IRISH HORSES WORTH $50,000,000

England Boasts of Nearly 18,000, of Which 5,000 are in Training for Race Campaigns

LONDON, Nov. 1—The wealth of Great Britain and Ireland measured in terms of thoroughbred horseflesh is regarded by many turf authorities as far in excess of what could have been foreseen immediately after the war.

According to the opinion expressed at the Committee of Inquiry into Horsebreeding by a member of the Department of Agriculture in the Irish Free State, the value of horses in that country is placed at approximately $50,000,000.

In England a recent census of horses gives the number of blood stock animals here as between 17,500 and 18,000. Of this number, judging by latest turf statistics, fully 5,000 are in training.

While no estimate is made of the total value of the thoroughbreds in this country, it is easy to arrive at some idea of it by considering the value of certain big racing establishments and the prices paid in the last few years for blood animals.

In view of some racing authorities, the horses owned by Aga Khan, probably have a value exceeding $7,500,000, those in England alone being worth at least $5,000,000. Six of his horses are regarded as having a total value of $750,000 or more. One of these Bahram, the Derby winner, is described as the $350,000 horse. His commercial value on retirement is expected to be much in excess of that figure.

There are several other big racing establishments rated as having a horseflesh value of from $1,500,000 to $3,000,000 and quite a number under $1,000,000.

At the Doncaster yearling sales last month a total of $1,434,300 was realized for 365 animals, as compared with $861,275 for 548 youngsters at the sales at Saratoga, N.Y.

The amount realized at the July and first October yearling sales at Newmarket, $692,475, coupled with the prices obtained at Doncaster, brings the total of the year to date to the impressive figure of $2,126,775. Last year the four principal sales totalled $3,000,000.

As there are many private sales to be reckoned with where the prices are not divulged, it is estimated in some quarters that $6,000,000 would probably be near the total paid for thoroughbreds in the space of two years. The highest price paid for a yearling at Doncaster was $42,000. It was bought by Lord Glanely.

OLYMPIC ROW STILL WAGING IN THE U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—Jeremiah T. Mahoney, national president of the Amateur Athletic Union and a leader in the fight against United States participation in the Berlin Olympic Games, has taken another printed swipe at Avery Brundage and Brigadier General Charles H. Sherrill.

Writing in the current issue of "Opinion," Mahoney impugns the motives of Brundage, who is president of the American Olympic committee, and General Sherrill, a member of the International Olympic committee, both of whom are in favor of American participation.

"We who for a lifetime have been on the inside of the athletic situation," Mahoney writes, "know what is in back of the game being played by the people who pretend to be impartial lovers of sport, but whose real impulse is shown very clearly by the things they have been saying through the press in the last few weeks.

"It is not an accident that Dr. Le-wald (president of the German Olympic committee), General Sherrill and Avery Brundage are saying practically the same thing. They are of one mind. They have one aim and that is to let

U. N. B. Changes Lineup For Second Mount A. Game

Left at Noon for Sackville Where They Play Deciding Game of Series With Mounties.

A grimly-determined University of New Brunswick rugby squad left here today at noon for Moncton, enroute to Sackville, and the deciding game of the New Brunswick Intercollegiate series. At full strength and prepared for all eventualities in an effort to break the deadlock with their Mount Allison rivals, the team will spend tonight at Moncton and proceed to Sackville in time for the game Saturday afternoon. The first game of the home-and-home series played here a week ago yesterday, resulted in a scoreless tie.

Concluding four days of strenuous practice the Red and Black played a full game with the second team last evening. "Shorty" Clark, Fredericton, handled the whistle, and Coach "Burdo" Burden followed the play closely, substituting freely and seeking last minute solution of backfield and scrum problems.

Several changes in the team which played the Garnet and Gold last Thursday were noted in the lineup announced following last night's practice. In the scrum, Pond has been moved from front line of the three four formation to team with Jamet at lock replacing Weston. Bob Armstrong, senior student and newcomer to football ranks, graduated from the second team to fill the position vacated by Pond.

"Scotty" Donaldson, tricky backfield player of two years ago, who was out last season with an injured knee, will play receiving half, replacing Copeland. With but four days' experience behind the scrum he has worked in well at this position.

Three spares, Don MacKinnon, utility; Copeland, half and three-quarter, and Burgess, scrum, will be carried with the squad to be used in the event of injuries or sickness. The players will be accompanied by Man-nothing interfere with the Olympics in Berlin even though the rest of the world is convinced that it is a travesty upon sport to hold the Olympic games in a city that stands out before the whole world as having ended fair play and sportsmanship throughout all Germany."

"... as for General Sherrill's threat that unless the Jews shut up there will be a great anti-Semitic move in America, I think the American people can be trusted to take care of that."

F. H. S. Ready for Title Match Tomorrow

The Fredericton High School has been undergoing rigorous nightly practices this week in preparation for one of their biggest battles in recent years at College Field tomorrow with St. Vincent's High School fifteen of Saint John.

