JIMMY FOXX TO GO TO RED SOX, REPORT SAYS

Home Run Slugger of the Mackmen Rumored In Trade for Dahlgren and $50,000 Cash.

BOSTON, June 10—Jimmy Foxx will be wearing a Red Sox uniform within a few days. The report of the trade which would bring the athletics' home run slugger from Philadelphia in exchange for the youthful Californian, "Babe" Dahlgren, and possibly $50,000 will not be downed—and for good reason.

Eddie Collins, general manager of the Red Sox, and the dispenser of Tom Yawkey's aims, is—or was until the other night—in Philadelphia ostensibly attending the graduation exercises of his son Eddie, Jr., from Episcopal Seminary.

Business With Pleasure

Collins, however, was combining a bit of business with pleasure. For he also intended to append the signature of several young college stars to Red Sox contracts—and re-open negotiations for Foxx at the same time with his former boss, the venerable Mr. Mack.

Mr. Mack, only a few miles away in New York, where his Athletics were engaged with the Yankees, pronounced one of the strangest statements of his entire career of a half century, hinting that Foxx's return to first base, after opening the season behind the plate, as at Jimmy's own request.

"I do not doubt that Foxx welcomed the return to first base. But with Foxx at first base we really haven't our best team on the field.

"Lew Finney played a better game at first base than Jimmy and now we have to keep Finney, a pretty good hitter, on the bench.

"Neither Foxx nor Higgins would want to come to New York because they are convinced that they cannot hit in the Stadium."

Why—we request—should Mr. Mack, the wildest veteran in baseball, make such a statement of Foxx, his favorite protegee, unless his decision to put him on the market has already been made?

Hockey Stars Are Playing Softball

MONTREAL, June 10—Hooley Smith has been signed up by the N.H.L. All-Star Softball team and played behind the bat in Earl Robinson's place, who was away on a fishing trip.

"Toe" Blake is another newcomer to the team. Blake, former Hamilton amateur who turned pro with Maroons in the waning part of the N. H. L. schedule, is making his home in Montreal and will play second base.

Pete Kelly will perform mound duty with Archie Wilcox in reserve. Wilcox put in a creditable performance last week, holding the powerful Emerald team to seven runs. He also showed up well at bat, having a perfect record.

DIZZY DEAN WANTS TO QUIT THE CARDINALS

Says Club Don't Appreciate Him--Nearly took a Punch at Medwick in Front of Stands.

PITTSBURGH, June 10—Jerome H. (Dizzy) Dean, who proudly admits he is the best pitcher in the majors, wants to be traded by the St. Louis Cardinals because "I'll never be any good with them," he told a sports writer here the other day.

His brother, Paul, also a good pitcher but not so boastful, "feels the same way about things."

It may have been a "closed incident" but Dizzy Dean's squabble with Manager Frank Frisch and his St. Louis Cardinals team-mates was a wide-open affair.

Far from contrite, after receiving a verbal whipping from Frisch after a game the other day with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Dean was a blustering peacock.

"Can you imagine anybody telling you he's going to fine you $10,000?" Dean asked. "Yeah, it wasn't $5,000, but 10, that he threatened to fine me. Yeah, ten grand."

"You know what I think? They're trying to get me in bad so they can take away a big chunk of the money my contract calls for. That's what they're trying to do."

Dissension, disorder and a near fight broke out on the Cardinal bench in the fifth inning of the game. Irritated at the pounding he was taking, Dean charged his team-mates with "quitting" and was himself accused of "laying down."

Square Off For Fight

The angry words were climaxed with Dizzy and left-fielder Joe Medwick "squaring off" in full view of the cash customers. They were separated before any blows were struck.

Here's the way Dean tells it:

"When I got back to the bench after the fourth inning, I was yelling at Umpire Rigger. Medwick says to me, 'Lay offa Rigger and bear down in there.' I looked at Medwick and said, 'Whatta you mean, bear down. I'll punch you on your Hungarian beeper.'"

"Then Medwick grabs a bat. I was ready for him, when the other players rushed in. Then Frisch gets on me, bawls me out about bearing down and says he'll fine me $10,000. I told him to go ahead and fine me."

"After the game in the clubhouse Frisch gave me another bawling out. I waited until he was all through. Then I told him something."

"Owes Job To Me."

"I said, 'Listen, Frank, you can say what you want, but if you can thank anybody for the job you have as manager you can thank me, and you know it.'"

