BARBOUR TRIAL TO BE HELD IN REGULAR COURT

Attorney - General Has Decided Against a Special Sitting

Robert Barbour will begin the second stage of the fight for his life on April 25, the fourth Tuesday in the month, before the sitting of the circuit court at Dalhousie. Barbour, who was sentenced to death for the murder of his 21 year old sweetheart, Margaret Harris, but was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court of Canada.

Although a special session of the court for the hearing of the case at Dalhousie had been considered, it was announced this morning that the Attorney General, Hon. J. B. McNair, had decided that no special sitting would be called.

It was stated today that although a special session of the court had been considered, after examination of all circumstances of the case it was thought that there is no necessity of calling a special sitting.

At the trial Mr. Justice J. H. A. L. Fairweather of the King's Bench Division will preside. Under the ordinary course of events, E. B. McLatchey, who represented the Crown in the original case and the appeals, will again present the case of the Crown.

TANK EXPLOSION STARTLES DEVON

No One Injured As Air Tank Hurtles Through Walls

Residents of South Devon were startled last evening by the noise of an explosion when the air tank in the McKiel Garage on Gibson Street blew up and sections of the tank were hurled through the roof and walls of the garage landing some distance away. Due to the fact that the tank was on the second storey of the garage no one was injured.

One section of the tank was hurled through the roof, landing on the next block, Miles Street. The other section of the tank went through the wall, landing in the centre of the street.

RESOLVED

Resolve to have freedom from cleaning problems this year. There's no reason to be chained to a tub of odoriferous cleaning solution and a hot iron, when it costs little more to have us take care of them and when our work carries an extra measure of satisfaction. Carry out that resolution now, and phone us!
