BANG! TOOTH GONE

Man Bites 'Torpedo' as Candy

SAINT JOHN, Jan. 12.—A large tenton of swallowing the evidence tobacco and novelty store here has decided to move its "torpedoes" out of reach. They are the little red cylindrical pellets that explode when hurled to the ground, and are sold chiefly for celebrating national holidays.

The other day a man past middle-age was inspecting the stock of the store and was intrigued by the torpedoes, so he sampled one, putting it in his mouth, under the delusion that it was candy with a hard wrapping.

A clerk saw him and shouted in alarm:

"Take that thing out of your mouth! It will explode!"

But the gentleman was somewhat deaf, and he thought the clerk was accusing him of stealing candy. On the impulse of the moment he started to bite into the "candy" with the in-

BANG!
The sum total of the damage and loss was one tooth.

EGYPTIANS RUSH TO ARMY

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Jan. 12.—As a result of the recent international crisis, over 100,000 applications have been received by the Egyptian Ministry of War from carpenters, masons, blacksmiths and all kinds of artisans to serve the army.

Many young men also have applied to join the Egyptian army. Egyptian students in France are reported to have sent a letter to the Minister of War expressing their
