SALLY
Suggests
To The
Shopper

Folks, I just have to tell you about the new dresses I saw in the downtown stores today . . . They're so smart . . . and snappy. There's a grand little street-dress in Kileel's that you'll just love . . . The dress is of plain navy wool with a high neck fastened with a contrasting clip and the skirt is slightly flared.
Over this is worn a blue and white, fine plaid jacket of hip length with loose, wide cuff of the dark dress material . . . The belt is navy wool Please go to see it.
Now for color . . . Let's go to Van's and see that mauve crepe dress with the dark purple hip-jacket . . . and the quilting on the collar looks fine enough to be hand-done . . .
The sleeves are bell-shaped . . . and definitely have "umph" . . . Or maybe you'd like that little wool suit in the new shade of rose . . . very tailored . . . and you can change the scarf at the neck every so often for matching accessories.
How about a new knitting bag?
Or a new hand-bag to go with that spring outfit? . . . I was looking at some lovely purses in Mac-Murray's yesterday . . . Make nice graduation gifts for your friend's daughter . . . A beautiful, grained leather in black with wide handles and so big and roomy . . .
I'm sure it would please any girl . . . or if you want color . . . there's a gorgeous one in green . . . in the new pebbly leather.
Dropping into Daisy Smith's I noticed a delightfully-feminine blouse . . . with fine laced shirring down the front . . . The sleeves were also laced trimmed . . . It made me think of cameos and lavender perfume . . . A pure white . . . and it will look lovely for your suit . . . Also jotted in my note-book . . . a huge white hankie with a gay flowered centre in blues, greens and yellows . . . It reminded me of daffodils . . .
Now, let's get down to our stomachs . . . Serving apple-pie for desert?
Try pouring a heavy chocolate-sauce over it . . . and then top that with whipped cream . . . or better still . . . melted marshmallows . . .
All of which makes me hungry . . .
See you later . . .
