Rothesay, in honor of Mrs. J. L. R. Parsons, of Shediac, who is the guest of Mrs. John E. Sayre in Rothesay.

To Visit Italy

Alice, Dowager Countess Grey, the widow of the 4th Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada from 1904 to 1911, is to leave "Piper's Croft," Burnham Bucks, England, at the end of February to spend some time in the North of Italy. Earl and Countess Grey will leave London about the same time for Alexandria, Egypt, to join their daughter and son-in-law, who are stationed there. Later Lord Grey will go on to South Africa. Lady Mary Baring is now visiting her father and mother, Lord and Lady Grey, in London.

Left for Saint John

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fournier who were recently married at Bathurst and who for the past few days have been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Robichaud in the city left this morning for Saint John. They will spend the week-end in Moncton with Mr. Fournier's daughter, following which they will take up residence in Bathurst where Mr. Fournier is proprietor of the Brunswick Hotel.

BACK FROM TRURO

J. C. Veness, officer in charge of the maritime district, Dominion Forest Service, and M. B. Morrison, Dominion Forest Engineer, returned last night from Truro, N. S., where they have been making an estimate of the timber on a tract near Debelit about ten miles from Truro. The area is to be taken over by the Department of National Defense. Mr. Morrison will return to Truro Monday with a party to cruise the area.

FINE VALENTINE WINDOW AT SHUTE'S

The valentine window at Shute & Co.'s is one of the most attractive that we have seen for some time. The gay colors and restrained treatment of the decoration blend most harmoniously with the articles on display and unite to form a most attractive showing of enticing Valentine gifts.

FEELING BETTER

Many friends of Major James Pringle who has been ill at his apartment in a local hotel, will be pleased to learn that he is feeling considerably better today. Major Pringle was able to leave his bed yesterday for a while.

HARRY GRINDELL-MATTHEWS

Joint Hostesses

Mrs. D. W. Wallace and Miss Maggie Jean Chestnut were joint-hostesses at a charming dinner bridge last evening at the home of the former. The floral decorations were early spring flowers and Mrs. Richard Chestnut and Mrs. Robert Riley were assisting. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Guy Scovil, Mrs. H. McCrea and Mrs. Bonnell. Covers were laid for twenty guests.

F'ton Women's Institute Met

Fredericton Women's Institute met last night at the home of Mrs. C. E. Batt, University Avenue, with the president, Mrs. G. I. Nugent, in the chair and a good attendance in spite of the icy streets. Meeting opened with the singing of O Canada followed by the Club Woman's Creed in unison.

Roll was called by the secretary, Mrs. J. Allan Horncastle, who also read the minutes of the last meeting and correspondence, including the Women's Institute Act, which is being considered section by section. Mrs. D. J. Shea read the treasurer's report and the committee named in connection with the awarding of the Martha Harvey Scholarship at the beginning of the college year in September next, Mrs. A. E. Mathewson, Mrs. Fenton Wood, Mrs. George Ferris and the president, Mrs. Nugent.

A communication was read from Miss Greta Manzer, Nashwaak Bridge secretary-treasurer of Loyalist District, in which she named the articles for exhibition at the Fredericton Exhibition, pieced quilt, knitted gloves and a knitted sweater for a boy of eight or ten years.

A most interesting letter from Mrs. F. L. Stone, Frimley, England, was read by Mrs. A. E. Mathewson, who is the link between the two institutes. A year's program and copy of the English Home and Country was shown to the members who were much impressed with the work being done in Frimley. Considerable routine business was taken up before adjournment with the singing of the National Anthem. A social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. J. Shea, Mrs. D. A. Adamson, Mrs. C. E. Belyea, Mrs. G. I. Nugent and Mrs. Dell Hossack.

Bear Island

The Bear Island Calf Club held its annual reorganization meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Morrison on January 29th at 2.30 p.m. There was a large attendance present both of old members and new ones. The meeting was addressed by R. E. Wetmore the district representative, after which the election of officers for the current year took place.

The officers elected were as follows:—President, Gordon Morrison; Vice-President, Gordon Embleton; Secretary, Treasurer, Leslie Morrison. The same advisory committee was re-instituted for the ensuing year.

After this a short address was given by A. C. Blakie, an employee of the Federal government, being an R. O.P. inspector. Mr. Blakie's address on raising dairy heifers was followed by considerable discussion, after which the meeting was adjourned.

The former president, Leslie Morrison, acted as chairman. The names added to the membership list are as follows: Neil Brown, Perley Embleton, Dow Goodine, Lorne Huestis, Neil Huestis and Clifford Brown.

Although the club was only organized last spring it presented a splendid program last summer, the club sponsored a field day which proved to be a great success and plans are being made to promote another this coming summer which it is hoped will be bigger and better than ever.

The Club Fair last fall was well attended with all the Jersey calves being present and showing good type and quality. The Club also sent a judging team to the provincial elimination contest at Fredericton last fall. The team being placed fourth out of eleven teams. With prospects of nearly double the membership of last year this Club has promises of going places.

PITY POOR SAILORS ON NIGHTS LIKE THESE

Battered and broken by mountainous Atlantic seas, the British fleet auxiliary tanker, War Baha-bur, is shown in a close-up view of the wrecked bridge as she arrived in Plymouth, Eng., Jan. 17th. Force of the storm carried away lifeboats, wireless equipment and part of the bridge, but the ship made port under her own power, aided by the destroyer Wolverine. The tanker was bound from Trinidad to Scapa Flow.
