Will Discuss Canadian
Trade In CBC's Forum

TORONTO, Jan. 20. — "Canadian Trade" will be the subject to be discussed by Kenneth W. Taylor, Professor of Political Economy at McMaster University, Hamilton, and Graffan O'Leary, editor of the Ottawa Journal, on Sunday, January 22, 11.00 to 11.30 p.m. AST when the next programme in the "National Forum" series is heard over CBC's national network from Hamilton and Ottawa.

Mr. Taylor was a special advisor to the Canadian Delegation at the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa in 1932. Recently, he was economic advisor to the Ontario Government in the preparation of the brief presented to the Rowell Commission.

Mr. O'Leary's articles and editorials on Canadian affairs are widely known. He has been a press delegate to various conferences both here, in London and in Australia.

The speakers will place different emphasis on the direction in which they believe Canadian trade should be directed.

The subject on Sunday, January 22, will be: "The Canadian Nation."

MYSTERY GIRL IS PUZZLE TO BARBOUR FAMILY

Possibility of a new character in "One Man's Family" looms in the chapter of the Tender Leaf Tea serial to be broadcast next Wednesday, January 25, over the NBC red network at 9 p.m. AST. The character is a woman named Laura Parker who without actually appearing in any scene has an important part in the action. She may appear in person in an early episode.

This introduction of a new personality to the gallery which Author Carlton E. Morse has created for "One Man's Family" is always an interesting feature to the "Family" audience.

This particular character gives the title to the current chapter "The Girl Who Came to See Paul" — because without explaining who she is to the rest of the family Paul rushes off to keep a mysterious appointment with her.

That baby, who is still about a year too young to be a speaking member of "One Man's Family," continues to be a crying, laughing and gurgling part.

BROADCAST DAY
AHEAD OF TIME

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—No matter what you regard as the most interesting broadcast you ever listened to, George Eggleston can go you one better. Eggleston, a guest of Cal Tenny on NBC's If I Had the Chance program, declared that his most interesting broadcast was listening to tomorrow's football games today!

Eggleston, youthful editor of the new Listener's Digest magazine, explained that this unique broadcast experience occurred during his residence in the South Sea Islands a year ago.

"If you have a radio in the South Sea Islands that will tune in New Zealand stations 1500 miles to the west, you can hear tomorrow's football or rugby games," Eggleston declared. "They're tomorrow's games because of the international date-line. I made lots of money off them."

"On Rarotonga Island I had the only radio set that would bring in the New Zealand broadcasts. I would listen to tomorrow's football games from New Zealand and then I would go out and bet on who was going to win tomorrow. I nearly always won."

ANN TENNA TELLS ALL!

Marek Weber's long-time hobby, of studying foreign languages, comes in handy these days. Music's "International ambassador" gets many fan letters from dialers abroad who hear his music via short wave and who write to him in their native tongues — and he replies in their languages too.

In the client booth at last week's "In Can Be Done" broadcast in which Mabel Stark, famous tiger trainer, was featured, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ringling of the circus family.

In all his theatre and dance engagements, Maestro Frankie Masters personally supervises the stage set-up and lighting. He once studied toward a degree in stage handicraft, at the University of Texas.

The "Scattergood Baines" cast includes an actor and actress who started their professional careers together. Boris Aplon and Catherine McCune both made their stage bows as members of DeWolfe Hopper's "Mikado" company, in 1932.

Musicians in Harold Stokes' "Your Sunday Date" orchestra helped the conductor celebrate a birthday anniversary last week. Many of his current band men have been with him since he started in radio on the first coast-to-coast commercial to originate in Chicago.

Sunda Love, "Stepmother" star entertains friends at "home concerts." A record fan, she invites groups of friends to her home to hear the many new discs she received as holiday gifts.

Heard as Harvey Fox, current menace in the CBS "Scattergood Baines" plot, Boris Aplon made his professional debut in support of that other menacing Boris, in Karloff's movie, "Frankenstein."

IS BUILT AROUND
CANADIAN LIFE

MONTREAL, Jan. 20. — "Hilda Takes a Trip" will be the title of the episode in the series "Miss Trent's Children" to be heard from the CBC studios in Montreal over the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Friday, January 20, 9.30 to 10.00 p.m. AST.

"Miss Trent's Children," a dramatic serial of a Canadian family, written by J. E. McDougall and produced by Rupert Caplan, is the first to be so completely Canadian in character. In it, the action takes place, first, in Western Canada, and then in the East. The plot should be of interest to all young Canadians in the Dominion as it deals with a problem that hundreds of young Canadians are facing today, one of rehabilitation. The story is written by a young Canadian with a sympathetic understanding of his subject.

