

ST. STEPHEN SEXTET TROUNCES CAPS 7-3

MOHAWKS SWEEP INTO LEAD OF SOUTHERN N. B. LEAGUE BY VIRTUE OF CONVINCING WIN OVER LOCALS

In Other League Game Sussex Rovers Take Senators 5-4 in Overtime

ST. STEPHEN, Jan. 11.—The St. Stephen Mohawks swept into the lead of the Southern New Brunswick Hockey League here last night with a convincing 7-3 victory over the Fredericton Capitals.

After a scoreless first period the Mohawks collected three goals in the second and four more in the third for their total while the best the Caps could get were one in the second and two in the third. Lifford collected two of the Capitals' tallies.

Middlemiss of the Mohawks was a standout with three goals and was high point scorer on goals but Greenough, St. Stephen's centre iceman had four assists.

Before the next game, McCarroll, who scored one goal and assisted on another, will be lost to the Mohawks as he has to return to resume his studies at St. Joseph's University.

Shortly after the second period got under way Middlemiss made the red light flicker back of Staples but four minutes later Haining tied the count. Weatherbee got the second St. Stephen goal and from then on the result was never in doubt. Middlemiss scored again before the period ended.

Lifford got Fredericton's second goal shortly after the start of the third then Young and Middlemiss tallied before Lifford came through again for Fredericton. McCarroll and Young notched the last two St. Stephen markers in quick order, McCarroll with less than a minute to go and Young taking Greenough's pass with less than 10 seconds to play.

The lineups:
St. Stephen—Goal, Kelly; defence, Lowe, Charters, McIntee, Duplisea, Steeves; left wing, Weatherbee, Russell, Young; centre, Carroll, Greenough; right wing, Wilson, Middlemiss.

Rovers Win At Sussex
SUSSEX, Jan. 11.—Fred Radcliffe saved a toss for Sussex Rovers when he scored a goal from a mixup with just exactly 20 seconds to go in the third period of a game here with St. Andrews Senators last night. Radcliffe's goal, just before the final gong, tied the score at 4-4.

In the overtime the Rovers took the lead for the first time during the game when Wallace, playing only his second game in senior company, having been recruited from the local Royals intermediates, shot the rubber past Goodeill in the St. Andrews net with the latter never seeing the disc, Rovers winning 5-4.

U.N.B. PUCK SIX FIRST WORKOUT

Twenty Players Out in Practice Here

The University of New Brunswick hockey team held the first workout of the season yesterday afternoon with the new coach, Dr. J. T. Akins, putting about 20 players through their paces. Many of last year's players were on hand and there were several promising prospects among the newcomers. Although it is not definitely known yet the team may play an exhibition game against one of the Southern New Brunswick League teams this week. Another practice was held today to get the players in shape as soon as possible.

Among the players out were goalies Hap Wilson and Willis Robert; defencemen Dick Logie and Roy Brown, forwards George Ritchie, Bill Napier, Eric Lutes, Pete Perley, all members of last year's team, Bob Brown, former Fredericton junior player; Earl McDermott and Clyde Smith, former Edmundston High School players; Jim Colby, Ralph Lockart, former Mount Allison Academy star; George Fletcher, Art McGowan, Gerry Rising.

Don MacKinnon, Cec Coveney and Bob Burgess, who formed the first forward line last year were not on hand but may be out this week. The first league game will be played here on Feb. 1 against the St. Thomas College team but it is expected that the team will play several exhibition games before that date.

Nothing In Sight To Beat Champ

In Way of Heavyweight Timber

Joe Louis is about to start out on what must be one of the most pleasurable of all enterprises—the quest for still another million dollars. He figures to get that all right and more, too, and finally he may wind up as the richest fighter that ever lived.

Just how much he has now and how much of his future earnings he will be able to keep, must remain problematical. Ha, of course, like all fighters, is afflicted with sundry ills when that money he earns in purses comes in. However, he is doing very well indeed and you may lay to that.

The champion will start his 1939 campaign on January 25 at Madison Square Garden, with John Henry Lewis offering himself to the cause to the best of his ability, and after that will come as many as three more bouts before the close of the year, Louis' activities to be governed to some extent by taxes. When his income reaches the point where the government is taking practically everything, he will hang up his gloves and await arrival of another year as he did in 1938.

