

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Chief Justice and Mrs. J. H. Barry entertained at dinner on Saturday night in honor of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Murray MacLaren. Covers were laid for twelve.

The table was appointed in green and gold in keeping with the season and covered with pale green damask. The floral centre piece, a most artistic creation, was in the form of a miniature flower-bed of mauve Iris with a border of heliotrope and mignonette. A candelabrum bearing gold candles was placed at each end of the table. The favors to the ladies were small corsage bouquets of heliotrope and to the gentlemen, white carnations for boutonnières. Those present were His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Murray MacLaren, The Chief Justice and Mrs. J. H. Barry, The Right Honorable the Countess Ashburnham, Mrs. J. H. Richardson, Honorable Mr. Justice and Mrs. C. D. Richards, Chancellor and Mrs. C. C. Jones, and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George E. Ross.

Miss Margaret Richards, daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. C. D. Richards, entertained charmingly at the tea-hour on Saturday in honor of Miss Margaret MacLaren, daughter of His Honor Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Murray MacLaren. The table was centred with a bowl of pink and rose tulips with fuchsia and ivory candles in silver candlesticks. Little Miss Dorothy Claridge opened the door, Mrs. T. C. Barker invited the guests to the dining room where Mrs. Kenneth Golding presided over the tea-cups. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. George McAvity, Miss Phyllis McCaffrey, Miss Christina Howie, Miss Marjorie McMurray and Miss Nancy Chellis served. About fifty guests were present.

Francis D. Murphy, well-known Moncton barrister, is expected to arrive here to attend the funeral tomorrow morning of William P. Grannan.

On Saturday evening, a number of boys and girls who have been attending a dancing class taught by Miss Binky Bebbington and chaperoned by Mrs. H. W. Woods at the Cathedral Hall, met for the closing which took the form of an informal dance. The music was furnished by Harold Hughes and the extras by the Misses Eileen Oliver and Elizabeth Bebbington. At eleven o'clock a delicious supper was served, Mrs. Woods being assisted by Mrs. Harold Logan, Mrs. D. E. Crowe and Mrs. H. S. Wright. The hall was prettily decorated and the evening proved enjoyable.

The Alumnae of the University of New Brunswick entertained the Junior and Senior girls of the University at a charmingly arranged dinner bridge on Saturday evening at the Queen Hotel. There were about seventy-five present, the guests being received by the president of the Alumnae, Mrs. Burdette Harmon and the vice-president, Mrs. J. Brown Maxwell. Dinner was served at eight in the dining room which was very attractive with mauve and yellow tulips and narcissus on each table. The favors were in the form of bouquets of narcissus for the graduates and yellow and mauve tulips for the Alumnae. A very interesting feature of the dinner was presented by the president of the Senior class, Miss Frances Crocker, who called upon each of the graduates in turn and introduced them to the Alumnae.

Bridge was played after dinner and the prizes were won by Mrs. J. B. Crocker, for the Alumnae and Miss Mary VanWart and Miss Isabelle Smith for the students.

ANNUAL INSPECTION

The annual inspection of bulls used in breeding purposes under the Department of Agriculture, is now being carried on by the local department. M. P. Harris, assistant livestock superintendent, is in charge of the work in this section of the province. This inspection and grading of bulls is a regular yearly activity carried on by the department. It is the custom to give an annual bonus to the Agricultural Societies who purchase these bulls.

FIRE BETWEEN FLOORS

Fire which worked its way between the floors caused some little damage at the residence of Miss Daisy Niles, York street, on Saturday evening. The fire was extinguished without serious damage, however, and was caused by a hot pipe. Another fire occurred at the home of Douglas Scammell, Saunders street on Sunday evening, also resulting from a hot pipe. Damage was slight.

LATE FLASHES

VALETTA, Malta, March 4.—The big British submarine Oxley with a fire in her engine room, succeeded in reaching shelter in the ice of Tunis Bay today.

CHANGTEH, Hunan Province, China March 4.—Reliable reports reaching here from Tayung today stated the National Government's force launched a heavy attack upon Red troops in that area.

PARIS, March 4.—The Rome-bound express from Paris, carrying 150 passengers, narrowly escaped disaster today when a 1,000-ton avalanche of snow missed it by inches.

QUEBEC, March 4.—A stay of execution from April 12 to May 17, has been granted Rosario Blodeau, sentenced to hang for the murder of Octave Fiset, local postal official.

