

OSHAWA SIX TAKES THE MEMORIAL CUP

EDMONTON ROAMERS WENT DOWN TO 4-2 DEFEAT BEFORE EASTERNERS

Jud and Norm McAtee Counted For Three Generals' Goals To Notch Victory

TORONTO, April 18.—Oshawa Generals brought the Memorial Cup and the Canadian junior hockey championship back east last night when they defeated Edmonton Roamers 4-2, with a third period drive that headed off what seemed to be an imminent defeat.

Two brothers, Jud and Norm McAtee, former Stratford, Ont., players, came through with three goals in the spine-tingling session to give Generals their third victory in the best of five series.

The red headed Jud scored the first to tie the score, and his brother tallied twice within a minute to wipe out any chance the Westerners had of catching the Generals. In winning the prized cup, Oshawa succeeded where they failed last year against St. Boniface Seals.

Fade in Third

For two periods and part of the third, Roamers looked the better team. They set up a one-goal lead in the first and matched an Oshawa tally in the second. To most of the 11,326 fans present, it appeared as if Edmonton would level the series and force a fifth game.

The Oshawa pressure began to tell however, and on a power play started by Danny Daniels the puck was left loose around the Edmonton goal. Jud McAtee, standing off to one side got his stick to the rubber and lifted it into the net.

The goal inspired Generals to even greater efforts and the Roamer defence, as rock-bound as any fortress for most of the game, cracked enough for Norm McAtee to slip through for a shot that produced the winning tally.

PORT ARTHUR HAS STRONGHOLD ON ALLAN CUP

Downed Montreal Six 3-1 To Stand Final Series At 2-0

MONTREAL, April 18.—Port Arthur Bearcats made almost certain last night of retaining the Allan Cup for Western Canada when they swept to a 3-1 victory over Montreal Royals to take a 2-0 lead in games in a best of five series for the Canadian senior amateur hockey championship.

Victors 6-5 in overtime in the first game Friday night, the Western champions tantalized the Eastern titleholders with their blazing speed, stickhandling and passing to romp to victory on two goals in the first period by Stan King and another in the second session by Bob Manahan, brother of Coach Eddie (Jazzy) Manahan.

The lone Montreal goal—the first score of the game—went to little Pete Morin, still playing under the handicap of a heavy cold and a sore throat. Morin was the big star of the first game, scoring three of his team's goals.

"Greatest Puck Find" Proves Stumbling Block

TORONTO, April 18.—The hymns of praise rising from hockey's halls leave Bill Taylor unaffected, outwardly at least, and the boy Lester Patrick describes as the "greatest junior in 20 years" is not even sure he'll play professional.

As they watched him do amazing things for Oshawa Generals in the first two games of the Memorial Cup final against Edmonton Roamers, big-league hockey's wise men have found it hard to fit Taylor with suitable superlatives. No one has come forward to dispute the word of Patrick, long a connoisseur of junior talent for his New York Rangers.

Still Taylor, only 19, is the only one who will decide whether his future is to be in the National League or with Oshawa amateur teams while he pursues a business career. He would like to play in monied ranks but only if the price is right.

Conny Smythe, for whose Toronto Leafs Taylor is booked to play, is not too worried about it.

"We'll take him to training camp with us next season and if we can talk turkey, we'll offer him a contract," said Smythe.

GOOD CONTRACT

And Taylor says "you may be sure I'm not going to play pro unless I get a good contract. I've got a good job and good future in Oshawa and I won't throw them over unless the offer is attractive."

The situation is further complicated for the brilliant centre star because Montreal Royals have asked him to accompany them to the Olympic games in Finland next year if they win the Allan Cup. It's a trip he would like to make.

When discussing Taylor, hockey men sometimes wonder audibly whether he'll be big enough to be effective in the N. H. L. Taylor, five feet, 8 3/4 inches tall and weighing 150 pounds, has no worries on this score and neither has the Toronto manager.

"I often heard the late Leo Dan-durand say that Aurel Joliat was the greatest hockey player he had ever seen," said Smythe, "and Joliat was never Taylor's size."

Invariably in a discussion of Taylor, he is compared with the greats of yesterday, Patrick is reminded of

HOW THEY STAND

Allan Cup Finals
Port Arthur 3, Montreal Royals 1. (Second of best three in five series for the Allan Cup and the Canadian senior hockey championship. Port Arthur leads two games to none).

Memorial Cup Finals
Oshawa 4, Edmonton 2. (Fourth and final game of best three in five series for the Memorial Cup and Canadian junior hockey championship. Oshawa won cup and title three games to one).

Frank Boucher and Duke Keats when Bill is waltzing through the opposing defence, and his polish and brains remind Smythe of Cooney Weiland in his prime.

BORN IN WINNIPEG

Taylor's has been the life of the average Canadian boy. Born in Winnipeg, his family took him to St. Catharines, Ont., when he was seven months old and he got on skates there for the first time when he was five. At seven he came to Toronto and he played on his first team, St. James Bantams, when he was eight or nine.

Bill was the Maple Leaf mascot in the season of 1931-32 when the club won the Stanley Cup and he has sold programs in Maple Leaf Gardens. Next season, perhaps, they'll be selling programs at the Gardens with a picture of Taylor in a Maple uniform on the cover.

About the only person who hasn't got all the respect possible for Bill's ability is his nine-year-old brother, Buddy. Mascot for Generals, Buddy has a regular uniform and skates around between periods, just as his older brother did with the Leafs.

Naively, in an interval after Generals second victory the other night, Buddy suggested he would be a better player than Bill. "Why, what have you got that Bill hasn't?" the reporter asked.

"Brains," Buddy replied.

Weather Man Frowns On Opening Ball Season

NEW YORK, April 18.—If the weather man feels in the right mood—chances are he won't—all 16 major league teams get baseball's centennial year under way in full force today.

Bad weather ruined half of the usual two-game advance opening yesterday, forcing the United States' No. 1 right-hander, President Roosevelt along with New York Yankees and Washington Senators, to the sidelines.

The other half of the curtailed first day program saw the highly-regarded Cincinnati Reds, the "experts" choice to win the National League pennant, fall apart in the late innings and drop a 7-5 decision to Pittsburgh Pirates. The defeat was costly, since shortstop Billy Myers was hit on the head by a thrown ball and taken to a hospital with a possible concussion.

Either wild showers or honest-to-gosh rainstorms are predicted for six of the eight cities planning to get started this afternoon.

LOUIS TAGS ROPER WITH K. O. IN FIRST HEAT

California Veteran Lasts Only Two Minutes, 20 Seconds

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—Joe Louis successfully defended his heavyweight boxing championship last night by knocking out 36-year old Jack Roper in two minutes and 20 seconds in the first round of their scheduled 10-round bout.

It was one of the quickest knock-outs in a heavyweight title fight on record. Louis polished off Max Schmeling in less time but probably no more effectively.

The powerful Negro warmed up 15 his work quickly after a few exchanges which found the two feeling each other out, they started exchanging punches. A left hook started Roper on the way out. He staggered under the impact of the blow but clung to weather the storm. The 36-year old challenger pounded Louis with rights and lefts in a brief flurry but Louis turned the tide swiftly.

He launched a terrific attack that made Roper's head bob from side to side, and the latter finally tumbled to his knees in his own corner. He was not unconscious but was so stunned he was unable to pull himself up by the ropes. After one last effort he sprawled over on his face and the match was over.
