

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

R. W. McLellan was host at a small but delightful dinner party at his home on Saturday night. Covers were laid for six, those present being Mr. and Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt, The Misses Beverley, Mrs. J. W. Bartlett and R. W. McLellan.

Mrs. J. Ray Burpee and Mrs. Beverly King were joint hostesses to the Bridge Club of which they are members, at D Coy Inn on Saturday afternoon. The charming function which was a four-table dinner Bridge marked the closing of the club for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burpee motored to Minto this morning.

On Saturday afternoon the LeBlanc Club, the Normal School students from St. Dunstan's Church and friends were entertained at a picnic supper. The pleasing function was in the nature of a closing function of the year's activities, under the convener'ship of Mrs. Leo F. Cain and was chaperoned by Rev. Dr. J. H. Milligan, Miss Kate McCann, Miss Cecil Gallagher and (Mrs. J. L. Neville. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, supper, which was to have been held at The Hermitage, was enjoyed at St. Dunstan's Hall. The guests were introduced by the president, Miss Rose Marie Comeau, who, on behalf of the members of the Club, expressed thanks to Father Milligan for his support in the work of the Club. At the conclusion of supper, served by some of the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts a program of music was rendered, including solos by Mrs. Leo F. Cain, Miss Rose Marie Comeau, of Campbellton, and beautiful whistling solos by Miss Josephine Hughes. Music for dancing was provided by Miss Saindon and Miss Terese LeBlanc, of Moncton. The LeBlanc Club was organized last March by Mrs. Cain, under the direction of Rev. Father Milligan, as a study and social club for the French girls attending the Normal School.

CANADIANA

THE VIOLET

Modest little violet,
Growing in the dell,
Your ethereal beauty
Holds me in its spell!

Other flowers more showy,
Lack your sweet appeal.
Something in your stillness
Makes me want to kneel.

When my life is ended,
This dear boon I crave—
That you bloom each springtime
On my lonely grave.

—Margot Wells.

Our Emblem

Since Nova Scotia has secured legislation making the Mayflower its provincial floral emblem, would it not be fitting for New Brunswick to adopt the modest little violet for our emblem? The Horticultural Society and other organizations might voice their opinion on this matter and aim at the necessary legislation, so that we can claim the little violet as nationally our own.

During the week-end the principal and teachers of the Smythe Street School entertained Miss Kate McCann, who is retiring from the staff, at a picnic. After the reading of an address by Principal Elmer Close, Miss McCann was presented with an old-fashioned nosegay, which contained a gift of money. Much regret was expressed at the retirement of so highly valued a members of the teaching staff.

LILAC WEEK

Today and rest of the week is being observed at the Dominion Experimental Station as "Lilac Week". The public is invited to see the avenue of lovely lilacs which are now in full bloom. Each year at this time, when these flowers are in bloom, it is the custom to observe the week with a special invitation to the public to go and visit the Farm for the purpose of seeing these flowers.

JUDGMENT IN
KING'S BENCH
DIVISION TODAY

No power passes to the surviving member of a committee of an estate of a person of unsound mind upon the death of a second member of that committee when their appointment was a joint appointment, was the judgment handed down today by Chief Justice J. H. Barry of the King's Bench Division here.

Decision concerned an action which was commenced in connection with an estate of the late Hon. Peter Mitchell, of Newcastle, one of the Fathers of Confederation. George Watt, as surviving trustee of the estate brought action against the town of Newcastle and the case was to have come up for trial at the Northumberland County Circuit Court last month.

About twenty years ago the town widened by fifteen feet what is now known as Radio street and installed water and sewerage, etc., and as a result the property enhanced in value. In 1933 Mr. Watt as trustee brought action to recover damages for taking the land used for widening the street, but when it was to come up for trial it was found that the property was not owned by the estate of Hon. Peter Mitchell, but by the latter's daughter, who was a person of unsound mind. The plaintiff sought to amend and bring action by George Watt as a member of the committee of the estate of Blanche Gertrude Mitchell. Mr. Watt and Jane Mitchell had been appointed such a committee in 1905 but she died in 1917.

On the plaintiff's application to amend the defendant took the objection that George Watt's appointment as a member of the committee of the estate of Blanche Mitchell ceased with the death of Jane Mitchell, as theirs was a joint appointment and no power passed to the survivors. The court today upheld the objection and refused the application to amend. P. J. Hughes K.C., appeared for the plaintiff and J. F. Winslow, K.C. and W. H. Davidson, of Newcastle, for the defendant.

