"When noses first were carved for men
Of varying width and height
Strange smells, and sweet were fashioned then
That all might know delight
Smells for the small, the gross, the lean,
The pug, the flat, the tall
But one sweet smell, a smell of smells
A smell of high emprise
The smell that rises from the pan,
When home-cured bacon fries."

If the unknown poet had tasted our "AFTER-THE-GAME" HOT CHICKEN SANDWICH he would have written a special verse in its honor.

Every Week For The Next 12 Weeks The Daily Mail Will Publish Once a Week Each Thursday A Hockey Page

CONTAINING THE ADVERTISEMENTS of LEADING FREDERICTON
MERCHANTS

In Several—or all—of the ads there will be an extra letter.
Check over each ad. Pick out the misspelled word which contains the extra letter and write all the extra letters down from the various ads. These letters, if arranged in the proper sequence will spell the name of one of the players on the Fredericton team or one of the teams in the Southern N. B.
Hockey League.

There Will Be Three Weekly Prizes

of FREE ADMISSIONS TO LEAGUE HOCKEY GAMES Held in Fredericton, for correct solutions of each week's puzzle.

- 1st. Prize 2 Reserved Tickets
- 2nd. Prize 2 Rush Tickets
- 3rd. Prize 2 Rush Tickets

IN MAILING IN YOUR ANSWER USE THE COUPON ON THE LOWER LEFT HAND CORNER OF THIS PAGE.

Your answer must give not only the extra letter, but also the name of the firm in whose ad it appears and the product advertised by that firm in their weekly ad.

MAIL ALL ANSWERS ADDRESSED TO "HOCKEY CONTEST, CARE

Sir James Jeans, the famous scientist, told the Astronomical Society of Edinburgh, Scotland, that he still has doubts whether space is finite or infinite, whether it is curved or flat, or, indeed whether these questions mean anything at all.

"It has been well said that failure only begins when you leave off trying to succeed".
—Neville Chamberlain.