Mark's disappearance from the home of his aunt in Montreal, how he is traced and the action taken by Hilda, his sister, will be dealt with in the episode to be heard on this date.

Before a storm can be called a hurricane it must move faster than 75 miles an hour, according to a ruling of the British Air Ministry.

"The difference among judges is not in knowledge of constitutional precepts, but in the persistence and insight with which they respect them."

—Felix Frankfurter.

Haiti has banned charcoal export.

Now he ranks as one of radio's best dressed performers and himself a part owner of one of New York's smartest Fifth Avenue tailor shops.

Beauty as well as talent abounds in the "Romance of Helen Trent" cast. Virginia Clark, who plays the title role, is a former Miss America and Janet Logan, the show's Sandra Sinclair, was once Miss San Bernardino (California).

Orin Tucker, originator of "conversational music" is developing into a speaker as well as a maestro. He has addressed several Chicago service clubs during the last few weeks.

One of radio's fencing experts is Don Gordon, announcer of "Curtain Time." He and fellow members of the company hold frequent sessions with the epees.

Virginia Payne, star of "Ma Perkins," saw her brother John off to Cincinnati this week. He visited her in Chicago but had to return to his studies at the University of Cincinnati.

A tuner-in once mailed $4,000 to Actor-announcer Paul Luther, requesting him to invest it for her. Her only explanation for having chosen him for such a responsibility was that "he sounded so honest."

WINNING CONTRACT

By the Four Aces

(David Bruce Burnstone, Merwin D. Maier, Oswald Jacoby, Howard Schenken, world's leading team of four, inventors of the system that has beaten every other system, in existence.)

RAISE PARTNER'S BID

David Burnstone was your partner yesterday. You held:

♠ J
♥ J x
♦ A K J x
♣ A K J 10 x x

Both sides were vulnerable and the bidding was:

You	Maier	Burnstone	Jacoby
1♣	1♠	2♥	3♠
3♣	Pass	2♥	Pass
(1)

ANSWER: Raise to four hearts. Your partner has freely bid and rebid in hearts. He should have at least a fair six-card suit, and hence your J-x should be ample support.

Score 100 per cent for four hearts, 70 per cent for four clubs, 60 per cent for four diamonds, 00 for five clubs.

Question No. 35

Oswald Jacoby is the dealer and your partner. You hold:

♠ K J 10 x x
♥ A x
♦ A K x
♣ Q x x

Both sides are vulnerable. The bidding:

Jacoby	Schenken	You	Maier
Pass	1♠	(?)	Pass

What do you bid? (Answer tomorrow.)

TODAY'S HAND

South, Dealer

Both sides vulnerable

♠ K 10 2

3♣	Pass	3♥	Pass
5♣	Dbl.	Pass	Pass

Such a large swing was involved on this hand that it prompted Question 34, which was answered above. In raising an opening suit bid a responding hand should generously have four trumps and never less than three since it is quite likely that the bidder may have only a four-card suit. Now, however, place yourself in South's position and see how circumstances alter cases. Over West's one-spade overall North freely responded with two hearts. While this bid clearly showed at least a five card suit, South was quite correct in rebidding his own powerful club suit, especially since he held only Jack-small of hearts. But now North rebid his hearts to three in spite of South's denial. North could hardly be re-bidding hearts on a weaker suit than he actually held, and South's next bid should have been clearly indicated—a raise to four hearts. Perhaps South's 100 honors in clubs went to his head; or possibly he thought he could make a Slam. But in any event he spurned his partner's hearts and jumped to a game in clubs, with disastrous results.

Without going into all the painful details, the defense managed to capture two heart tricks and one trick each in the other three suits for an 800-point penalty. Oh, we forgot, South had 100 honors.

MR. PICOBAC'S CRONIES

PRESENTING LES SHARPLES,
PROPRIETOR OF THE ONLY
AND ORIGINAL TWO-CHAIR
BARBER SHOP IN ESSEX CENTRE.

"Listen, Mr. Picobac," said Les

Razor in hand, Les Sharples, proud proprietor of the original two-chair barber shop of Essex Centre, paused and declared, "Nobody trusts a mugwump. You never know which side of the fence he is on."

"I'm not talking about mugwumps," replied Mr. Picobac brushing the blue smoke aside. "I'm talking about keeping an open mind. An M.P. should vote and smoke as his conscience guides."

"You always smoke the same kind of tobacco, I notice," continued Les.

"You bet I do," rejoined the Burley philosopher. "I smoke Picobac, the pick of Canada's Burley Crop, grown in Sunny Southern Ontario. I like a mild . . . cool . . . sweet smoke. The more I smoke it, the better I like it. But I'm open-minded. You show me anything better and I'll try it; but you can't do it."