Government Takes Big Cut
That gives the champion a problem, too, if he fights too much he finally is giving the most of it away; if he doesn't fight enough he can't do his best job in the ring because he needs plenty of action to keep sharp, and he might take a layoff and again run into a slight inconvenience such as the one that overtook him in his first fight with Max Schmeling.

It may be that he is so far ahead of the contenders currently yapping at his heels that he doesn't have to be at his very best to retain what is known as the most prized bauble in fistiana—otherwise the heavyweight championship.

In truth, the contenders are a pretty sorry lot and you may wager that layoff or no layoff Louis never again will make the mistake of regarding any opponent to lightly as he did Schmeling that first time. And, of course, when he really goes out there banging away he is a great fighter, not too smart and not too tough around the jowls, but great, nevertheless, because of his punching and his speed of hand and the boxing they have taught him.

Unless the layoffs between bouts and his natural laziness get him he has what it takes to go through this year and probably several more for he doesn't dissipate. Is still young and has come along at a time when actually the chief contenders are Lewis, a smart, crafty boxer, but lacking a punch; Max Bear, who has been knocked out by Louis and idle too long; Tony Galento, who is wide open and probably not the same since he suffered that very tough attack of pneumonia, and Lou Nova, a green young man who apparently has a long, long way to travel.

Ought to Win by K.O.
If he meets those four or any three of them during 1939 he ought to win by knockouts, as he progresses steadily onward toward riches on top of riches that must astound and almost daze him as he sits down and thinks about it all, if he has the imagination to go that far.

The beauty of his position is that his money has been wisely invested and, barring out and out catastrophe, he never will be in want. Roughly, he has drawn close to $5,000,000 and figures to have about a million of that for himself, with still more rolling in.

There is no telling how much he will wind up with eventually if nothing happens to him. It's a very tough spot to be in, as Rockefeller said when he asked Henry Ford for a dime.

Newfoundland Goes For Hockey In Big Way

BLUE LAWS DON'T WORRY OTTAWANS

The prospective overhauling of the Sunday blue laws by the Ontario government, as outlined by Premier M. F. Hepburn and Attorney-General Gordon Conant, will not make much difference to the sport situation in Ottawa and district because Sunday sports and amusements have long been immediately available to residents of the capital for this long time through proximity to the province of Quebec.

Sunday baseball has been played for years in Hull with many players of Ottawa crossing the river each week-end to participate in the contests after playing in the Ottawa loop all week. Ottawans turn out in thousands for Sunday skiing, tennis, golf, aquatics, skating, hockey and other sports, with organized team games being held not only on the Quebec side but also at the University of Ottawa and St. Patrick's college.

The constitution of the Amateur Union, as well as that of the O.B.A.A., provides that any person competing in Sunday competitions of an organized nature automatically becomes a professional but the rule brought only a wink in local circles even when the A.A.U. was a recognized, power because local ball tossers went back and forth to play Sunday games in Hull without hindrance or warning. Right now ski and hockey competitions on Sundays are frequent. There is a possibility, however, that the city may bar Sunday pro. baseball at Lansdowne Park, which is city property, on the ground that the games would be too noisy, it has been officially intimated.

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—John M. Tobin, for 30 years secretary-treasurer of the St. Johns, (Newfoundland), Senior Hockey League has been visiting in Montreal for several days.

Talking about hockey in the island colony, Mr. Tobin said they would stick to the two-referee system there. He has wired the league president to that effect. He talked over rule matters with W. A. Hewitt at the recent C.A.H.A. meeting here.

Newfoundland hockeyists follow the C.A.H.A. code in every detail.

There are four senior leagues—St. John's, Conception Bay, Belle Isle and Western Section. There is an Intercollegiate League of three teams—nineteen teams in all above junior. Each spring there is a play-off between all leagues but the Intercollegiate. These games take place on the artificial ice at St. John's.

Harold Gross, well-known Canadian amateur player, has been coaching Newfoundland teams. He is now permanently employed there.

Mr. Tobin played in Newfoundland for many years. He was also a leading referee.
