Benny Venuta Pleases

Benay Venuta, Columbia's blond singing star from the West Coast, is the recipient of new honors. She has just been selected for the featured feminine role in Broadway's long-run musical hit, "Anything Goes", playing opposite Billy Gaxton and Victor Moore, commencing the week of July 21. Miss Venuta will replace Ethel Merman, star of Columbia's Sunday night program, "Rhythm at 8", who leaves the cast of the Cole Porter musical and strikes out for Hollywood where she will be featured in Eddie Cantor's forthcoming picture, "Dreamland".

Benay Venuta, a newcomer to the East, is well known on the West Coast musical stage, but in her major role in "Anything Goes" she will enjoy for the first time the thrill of seeing her name in lights in Broadway. Benay was an instantaneous sensation when she made her CBS debut in New York but a few months ago. Ethel Merman will enjoy her first vacation in five years, shopping and loafing for a week before her farewell radio appearance in "Rhythm at 8" on Sunday, July 28.

When Kay Thompson, the "Hit Parade" songstress opens her morning paper she turns first to the weather forecast. If rain is predicted, the "Hit Parade" singer is perfectly happy for her idea of a swell time is to stroll in a shower.

Radio Star Dust

Eddie Guest, as editor of the Welcome Valley Chronicle, has learned a lot about running a weekly newspaper since he went on the air a few months ago in his current radio serial, "From the letters I have received from people who say they know all about the running a weekly like the Chronicle", says Guest, "I could write a text book which would certainly be the last word upon the subject".

Although she is at present non-committal regarding her ambitions, Peter Van Steeden's 9 year old daughter, Margery, has taken the first pace in her orchestra-leader father's footsteps. She's studying the violin under the violin under her fathers' former teacher, Rudolf Luke.

Jack Fulton, now director-vocalist for his own orchestra, doesn't have to keep up a scrap book. An anonymous young woman admirer regularly sends him volumes containing clippings of articles printed about him in every part of the country.

Virginia Verrill's mother, a star of "Pantages Presents", a feature of pioneer Coast broadcasts, is considering a return to radio which would bring the first singing parent and daughter team on the air.

Ray Sinatra, maestro on Barry McKinley's "Dreams Come True" program for the makers of Camay Soap, flew to Hollywood Thursday and flew back Sunday. He went out for a hurried conference with several motion picture maestros who sought his advice on musical arrangements.

Because he wanted to sneak away and lure the furtive fish for a few weeks, Frank Black was planning to call off the string symphony programs

"Mountain Boys" Winning Friends In The Maritimes

A month's tour of Quebec and The Maritimes by Bert Anstice and his famous Canadian Radio Commission Mountain Boys will be extended until September as a result of demands for repeat performances from almost every city and town in which he and his unit have appeared. The Mountain Boys are now in Nova Scotia.

Meeting with unprecedented success everywhere they have appeared, the Mountain Boys, in Sherbrooke, Quebec, were given police protection when more than 400 persons, disappointed because they were unable to gain admission, literally stormed the doors of the theatre where the famous radio group was playing.

Eleven highly accompanied musicians comprise the orchestra, every one of whom can play different instruments. Organized in 1930 as an experiment, the orchestra instantly struck the chord of public appeal and have since then skyrocketed to success whether playing over the radio or on the stage.

For some time Anstice has held the record for fan-mail at Station CFCM and the success of his present tour is an indication that he and his Mountain Boys are becoming even more popular with lovers of mountain music.

for a few weeks. Several New York musical organizations heard of his plans, swamped his office with protest—So Black has had to pass up the piscatorial pastime and stick to his string symphony baton all summer!

World Peace Being Promoted By Radio Believed

Canadian National Telegram
Cincinnati, Ohio, July 5, 1935.
Ottawa, Ontario.

Your program of One Hundred Years of Peace is the most inspiring possible to a world torn with suspicion and avarice. Canada and the United States with the help of the other British Commonwealths and the approval of the Government in England can guarantee the peace of the world if we stand together. Let us stand together against the things that make men fight but be prepared to fight for the right, justice, righteousness and lasting peace. The English-speaking people have it in their power to encourage the whole world to abandon aggression and greed. For the sake of civilization and security of individual liberty we must do this.

Malcolm M. Stewart Chairman, Middlewest Foreign Trade Committee, % Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, Cincinnati.

The program referred to was produced and broadcast by the Commission on July 4, and carried in the United States over networks of the National Broadcasting Company, the Columbia Broadcasting System, and the Mutual Broadcasting System.

How the government helps prospective home owners to build residences without to great financial strain will be explained by Martha Holmes, Federal Housing Administration speaker, over the WABC-Columbia network on Wednesday, July 17, from 1:00 to 1:15 P. M., A. S. T. Miss Holmes will speak from the Marine Barracks at Washington D. C., through the facilities of station WJSV. Music will be provided by the United States Marine Band.

All Italian Program For 'Concert Caravan'

Next on the series of "Concert Caravan" program to be offered by the Canadian Radio Commission from Toronto will be the presentation of all-Italian selections under the baton of Henry Del Greco, recognized as one of the outstanding members of the famous Romanelli musical organizations for many years.

This will be the eighth program in the "Concert Caravan" series, originating in Toronto and will be heard over a coast-to-coast network on Wednesday, July 17 at 10:00 P. M., A. S. T.

Mr. Del Greco has chosen the universally known Rossini overture from "The Barber of Seville" for his opening number to be followed by the "Intermezzo" from "The Jewels of the Madonna", by Wolf-Ferrari.

Other great Italian composers will be represented as follows: "L'Oracolo" by Leonini; "Dance of the Flowers" by Ponchielli; "La Boheme" by Puccini; "Intermezzo" by Mascagni.

The orchestra selections will conclude with Verdi's "Overture" from "La Forza Del Destino".

Associated on the program with Mr. Del Greco, who will undoubtedly prove one of the most popular of the "guest conductors" heard on this feature during the summer, will be an instrumental soloist and two leading vocal artists.

Candidate Named By Conservatives

EDMONTON, July 16—The decision of Perry G. Davies, Conservative, and youngest member of the House of Commons not to stand for re-election in the Federal constituency of Athabasca, gave support yesterday to the

Verdict Accidental Death, Shortill Case

V. A. Ainsworth

V. A. Ainsworth, local manager of the Maritime Electric Co. Ltd., had called and extended sympathy to the Shortill household.

The transformer after removal to the plant had been examined. He had conducted the test by the same volt meter used previously. The reading of the volt meter showed conclusively a breakdown between secondary and primary wires. Witness called it a progressive leakage, starting in at a small leakage and developing. The trouble to the transformer was caused by the lightning storm. He did not believe the trouble was apparent on Friday.

The full voltage was capable of passing into secondary wires.

It might have been by wearing out or by lightning.

Witness would prove how it was caused.

Transformers were inspected once a year, said the witness on question of the acting coroner.

Witness said he assumed that damage to the transformer to be due to lightning but further test will prove whether or not it was leakage of wire. The test will show if there was water in the oil, he said.

candidature of A. Boileau of Edmonton. He was nominated at a Conservative convention here Saturday.