TORONTO March 4.—Toronto police officers will not strike, Mayor James Simpson said today after a meeting of the board of police commissioners. The mayor said an amicable settlement was about to be reached and the strike is off.

BUCHAREST, March 4.—The Rumanian Government today barred further imports from the United States, Japan, Norway and Latvia.

"Pancake Syrup is Just Plain Liquor

BRANTFORD, ONT., March 4.—George Woodley's pancake syrup is not pancake syrup, the court here ruled Saturday. Woodley was arrested a week ago for possessing intoxicating liquors without a permit. Woodley claimed it was a special pancake syrup concocted from potato water, a potato and other ingredients. He was fined $100 but was not in court and a bench warrant was issued.

Bluebloods Admonished by Her Majesty

ty. Take the case of an ambitious show girl who was made love to by one of the royal brothers.

She was pretty but brainless—and understood little about the British constitution. Because an English prince had presented her with an apartment in London, she actually thought she would one day step on to the British throne and wear a crown! The gallantry of her royal lover stupefied her even more. She retained all his letters and then calmly applied to other members of the royal family for "loans and introductions to help her stage career".

The outcome was a visit by detectives and a hurried bustle to the docks. The ambitious young lady was unofficially deported. Because the step had come by royal mandate, no redress, appeal or trial was possible.

Amateur Status of Fred Perry

NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—The question of Fred Perry's amateur standing was in greater doubt than ever today. England's battle to retain their No. 1 tennis racketeer in the "illy-white" class received another body blow with the report France had joined with America in endorsing the present rules with regard to moving picture appearances of tennis players.

The U. S. L. T. A. was joined by the French Lawn Tennis Association in frowning upon the suggestion made by Czechoslovakia, and endorsed by England, that players be permitted to receive pay for tennis action-pictures.

APPEARS THIS AFTERNOON

Harry Bailey Broad, accused with having a revolver in his possession without a permit, and also of theft from a local store, was scheduled to appear before the Police Magistrate Walter Limerick this afternoon in continuation of his preliminary hearing. Broad asked for trial by jury last week. P. J. Hughes, K. C., who has just recently arrived home from Ottawa and is conducting the prosecution this afternoon.

SCOUT NEWS

On Friday, Commissioners Pugh and Good and Rover Scout Ed. Perkins visited Nashuaak Bridge, where they found some boys away with colds, but progress otherwise satisfactory.

On Sunday morning, a fair number of the Devon Community Scouts and Cubs attended evening service with Commissioner Pugh and Cubmaster Crouse at the Advent Church. They were welcomed by Mr. Rebman, who included the Scout Movement and what it stands for, in his address. On Monday evening, at the Parish Hall, Cubmaster Manchip and the Third Fredericton Pack held a banquet to celebrate Lord Baden-Powell's birthday. There was a very good attendance and the boys looked after the serving. At the close, they were addressed by Field Worker Pugh and District Scoutmaster F. Barnes, on service, and preparations for the Chief Scout's visit to Saint John.

Fourth Fredericton Pack are carrying on well during the absence of their Cubmaster, Harold Doherty, under the instructors. We are glad to say that Doherty is making quick progress towards recovery.

We have been asked by Joseph Guss Provincial Secretary of Saint John, to watch the Telegraph-Journal from now on, with a view to obtaining helpful information about the Chief Scout's coming visit.

We have received the following from Edmundston, dated 23rd February: "Just a few lines to let you know of the progress of the Evangeline Group.

"First I have sent the forms, etc., for charter and certification. I have registered thirty-two Scouts who have passed their Tenderfoot, some of them Second and First Class Tests, and have made their Scout Promise; twenty-four Cubs and nine Rovers and leaders. The Evangeline Group now consists of fifty Scouts, one Scoutmaster and three assistants; Evangeline Pack, twenty-four Cubs, Cubmaster and the assistant; nine Rovers and one Rover Leader.

I have started the Immaculate Conception Troupe, which consists of eight English boys and one English boy Patrol Leader, transferred from the Evangeline Troupe and the Scoutmaster and Assistant from the Rovers.

We have also formed a second French Wolf Cub Pack, which consists of eight Tenderpods, and two Cubs taken from the First Pack at their first sixer and second sixer. Cubmaster and Assistant Cubmaster from the Rovers. You will see by this that the Rovers are doing good work in the troop. These boys are between the ages of eighteen and twenty. They joined the Evangeline Troupe in 1932 and are fully qualified, and have the true Scouting spirit.

