

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

One of the outstanding subscription teas of the season was given yesterday afternoon from four to seven o'clock by the ladies of St. Anthony's church at Devon. The pleasing function was held at the rectory, which the pastor, Rev. Walter J. Donohue, had graciously thrown open to the public for the occasion. Throughout the house the rooms were bright with tulips and ferns and an atmosphere of hospitality added to the enjoyment of the successful function, which was well patronized in spite of the rainy weather. The guests were received in the drawing-room by Mrs. Frank Shortill and Mrs. Charles Barry. Misses Mary McManus, Agnes Hughes ushered. For the first hour Mrs. E. J. Kingsley and Mrs. Hugh Galen poured tea and coffee, and for the second hour Mrs. A. J. McEvoy and Miss Mary Barry, presided at the table which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of red tulips and ivory tapers in silver holders. Mrs. R. McElligott and Miss Irene Murphy replenished, assisted in serving by Miss Carmel McManus, Miss Marjorie Kingsley, Miss Frances McElligott, Miss Frances Stephens, Miss Eileen Chessie and Miss Monica Donohue. The contributions were taken by Mrs. Joseph McManus, and little Miss Shirley Gulliver opened the door. While the guests were enjoying the social cup of tea soft music on the piano was rendered by Miss Nora Bowlen and Miss Mary Stephens and two delightful solos were given by Rev. Donald F. Gillis, curate of the parish. Others who assisted were Miss Kate Sharkey, Miss Kate Holland, Miss Marget Donovan, Mrs. John McGloin, and Mrs. R. Grover. Home-made candy was sold by the Misses Mary McSorley, Annie Bowlen, Patricia Donohue and Agatha Burns. Proceeds of the tea will go to pay for the repairs on the rectory, which has recently been renovated. The Convener of the Tea was Mrs. Frank Shortill.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hughes left by car this morning for Chatham to attend the closing exercises of St. Thomas' College, which are taking place tonight and where their son John is a student. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were accompanied by their daughters Misses Dorothy and Isabel and Jack Ivory.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Douglas and little daughter Christina left by car this morning for Montreal from where they will proceed to Bermuda to spend the summer. They will return to Montreal for the winter.

The Ella Thorne Circle of the King's Daughters held its closing meeting of the season last evening at the home of Mrs. A. C. Young, Lincoln. Before the meeting a delicious picnic supper was attractively served on a screened-in porch. Following supper the regular meeting took place with Miss Gertrude Davis presiding. A devotional period was in charge of Miss Marion Edney and a passage from Mrs. Loidert's message was read by Miss Edith Curll. The president, Miss Davis, gave a hearty vote of thanks to the committee in charge of supper arrangements, namely, Miss Magdalene Scott, Miss Audrey Young, Miss Lillian Randine, and Miss Mary Ferguson. A vote of thanks was moved to those who so kindly offered conveyance.

Professor and Mrs. Byron W. Fleiger were recent guests of Mrs. Fleiger's mother, Mrs. Bettany and Inspector Eettany of the R.C.M.P. at Shediac.

In St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ont., on Saturday afternoon, the marriage was solemnized of Mary Tremaine, elder daughter of Mrs. B. H. Boucher, of North London, and granddaughter of the late Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. Richardson, to Mr. Thomas Edward Arkell, only son of Mrs. S. E. Arkell, also of that city. Very Rev. C. E. Jenkins, Dean of Huron, officiated, assisted by Canon Quinton Warner.

White flowers against a rich background of palms and ferns were used in decorating the chancel and sanctuary for the ceremony. White lilies were arranged on the altar and bridal wreath and white lilacs massed the chancel steps. The service was fully choral, the choir in processional through the nave of the church singing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Boucher, and her cousin, Mrs. Adams Ashforth, of New York. Mr. Charles Main, of Dun-

HON. E. N. RHODES TO RETIRE SOON

GLACE BAY, N. S., June 12—Hon. E. N. Rhodes, federal minister of finance, has informed D. R. Cameron, president of the Nova Scotia Liberal-Conservative Association, that ill-health is forcing him to retire from public life and he will not be able to accept a nomination for the forthcoming federal elections.

"You will recall my personal letter to you of March 25th, in which I confidentially advised you that the state of my health would not permit me to continue in active public life", the minister stated in a letter from Ottawa dated June 5.

ESCAPED INJURY

HARTLAND, Carleton County, June 12—Ward Ginson, proprietor of the M.M.A. store here, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon, when a tire rim broke on the truck he was driving. The truck went over a bank and was considerably damaged, but Mr. Ginson escaped with only minor cuts and bruises.

das, was, best man and the ushers were Mr. Ted Kennedy, Mr. Ogden Richardson of New York, and Mr. Hector Howell of Toronto, both cousins of the bride, and Mr. Adams Ashford, of New York.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Harold Richardson, of New York, wore a strikingly beautiful gown of deep ivory satin, in princess design, the high neckline finished with a modish little turnover collar, and tiny satin buttons adorning the front of the bodice. The skirt flared softly into a long train, over which fell an exquisite woven lace train of old rose point, a family heirloom. The same rich lace bordered the veil of ivory tulle which was arranged under a high coronet of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a showier bouquet of creamy white gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of a similar design, in deep turquoise blue finely tucked chiffon, made on long lines, the skirts flowing into slight trains, the long full sleeves narrowing to the wrist and fastened with tiny matching buttons. Large leghorn hats were worn with trails of tiny French flowers around the crowns. Satin sandals in turquoise blue completed their costumes with which they carried bouquets of Johanna Hill roses. Immediately preceding the bride came the two winsome small attendants, little Miss Patricia Slipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Slipp of Hamilton, and Master Michael Harper, of London. The flower girl was in pale yellow crepe de chine a long Empire frock with a wreath of fresh garden posies in her hair, matching those she carried in her quaint yellow basket, while the page wore a David Copperfield suit of heavy silk linen in the same shade of yellow.