Regardless of whom he has to thank for his job, Frisch showed his authority in no uncertain terms in a statement he issued after the clubhouse talk.

Asserting he will fine the pitcher $5,000 and suspend him if the "display of temper" is repeated, he said Dean "made slurring remarks about the team, describing it as a lousy ball club. Naturally, the fellows who have been hustling their heads off resented was scheming 'to rob' him."

Jeers And Cheers For The Great Dizzy

Shower of Lemons First, Then Cheers as Dean Beats Cubs, 13-2—Past Friction Forgotten.

NEW YORK, June 9—A shower of lemons greeted "Dizzy" Dean as he came to bat today in his first St. Louis appearance since his squabble at Pittsburgh, but the jeers turned to cheers before the game was over as the loquacious Cardinal hurler held the Chicago Cubs to six hits and turned in his seventh victory of the season, 13-2.

As "Diz" stepped to the plate in the second inning a dozen lemons were tossed on the field from the upper deck of the grandstand, and the Sunday crowd of 14,500 let out a mixture of cheers and catcalls. Unperturbed, the great one smacked out a healthy single and only cheers were heard.

Past friction created between the star pitcher and his teammates after the row at Pittsburgh—in which they exchanged mutual charges of "laying down"—apparently was forgotten.

"Dizzy" pitched masterful ball throughout and knocked two singles and a double in the Cardinals' wholesale slaughter of three Chicago pitchers.

With Babe Ruth in the stands at New York watching the team he quit just a week ago, New York Giants gained revenge on Boston Braves and Bob Smith with a 5-4 victory.

Pittsburgh's rookie hurler, Cy Blanton, ran his strike-out record to 71 as the Pirates made it two out of three from Cincinnati by a 7-4 margin at Pittsburgh.

Brooklyn was idle at Philadelphia by wet grounds.

White Hose Beat Whitehead

NEW YORK, June 9—Tommy Bridges pitched his eighth consecutive victory today as Detroit Tigers turned on their season-long tormentors and beat the White Sox and Johnny Whitehead 4-1 at Chicago.

Bridges allowed five hits in achieving his ninth victory. Whitehead, Chicago freshman find, who also was seeking his ninth triumph, permitted only four. Each pitcher was backed with one homer, Hank Greenberg, Detroit's slugging first baseman, driving his season's 13th round-tripper and Marty Hopkins, White Sox utility infielder, accounting for the Chicagoans' lone run with a drive into the left field seats in the fifth.

Ed Coleman's home run with one aboard and Fay Thomas' five-hit pitching gave St. Louis Browns a 2-1 victory over the Indians at Cleveland.

After throwing away repeated opportunities to score, the Senators pulled a hard-fought game out of the fire in the 10th inning to defeat Philadelphia 5-4 at Washington.

New York was rained out at Boston.

most valuable player last year and a struggling pitcher this, came out of the clubhouse and told some inter-viewers, "I just lost my temper and I'm sorry."

But several hours later, it was a different story. Then he made his charge that the team's management was scheming "to hob" him.

"They gave me a $1,000 bonus to make me feel good over the winter; the contract I signed calls for $18,500 and then they gave me $2,500 as a bonus for signing," he said.

"Now they want to get me in a fix so's they can take it away from me. But I'm too smart for that."

"What they ought to do is to get rid of me. They could get $125,000 for me right now and they ought to take it, 'cause now's the time to sell me, when I'm in my prime."

"Pop" Foster Squawked Plenty

NEW YORK, June 10—Pop Foster kicked so loudly against the decision in the recent title fight that the New York boxing solons summoned him to appear before them. But Pop seems to have a mind of his own and headed for the Coast, paying little attention to the commission. And what happened to that proposed trip to Ireland by McLarnin directly after the fight or was that part of the ballyhoo, too?

Jackie Williams, of Cambridge, Mass., who witnessed all three title fights between McLarnin and Ross, points out that their recent fight was the most thrilling. And he'll be on hand for the two big heavy-weight bouts, too, being one of those fellows who'll travel across the country to get his fill of such things.

Jimmy McLarnin May Meet Brouillard And Canzoneri

NEW YORK, June 10—The New York Mirror said in a recent edition that Jimmy McLarnin has been signed to fight either Tony Canzoneri or Lou Brouillard late this summer.

The paper said Pop Foster, manager of the former welterweight champion from Vancouver, signed articles with Madison Square Garden.

