Seems Like This Has To Happen Occasionally

Ring-around-the-rosy will be played and much fun will be had by all who listen to the Columbia Broadcasting System's program tonight, from 10:00 to 10:30 P. M., A. S. T.

The reason is that Gracie Allen and George Burns are going to have servant trouble.

Them as listens in to this program will hear about Matzo. Matzo is the Japanese chauffeur Gracie hired to chauffeur George's car. And is Matzo raising the dickens!

Matzo wants to get married. But the young lady of his dreams, displaying remarkable selfishness, refuses to contribute $1.75 toward a $2 marriage license. So Matzo has taken the drum-and-bugle corps by the horns and gone straight to Gracie.

"Honorable Missy", he declaims, "please to unchange me as auto driving and please to reappoint me muchly with pride as butler in addition to giving raise in amount of money unleashed at my honorable person each weekly".

Gracie's answer will be heard on

Among Other Things

From the Toronto studios of the Radio Commission there frequently comes stories of a doubtful nature. The latest of these is to the effect that ye olde maestro, Geoff. Waddington, renowned as the leader of the orchestra heard on the "Mutually Yours" program, has a habit of cutting to pieces with scissors any and every hat he finds. Ducky little pastime, but once, so 'tis said, Geoff made made alterations on a hat belonging to Charlie Jennings. Whereupon Charlie got Geoff's head-piece and copied the design. Now Canada's best announcer refuses to do the Canadian Press News Bulletins each evening unless he wears Geoff's much lamented lid. Som fon, eh, keed?

Peter Aylen and Horace Brown, whose one hour plays, "Twenty Years After" and "Desert Warrior" went on the air within four days of each other, started in radio work together. They had an organization called "Playwrights" over CNRO, Ottawa, and a network. Both of them are trying hard to forget their early "efforts".

"Show Shop Songs", the popular weekly feature heard during past months over the Commission's eastern network, is now off the air and will not return until the fall broadcasting season arrives. This program was the program, because she is required to prepare briefs in the matter. Preparing briefs is a difficult matter for Gracie, in view of her vast volubility, but she promises she'll get something done.

Ferde Grofe's Orchestra will play. Or maybe you're not reading this.

MICROPHONICS

Three youngsters, whose ages do not total 19, will be guest stars on Uncle Charlie's Tent Show program Sunday, July 14, at 10 p.m., A.S.T., over the NBC red network. They are the De Marco babies, young Italian vocalists, and they're going to be heard along with Conrad Thibault, baritone star of the show, Lois Bennett, Sam and Jerry and the music of Don Voorhees.

Nick Dawson, hero of "Dangerous Paradise", the popular serial heard on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 7.45 p.m., A.S.T. over the NBC blue network, is wandering around the studios these days looking like a lost soul. He says that he'd been worked up to a high point anticipating the marriage of the program's leading characters and when listeners' requests postponed the ceremony he'd felt almost as badly about it as if someone had interfered with his own wedding!

Phil duey, heard on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. over NBC, became a professional singer when he was four years old. Of course he wasn't a baritone then, but had a soprano considered one of the best out of Saint John.

Christopher Ellis, who played the part of "Lawrence of Arabia" so successfully in "Desert Warrior" recently broadcast from CROM, was the father of a bouncing baby boy a week before the play went on the air.

voice that a county road inspector regarded worth a penny to hear every time the boy's father brought him to town.

Wilfred Glenn, the big basso of the Revelers quartette, has finally disclosed what's been taking place during those mysterious-looking confabs with Jack Johnstone, author and director of "Buck Rogers." Glenn, educated as a construction engineer, has been trying his hand at inventing (on paper) something new in tricky gadgets for the Buck Rogers in the 25th Century serial.

Farmhands on Theodore Webb's 192 acre estate at Sharon, Conn., are unsparing in their use of oil now that the Beauty Box Theatre baritone spends most of his time there between his Thursday night NBC broadcasts. If a machine squeaks, Webb is unhappy until he has taken it apart and fixed it.

Max Baer, starring in "Lucky Smith", is serious about a future as a radio and stage star. He spends a lot of time backstage with Garson Kanin, "Beezer" or his air program, while Kanin is playing in the Broadway stage hit, "Three Men on a Horse".

Gogo DeLys recently discovered that Lucy, her colored maid, who also serves as modiste, cook and secretary had been conducting a whispering campaign about her mistress. Every time La DeLys was invited out to dine Lucy, by devious diplomatic methods,

Earle Hill's Band At Banff Springs

Banff Springs, one of Canada's most famous spas, this summer presents from its equally famous hotel, Earle Hill and His Orchestra heard in dance music over the national network of the Canadian Radio Commission commenced July 8, at 1:30 P. M., A. S. T. Earle Hill and His Banff Springs Hotel Orchestra, as the group will be known, is representative of Canada's most outstanding orchestras. Particularly well known in British Columbia and the Prairie Provinces, Hill, who comes from Vancouver, is not unknown in Winnipeg, Manitoba, where he played in a large theatre before the advent of sound pictures.

Radio Plays By C. R. C. Writer Score Hit

Described by Walter Winchell, Broadway columnist, as "another Horatio Alger story", is the news that Ivan Tyler, script writer for the Canadian Radio Commission, has been employed by a large United States radio advertiser to write plays for broadcasting over a network of stations in that country. Commission officials confirmed the report but stated that Tyler will remain in Montreal where he will continue to write plays for the weekly "Summer Follies" program from CROM.

what convey to the host or hostess what her mistress liked to eat . . . and incidentally, a list of the dishes which were not good for her.

Broadcast Of The "Lobster Carnival"

"The Lobster Carnival", one of the most gala and colorful events to take place in the Maritime Provinces this year, will be broadcast over the eastern network of the Canadian Radio Commission and over a chain of stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System tonight, between 8:30 and 9:00 P. M., A. S. T.

Originating in Pictou county, the proceedings will be under the direction of J. Frank Willis, Commission regional director, and will feature the cast of the "Cottars Saturday Night", a weekly program heard in Canada last winter.

Presenting a joyous spectacle of music and song, the carnival broadcast will interpret the lobster industry of these great provinces and listeners will find the program both entertaining and instructive.

Their "Ship" Comes In

More than 5,000 persons jammed St. Petersburg's city park the other day to crowd around a loud speaker. It was not a prize fight they had come to hear, nor a political speech, but Captain Henry's Show Boat program over an NBC-WEAF network. The famous mythical craft was making an imaginary "stop" at the Florida city and the Chamber of Commerce arranged for the citizenry to hear it.

B. A. Rolfe, the rotund maestro of "Circus Nights" says that what this country needs more than anything else is a reliable method of fan reducing. Some more of those get-thin maniacs have been pursuing him, but the jovial B. A. swears he'll live to mourn for them and sticks staunchly to his avoirdupois.

Two of the greatest song writers of the day are writing the songs James Melton will sing in "Thin Air", the movie he starts making in Hollywood July 29. The writers are Dubin and Warren, who have turned out more hit music for the movies than any other pair of song writers to date.

Jesse Block, writing to his Radio City cronies from various spots on his vaudeville tour with Eve Sully, has a new closing for his letters. These missives usually wind up with a gag or two, after which Jesse writes in place of the conventional, "With Best Regards"—"Some Dunces I'll Say!"