Celebrate Decade of Church Union

The story of the Christian Church has not been one of clear and undivided fellowship. Denominationalism, while of tremendous value in claiming liberty of conscience and the right of free enquiry and worship has nevertheless hampered the fullest development of Christian fellowship. Believing that Our Lord ardently desired that His people should show the world a demonstration of oneness, three great churches, each with a long history and a record of great achievements, each one holding the great verities of the faith in common believe that for the sake of Canada and the world they should unite their separate life and virtues in one Christian body. After twenty-five years of discussion and exploration, this great dream was consummated on June 10th, 1922, when the United Church of Canada came into being.

The evening service was held in Wilmet Church under the direction of Dr. Wightman when the music was provided by a combined choir of sixty voices under the direction of Prof. Harrison and Prof. Wade. Rev. George Telford again preached to a large audience. He pointed out some of the historic associations of June 10th, showing the sources of the United Church in its three contributory streams. The last Dominion census showed that 2,017,375 persons claimed allegiance to the United Church. This expansion has taken place during a period of a great boom followed by a great depression. During the past four years while the income of Canadians fell off forty per cent, the revenue of the United Church decreased 32 per cent. In 1926 the United Church, among 25 churches on the North American continent, was sixth in its givings to Missions and benevolences. In 1932 it had attained second place and in 1934 third place.

It is a corrective of narrowness to get a glimpse of the wide scope of the Church's work. It is manning the outposts, churching the prairies, caring for the strangers, preaching weekly in twenty-five different languages, carrying its message to mountains, forests, cities and lonely places.

The celebration of the first decade of united life, held throughout Canada is being marked by a spirit of profound thankfulness that during ten critical years the church has not only survived but has succeeded so well in uniting its various parts that no sign of denominational cleavage has even been in evidence. Its achievements have been notable. Its spirit has been marked by wide brotherliness, adventurousness in the cause of Christ, deep and active concern for the highest welfare of men, and always throughout every part there has been a profound and glad conviction that Christ has been working in and through its life and labours.

Invasion of Army
Worm in Province

It is possible that the outbreak will continue next year, although it is too early to determine this. Within a year or two, however, it may be expected to die down from the increasing effectiveness of parasites and a disease known as "wilt," aided by starvation.

The only hope of control in the forest lies in the protection of our forests from fire, and in silvicultural management which will eliminate the pure stands of poplar which are now so characteristic a feature of forest lands in the northeast. It is possible, however, that more effective parasites may be discovered in Europe, where this insect is present but not seriously destructive.

EDMUNDSTON, June 10—Instant death to Alphonse Roy, Fort Kent, Me., and possibly fatal injuries to his wife and child, overtook them Sunday afternoon when a car owned and driven by Roy was in collision with a truck near Fort Kent, Me., according to word reaching here. Mrs. Roy and child were on the danger list at the Eagle Lake Hospital, it was stated.

Governor Curleys
Daughter Wed

BOSTON, June 9—Miss Mary Curley, daughter of Governor James M. Curley of Massachusetts, became the bride of Lieutenant Colonel Edward C. Donnelly, Boston advertising executive, Saturday, in a wedding ceremony in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross before a throng of 3,000 persons.

The ceremony was performed by William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, and dean of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in America and was marked by all the ritualistic splendor of the Church.

Scores of persons prominent in the social and political life of New England, including virtually the entire membership of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, were present. Crowds massed in the vicinity of the cathedral were held in order by more than 300 city policemen.

UNITED CHURCH
READY TO CONSIDER
ORGANIC UNIONS

TORONTO, June 10—On the eve of its 10th anniversary the United Church of Canada issued tonight a declaration of its faith in union, and its readiness to consider further organic unions. Signed by the deputy moderate, Dr. T. Albert Moore, on behalf of the General Council, the statement reads as follows:

"On this its 10th anniversary, the United Church of Canada reaffirms before the world its faith in the ideals and principles which brought it into being. In the light of ten years' experience it has found these ideals to be eminently practical in their outworking, and in the quest of them its members have found an enriched and deepened fellowship, human and Divine.

"In a renewed conviction of the worth of inclusive Christian fellowship, the United Church of Canada enters its second decade, prepared, as opportunity may offer and as God may direct, to seek with other Christian communions further development of its ideals, whether by increased cooperation, organic union, or otherwise, and so fulfil its purpose of being not merely a united, but a uniting church."
