Runny
HEAD COLD
DO THIS: Put some Vicks VapoRub on each nostril and sniff well back. You'll feel better right away. Next, melt a spoonful of VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water; then breathe in the steaming medicated vapors
for several minutes.
This loosens phlegm and further clears the air-passages. At bedtime, rub VapoRub on throat, chest, and back so that its long-continued double action can relieve the migraine of the cold while you sleep.
VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice; at the same time its medicated vapors, breathed in direct, bring comfort to the irritated air-passages. Try it.

ADVOCATES

"We must not attempt to aim or to draw laws for the idea of euthanasia as a whole. I have tried to indicate where these ideas could be most mercifully applied with the lease, the minimal, chance of error, and I have warned of those problems in which our wisdom and judgment may sometimes err.

"For the present, let things be as they are for the man bound in pain for a while. Our ways of assuaging pain grow apace. But let us try to relieve of living the young person or child who should never have lived at all—the tens of thousands of con-genitally unfit about whom no diagnostic error could be possible."

6,600 VOLTS

teth high-tension wires.
Questioned this morning, S. C.
Young, manager of the Maritime Electric Co. and an authority on electricity, stated that his escape from death was a miracle. The voltage of the wires "to ground" is 6,600, enough to kill a man instantly. Mr. Young expressed the belief that he was saved by the fact that he was grounded through the tree, a poor conductor, and outside of the burns, little current travelled through his body.

Indian Agent R. Lee MacCutcheon stated this morning that he will investigate the case as to whether trees should be left in such close proximity to the hydro lines.
