SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. A. J. Gregory is entertaining at a four table bridge this evening at Acacia Grove in honor of her daughter-in-law Mrs. P. S. Gregory, of Montreal and Mrs. J. Leonard McGregor of Westfield, who are her guests.

The Young People's Society of the Wilnot church featured a Remembrance programme at its regular meeting last evening. The devotional exercises consisted of the singing of "God Bless Our Native Land," the responsive reading of the "I Ams of Christ," and prayer led by Rev. Mr. Bartlett. The programme began with an illustrated description by Bruce Bird of the Canadian War Memorial at Vimy Ridge. Vernon Box spoke on the subject "Why Canada Should Participate in a European War." Two selections, "Then You'll Remember Me," and "Long, Long Trail," were played by George Betty on the euphonium, accompanied by Robyn Bailey. Miss Eleanor Bartlett next addressed the meeting on the theme "Why Canada Should not Participate in a European War." These addresses led to a lively discussion on the question of Canadian neutrality. The young people were divided as to whether Canada should participate in war, but went on record unanimously as opposed to war as an instrument for human good.

Mrs. Alden R. Clark, Douglas Avenue, Saint John, was the hostess at an enjoyable bridge on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Muriel Hickey of Chatham, who is a guest of Miss Clare Broderick. The prize winners were Mrs. Harold N. Springer and Mrs. J. H. Drummie. A special guest prize was presented to Miss Hickey by the hostess. Later refreshments were served when the table was decorated with a silver bowl of bronze chrysanthemums and was lighted by yellow candles in silver candlesticks. Mrs. Douglas G. R. Fowler presided over the coffee cups. The guests were Miss Hickey, Mrs. Harold N. Springer, Mrs. Ralph S. Miller, Mrs. Henry Hollies, Mrs. J. H. Drummie, Mrs. J. R. Hutchison, Mrs. R. H. Paterson, Mrs. Harold Conley, Mrs. Fred Blair, Mrs. Douglas G. R. Fowler, Mrs. Curtis S. Newcomb, Mrs. Allan Hoar and Miss Claire Broderick.

Dr. D. F. W. Porter entertained informally at a buffet supper at his residence, King Street East, Saint John, last evening and afterwards with his guests attended the Armistice ball in the Admiral Beatty Hotel. The table had in the centre a silver bowl of pink and white chrysanthemums and was lighted by pink tapers in silver candlesticks. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. George F. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Porter and Miss Ruth Babb.

The Little Helpers of the Parish church held their annual party on Thursday, Nov. 7th, from 4 to 6 p.m. in the parish hall with Mrs. Frank L. Morgan, secretary, in charge. The meeting opened with Little Helpers Service and an address to the Mothers by Ven. Archdeacon A. F. Bate, followed by a programme consisting of a recitation by Rita Clayton and Mary Bate; piano solo, Freddy Cunningham; step-dance, Jack Morgan; recitation, Margaret Wade; recitation, Byrl Stevenson; song and dances by the Misses Violet and Muriel Darlington and Betty Chase. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served to mothers and children numbering one hundred, bringing another enjoyable party to a close. Mrs. Morgan was ably assisted by several members of the W. A.

The annual fall formal of the University of New Brunswick was held last night in the Memorial Hall with about 150 couples present. A program of sixteen dances and three extras was carried out. During the extra refreshments were served. The chaperones were Mrs. C. C. Jones, Prof. and Mrs. William Argue, Prof. and Mrs. Byron Plegier, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Toole and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wright. The committee in charge of the dance included Robert G. Likely, Alfred C. Dougan, Douglas F. Brown, Gordon A. Rawland and Howard A. Beer. The guests were the undergraduates and their friends.