The Yellow and Black team on that occasion will make a determined effort to regain the New Brunswick interscholastic rugby championship crown lost to St. Vincent's at Saint John last year.

Saturday's game is a "sudden death" fixture to decide the 1935 provincial titlist. Shorty Clark will referee.

F. H. S. is expected to make a good showing, for the match this year will be two weeks earlier in the season than last and the encounter will be on the local team's home field. Last year the Yellow and Black lost the championship by a score of 3-0 on a single try made by St. Vincent's in the opening minutes of the game.

Coach Egbert Cass, making several changes, probably will put the following lineup on the field:

Forwards, Hoyt, Sloat, Thorpe, Heron, Fenety, Davis, MacDonald; halves, McFee, Brewer, McLennan; three-quarters, Chippin, Clark, Morgan Markey, and fullback, McCarthy.

ager Frederick MacLaren and Coach Burden will follow the team to Moncton tonight.

The U. N. B. second team will make the trip to Sackville Saturday morning, accompanied by Assistant Manager Allan R. Hubbard. Nineteen players will be carried and a game with Mount Allison seconds will be played previous to the main fixture.

Plans for a special train to transport students' supporters to the game collapsed early this week, but a small number of rooters will make the trip by automobile.

The lineups:
U. N. B. first team—Forwards, Armstrong, Eldridge, Palmer, Scotcher, Jamer, Pond Corbett; halves Thomas (captain), Donaldson; three-quarters, Coughle, Inch, Kilburn, H. MacKinnon, McDermott; fullback, Sleep.

Second team—Forwards, Watson, D. Logie, Smith, Mallory, Weston, Perkins, Brown, Anderson; halves, Currie, Stuart; three-quarters, R. Logie, Clements, Wilson, Rowland, Freeze (captain), Mann, Helling, Bartlett; fullback, Keswick.

Amateurs Migrate To Pros at Risk

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Oct. 31—Migration of amateurs to professional clubs after the date set for registration by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association may involve a break with the Dominion body. W. J. Quinn, president of Prince Albert Mintos stated here tonight.

"Wrecking of teams by professional clubs snatching amateurs after C.A.H.A. registrations dates, is giving rise to a move for drastic steps," Mr. Quinn asserted, "and may lead to the setting up of a Western semi-professional league."

The Northern Saskatchewan hockey league has sent out a call for a week-end meeting to discuss what is termed "a quick move for our own protection."

Copper Gets $60,000 For His Quoddy Work

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1—The War Department agreed today to pay $60,000 for all that Dexter P. Cooper has done on the Passamaquoddy, Maine, tide-harnessing development to generate hydroelectric power. Specifically, the War Department agreed to pay to Mr. Cooper as an individual and to Dexter P. Cooper, Inc., for their "rights, privileges, franchises, engineering plans, data and equipment" pertaining to the project.

Mr. Cooper who has spent a number of years studying the project, agreed to be available during the construction for consultation and advice, the department said. Plans and data developed by Mr. Cooper and his company were of value, the department asserted, in carrying out the project would materially facilitate operations.

"Squank" Dougan, Harvey N.B., who learned his rugby in Fredericton High School under the tutelage of E. G. Cass, is coming into the limelight again in the pigskin game at Dalhousie after one or two years retirement owing to the pressure of studies. "Squank," who has been playing inter-faculty rugby at Dal, will join the varsity squad Saturday against Acadia. The addition of "Squank" to the varsity team brightens Dal's outlook on the rugby situation according to an item appearing in the Halifax Chronicle as follows:

"The Dalhousie Tigers have no worries where the vacant standoff well position on the football team is concerned. Travis "Squank" Dougan, well known Acadia and McGill athlete, will probably be picking them out from behind the scrum when the Bengals go into action against the Axemen Saturday. To date Dougan has been performing in the interfaculty loop with Medicine and turning in high class exhibitions. An excellent ball handler with a nice kick, Dougan is a cool and heady player and a real threat in the backfield. The Tigers' hopes of revenge at Acadia look considerably brighter with the new addition to the squad."

The U.N.B. rugby team left today for their crucial match with Mount Allison at Sackville tomorrow. "Burdo" has been drilling the boys quite strenuously for the last week and the Red and Black lineup Saturday will show some changes from the game here on Thanksgiving Day. "Burdo" thinks the changes are for the better and expressed confidence in the renewed lineup to bring back the New Brunswick Intercollegiate title.

Fredericton High go into the finals of the N. B. Interscholastic Championship playoffs tomorrow against St. Vincent's of Saint John. The latter team won a close game from the Yellow and Black last year to win the title, and are out to defend their hard won title to the last man this year. F.H.S. has not met defeat yet this year, but tied one game with R.C.S. St. Vincent's have a clean record of victories behind them. So, the game should be one worth seeing and a battle from start to finish.