The reception attended by nearly two hundred guests, was held at the Hunt Club. Mrs. Boucher and Mrs. Arkell received with the bride and groom, the bride's mother wearing a modish gown of heavy white crepe with deep shoulder cape of the same material bordered with brown sable. Her hat of brown leghorn was designed with a crown of white violets and she wore a shoulder knot of brightly colored pansies and rosebuds. Mrs. Arkell's gown was of white and navy blue printed chiffon, worn with a navy and white hat and blue shoes. Her flowers were premier roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Arkell left later by motor for a trip through New York State to New York City, the bride travelling in a soft French blue crepe ensemble, with brown button trimming. She wore a smart hat of brown felt and brown shoes and carried a bag in a matching shade of brown. On their return the bride and groom will reside on Talbot street, London.

Among the many out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. Harold Richardson, of New York; Mrs. Leonard Tilley, of Saint John, N. B.; Mrs. Edmund Howell, of Toronto; and Mrs. H. A. K. Drury, of Ottawa, all aunts of the bride; Miss Barbara Richardson, of Montreal; and Mrs. Ogden Richardson, of New York.

GOVERNMENT SUPPORTERS WERE HEARD

Meetings at Barker's Point, Magaguadavic, Taxis River and Stone Ridge.

Four meetings in the interests of the Tilley government were held last night in the halls and schoolhouses at Barker's Point, Taxis River, Magaguadavic and Stone Ridge. Despite the heavy rains which were general throughout the county, the halls were filled to capacity and the enthusiasm of the audiences was great. At Barker's Point C. L. Dougherty, H. A. Smith, of Fredericton, and Robert Armstrong, Barker's Point, were the speakers. They dealt with the issues of the coming election and stressed particularly the policies of the Tilley government and compared them to the promises of the opposition. Harry Harding acted as chairman.

At Taxis River the chief speakers were Donald P. Douglass, new candidate from Stanley, W. J. West, of Fredericton, and Ernest VanDine, Fredericton. Dr. B. H. Dougan, seeking re-election, Harvey, Lee McCutcheon, Fredericton, and W. G. Quinn, Fredericton, were the chief speakers at the meeting at Magaguadavic. They touched on the many accomplishments of the government and Dr. Dougan stressed particularly the agricultural benefits that the government had given the farmers. He pointed particularly to the encouragement given to swine and poultry clubs. Walter Hood acted as chairman.

At Stone Ridge the speakers were Dr. M. L. Jewett, seeking re-election, Millville, Leo F. Cain, Fredericton, and Horace Hanson, Fredericton. Hartley Brewer of Stone Ridge, was the chairman.

University Students Given Preference

Speaking with the Daily Mail today, Dr. Rose declared that the work would take up about three months. He said that he would be in this city for several days making arrangements for his own party. Besides his sub-chief A. C. Freeze, Dr. Rose will take with him G. F. Crocker and Douglas Brown of this city; Albert Edwards of Hartland, and Charles A. Beck, of Hillsboro.

Dr. Rose conferred with Dr. W. J. Wright, the provincial geologist here this morning. Maps and plans already have been one over and everything is in readiness for the summer's project.

James Kelly Guilty On One Count Today

(Continued from Page Eight) grand jury. The defendant objected to seven petit jury members this morning and four new members were called.

One witness, Mrs. Clark, was heard in the Devlin case this morning before adjournment was made until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Devlin, who is without counsel, pleaded not guilty to both counts. He asked that three witnesses be subpoenaed—Murray Curtiss, Wilmet Kelly, and R. C. M. P. constable L. B. Matchett. The alleged thefts occurred at Mrs. Clark's home between January 5 and 15 of this year.

Conductor Was Hurt at McAdam

SAINT STEPHEN, N. B., June 12—J. A. McKinnon, C. P. R. conductor, was struck and seriously injured by train No. 39 last night in McAdam yard. Mr. McKinnon had stepped from a van standing on a side track into the way of the approaching train. He suffered serious head injuries, and was taken to St. Stephen Hospital by special train, accompanied by First Aid Man William Dawson and R. C. M. P. Constable J. Miller.

Hospital officials this morning state his condition to be "fair", and that the full extent of his injuries have not as yet been determined. He was reported to be still unconscious.

DR. CARRINGTON ELECTED BISHOP

Dean of Divinity at Bishop's Univ. Chosen For Quebec Diocese

QUEBEC, June 12—Rev. Dr. Phillip Carrington, dean of divinity at Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Quebec last night was elected bishop of the Anglican diocese of Quebec.

The bishop-elect, chosen at a special meeting of the Synod, will succeed Rt. Rev. Lennox Williams, who announced his retirement recently due to ill-health.

Eight ballots were taken by the more than 175 clerical and lay delegates before they finally agreed upon a choice. Six ballots were taken during the day and two more tonight.

Dr. Carrington's name headed the ballot in each successive vote from the first, but up to the eighth he had not obtained the necessary two-thirds of each of the clerical and lay votes. His selection by the Synod will be confirmed by the House of Bishop at a meeting to be held later.

The bishop-elect was born in Lichfield, England in 1893, and went to New Zealand with his family when he was 10 years of age. He received his early education in New Zealand later attending Cambridge University in England. On his return to New Zealand he was ordained to the ministry at Christchurch.

For four years he was principal of St. Barnabas College in Adelaide. Eight years ago he came to Canada to join Bishop's University at Lennoxville.