At the Upper Broadway Hotel where Foster and Jimmy stayed since Barney Ross out-decided the Canadian Celt may 28, it was said they checked out yesterday and left no forwarding address. Matchmaker Jas. Johnston of the Garden was not immediately available for comment.

Brouillard, a middleweight who once held the championship in that class after ruling the welterweights, is like McLarnin a Canadian. He was born at St. Eugene, Que., and now lives in New Haven, Conn.

Canzoneri, Italian veteran of New York's East Side, recently tumbled Lou Ambers of Herkimer, N. Y., to win New York State recognition as successor to the lightweight throne. Ross abdicated two months ago.

HAFÉY QUILTS REDS

CINCINNATI, June 10—Chick Hafey, outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, has taken "French leave" of the club and has departed for his home in California, and probably is out of baseball permanently. Hafey has been ill and unable to play for some time.

Braddock In Great Shape For Title Bout With Baer

LOCH SHELDRAKE, N. Y., June 10—Bill Brown, the fiery member of the New York Boxing Commission, came here to give James J. Braddock the once-over. It was Brown who favored to have the big Jersey boy named No. 1 challenger, automatically clinching the heavy-weight titular shot with Max Baer, which takes place next Tuesday night at the Garden Long Island bowl.

"You look fine, Jim," exclaimed Brown when he looked at the splendid physical specimen before him.

VISITING THE GALLEYS ABOARD THE NORMANDIE

Surprise to Canadians to Learn How This Country Contributes to the Huge French Liner.

To the thousands of eager sightseers who thronged aboard the gigantic new French luxury liner, "Normandie," when she docked in New York harbor, this week after her record maiden crossing of the Atlantic services, few sections of the ship were of more interest than the vessel's kitchen services and cuisine. In view of the high reputation of French chefs among the world's gourmets, every effort was made to have the "Normandie" fulfill, in every respect, the proud traditions of her country's culinary artists.

The galleys can properly be described as magnificent and, in fact, they have been so described repeatedly, during the past few days, by hundreds of visitors. But it may surprise Canadians, at the same time, to learn that the Dominion is no small contributor to the glories of the liner's menus. In the galleys, rows of huge steam kettles, an army of percolators and batteries of warming pots, all shine like silver mirrors. They are made of pure Canadian nickel and several tons were required for the purpose. The refrigerators are encased in monel metal, a natural Canadian alloy. Table tops and other working surfaces, which have a smooth, silvery appearance, are either of monel metal or stainless steel. There seem to be mammoth electric toves and ovens without end aboard this vast ship. Some of them are as much as 60 feet long. Here, too, Canadian industry has played a part in the preparation of the queen of the seas for service, as nickel-chromium alloys have been widely used in their construction.

RED SOX WILL PLAY AT BANGOR NEXT MONTH

Boston Team to Give the Fans in Maine Chance To See Them Perform Against All-Stars.

BANOGH, Me., June 10—Charlie Miller of this city expects to present the Red Sox here on July 15, with a picked team. The Bangor players will be obtained in this city, Greenville, Guilford, Houlton, Milo, Dover, Calais, Dexter, Bucksport and Oldtown.

If plans turn out as outlined by Miller, the American League team and the Bangor team will play at Bass Park.

Excursion trains will be run that day from all parts of eastern Maine and Aroostook, the Maine Central R.R. lines co-operating with Miller in his sporting venture.

BILL BAYLY SHATTERS MILE RECORD RUN

SAINT JOHN, June 10—Running with a smooth, steady stride, Bill Bayly, distance runner of Saint John High, shattered the mile record in the New Brunswick Interscholastic track and field annual Saturday at Rothesay that has stood for a quarter century.

The sensational miler covered the distance in four minutes 49 4-5 secs. to smash the record of four minutes and 47 seconds set by the late William (Tatter) Walsh in 1910. He jumped into the lead at the crack of the gun, increased his pace with every lap and was never challenged at any stage of the trek.

Wholesale Suspensions Threatened in Montreal

MONTREAL, June 10—Nearly all amateur baseball, softball and lacrosse players in this city are threatened with being professionalized.

This is the warning given by James Macdonald, chairman of the Registration Board of the Province of Quebec section of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

He announces that nearly all of the players referred to have failed to register, and that many of them have played with or against professionals, such as Martin Barry, Clarrie Foran, Ewin and others.

Unless they mend their ways at once, they are all going to be thrown out into the outer darkness of professionalism.