The St. Paul's Young People's Society held their weekly meeting last evening with a good attendance considering the week-end holiday. The meeting was in charge of Group I, with Miss Jean Kerr in the chair. The different groups discussed several topics such as "Is there any truth in a Proverb?" and "How can we win and hold friendship?" The business meeting was conducted by Mr. Guy Pond. Mr. Pederson, who has taken a trip to his native country, Denmark, gave an interesting illustrated talk on his travels. Pictures taken at the World's Fair in Brussels were shown by Mr. Pederson. He sang several Danish songs including the Danish National Anthem. The recreational period followed, during which a folk dance was played. The National Anthem brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Miss Clare Broderick entertained at tea on Thursday afternoon at the family residence, Orange Street, Saint John, in honor of Miss Harriet Roberts. The guest of honor was presented with a gift of crystal by her friends present. The table, which was centred with pink roses and lighted with pink tapers, was presided over by Miss Muriel Hickey, of Chatham. The guests were Mrs. Margaret Morrow and those who assisted in serving were Miss Katherine Kane, Miss Helen Wilson and Miss Eileen Callaghan.

Miss Margaret Scott, librarian at the Provincial Normal School, and Miss Margaret I. Clark, student at U. N. B., are spending the week-end with Miss Clark's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Clark, West Saint John.

Miss Gertrude Ebbett has returned to the city after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Swin, and Mr. Swin, Doaktown.

Miss Marjorie Kingsley is a guest of Miss Eunice MacGillivray in Saint John.

ing Y. M. C. A. activities and drawing attention to the fact that a fund was in the hands of the Y. M. C. A. "dedicated to the physical education of young people in this city".

A New Approach
Ralph Albrant also spoke, enlarging on the subject of such work and dealing with the problem of boys' work. Boys need adult leaders. They need a place to go and need play under adequate supervision. The problem of young adults is an even more important one. An energetic group of men is needed to assist in this work. It was his hope, the speaker pointed out, to teach intelligent games to the young, to institute a social consciousness. The aim is to get away from the silly games, formerly used in such work. The fact that Dramatic Appreciation will be taught is a trend towards a more sincere form of training for youth.

Others who spoke last evening included W. K. Tibert, Major I. B. Rouse, R. B. VanDine, and Reginald Murray.

The Y. M. C. A. is starting regular physical classes for all boys of the city between the ages of ten and fifteen years. The ten-to-twelve-year group starts on November 11 and the thirteen-to-fifteen-year group starts on November 12. Classes will be started later for boys over fifteen years of age, pending a suitable place for the training. It is planned to utilize the Fraser Memorial Hall and the Brunswick Street Baptist church hall for the purpose.

WHEN "GATHERED TOGETHER!"

NOVEMBER 11

(This beautiful bit of verse was written by Mrs. Josephine Sept. of Medicine Hat, Alberta, formerly Josephine Turner of Bible Hill, N. S. It was written three years ago, was recited by the composer at the Medicine Hat Legion's banquet last November, and was one of the four poems of Mrs. Sept which the Provincial Command had mimeographed and sent to all branches of the Legion in Alberta, for last November.

Wear a poppy on Remembrance Day. Back with memory let your heart stray Back to enlistments, praisings and cheers, Back to the misery of war-crazed years.

Wear a poppy, made by men You prayed for, and praised so gladly when They left their loved ones, home, and all, To bravely answer their country's call.

Wear a poppy in memory Of returned heroes of the sea, Nurses, soldiers, men of the air, The grieving thousands bowed in prayer.

Wear a poppy and with bowed head, In His name and the name of the dead, The maimed, and thousands still in pain, Pray the sacrifice be not in vain.

Mrs. Sadie Williams entertained at bridge last evening in honor of Mrs. Walter Ryan. The prizes were won by Mrs. Hazel Heron and Mrs. Beecher Hovey. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Parker, Miss Pauline Hazlett and Mrs. Winslow Clark.

Mrs. Jas. H. Conlon of Saint John, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. H. Farrell for the past few days, returned to her home this afternoon. Mrs. Conlon was accompanied to Saint John by her husband, who has lately been appointed Publicity Counsellor for the New Brunswick government.

EGG LAYING CONTEST

The first week of the 16th New Brunswick Egg Laying Contest conducted at the Dominion Experimental Station here, started November 1, 1935 and concluded on November 7th, with a production of 262 eggs and 215.8 points. This is an average production of 15.5 per cent. Twenty-four pens are entered in the contest but some of the birds arrived after the commencement of the contest so the production obtained is very satisfactory. All of the pullets entered in the