This is my best effort for the birthday of the Chief Scout. These troops and packs will be to full strength in about three months.

Yours in good Scouting,
J. L. ST. ONGE."

The second session of the Patrol Leaders Training Course was held at the Parish Hall on Tuesday. Lecture Sessions were in charge of District Scoutmaster F. Barnes and Cubmaster Manchip, the Scoutmaster's Five Minutes being taken by Commissioner Good, games by Field Worker Pugh and closing by Scoutmaster Cyril Barnes. Four new candidates are joining bringing up the total to twenty-four; these will work in four patrols.

We have received from the C. P. R. maanger at Budapest, a letter throwing some sidelights on the progress of Canadian Hockey in the Hungarian capital. At the time of the 1933 Jamboree, Mr. Pugh was asked by Mr. Kovacz, to try and get a senior student from a Canadian University to come over to Budapest under the auspices of the C.P.R., to act as instructor at the rink there. This rink is in the open, and is frozen by artificial means. Last year, we sent over Mr. Dewar, a senior of Toronto University. Writing on February 7, from Budapest, Mr. Kovacz says:

"I can imagine how greatly you regretted not being able to take part in the Australian Jamboree, which must have been a fine gathering. Knowing, however, the Boy Scouts' great abilities, you will soon find a good compensation in taking part in the Jamboree somewhere else in the near future.

London to Sell Shakespeare Sets

LONDON, March 4.—A rare set of the first four folio editions of Shakespeare's plays, printed 300 years ago, were scheduled today to be put up for auction on March 5.

Last year a similar group of folios were sold to Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach Philadelphia collector, for $85,750.

The books up for auction are owned by the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. The books are uniformly bound in blue leather with panelled sides.

HALIFAX, March 4.—Halifax City's tax rate for 1935 was struck today at 3.56, a rise of 16 mills over last year's rate.

It was really very good of you to recommend your Skinny Dewar to me. He was indeed a very nice boy and was liked by everybody here. He spent some three months here last winter and his stay must have been a very great experience for him. I feel sure that at the end, he left for home with lots of nice memories. I must say, he was a very, very nice and clever young man, who in every respect deserved your recommendation.

Here and there, I am trying to arrange for some Canadian invasion. Last winter we had the Saskatoon Quakers Ice Hockey Team here for some days, and, some weeks ago, the Winnipeg Monarchs. Every game, naturally, they finished with wonderful victories. The Hungarian boys are getting onto it and were improved a lot after Deyar's good work. Of course they are still pretty far from Canada."

The 3rd Fredericton Parish Church Pack had a "B.P." birthday banquet, in honor of the Chief, last Monday. Commissioner Pugh, Cubmaster Manchip, Scoutmaster Cyril Barnes and District Scoutmaster Fred Barnes addressed the boys. Five Rovers and 31 Cubs were present and the meal was prepared and served by the Cubs themselves. The boys are looking forward and preparing for the New Brunswick Scout and Guide Jamboree at Saint John May 31st to June 3rd. The 8th Fredericton Wilmot troop are putting on an entertainment in the Wilmot vestry on Monday, 4th March to raise troop funds.

dicament has always faced a pilot arriving in Fredericton he argued. Mr. Hickson arrived here late Saturday afternoon and after circling the city a few times landed in the Saint John river. "It is a fortunate thing that the St. John river affords a natural landing site," declared the Fredericton boy.

While in the city Mr. Hickson took a number of passengers up for brief flights, including his brother "Billy", for whom it was the first time. "Billy" described the peculiar sensation to a reporter of the Daily Mail and added that, unlike his brother, he has no ambitions that way.

The Fairchild plane battered against a fierce March wind today in its return flight to Montane, Quebec.

Mr. Hickson is engaged this winter in transporting passengers across the St. Lawrence Gulf to Anticosti Island and is employed with a private company, of which R. E. Faquier is the manager.

Demented Family Wreck Their Home

Tortona, Italy, March 4.—Torre Gaideri, his wife and their three children all became violently insane here yesterday. The demented family immediately started to wreck their home, breaking furniture, windows and dishes.

Neighbors, alarmed at their strange actions, summoned gendarmes, who after a fierce struggle placed the family in straight-jackets.

They were forthwith committed to an asylum.
