YORK-SUNBURY HIST. SOCIETY PLAN UNVEILING

Snowshoe Tramp To Be Honored Sept. 26

Half Holiday Suggested

bers of Government, Others Will Attend

LATE MRS. B. W. FOX

Shediac, will preside at the gathering and it is hoped that His Honour the Lieutenant Governor will be prosent as well as members of the provincial government and officials of the St. John Historical Museum. A half holiday for stores and schools on Thursday, Sept. 26th, was suggested, and it was proposed that all school children assemble at Phoenix Square and march to the site of the monument, headed by a band. Quite naturally, it is expected that militia units, or representatives thereof, will take a prominent part in the afternoon's proceedings, honoring New Brunswick heroes who did their bit when our county was threatened with invasion. The Society will be glad if all descendants of veterans of the old 104th Regiment will communicate with Sterling Brannen. 148 Argyle ISt. Fred. Regiment will communicate with Sterling Brannen, 148 Argyle St., Fredericton, stating full names and addresses, and mentioning names of veterans to whom related.

ADDITIONAL EXHIBIT

A wonderful exhibit to the York— Sunbury Historical Society Museum has been received from Mrs. Crewdson. It is the seat of a doctor's sleigh that was in use over a hundred years ago. The seat has a very straight open back composed of frame fittings open back composed of frame fittings and seventeen spindles, some of which are over two feet in length. Underneath the seat is a door opening upwards which gives access to the repository for the doctor's hard case. Architecture in sleighs evidently had a produced much hard way in those days. not made much headway in those days and the strange contraption gives us a fair idea of what things were like at We are well equipped to serve you. that far-off time. The sleigh from which the seat was taken belonged to a Doctor Coombes who practiced in the district on both sides of the river above Fredericton.

The York-Sunbury Historical Society executive met last evening in the museum upstairs in the post office building, and transacted considerable business in connection with their booth at the exhibition and the unveiling, probably on Sept. 26th, of the memorial to the men of the old 104th New Brunswick Regiment. The Society will this year have a most attractive booth at the exhibition with intensely interesting articles on view, mcluding the Muster Roll of the old 104th N. B. Regiment which made the historic snowshoe march from here to Quebec in 1813.

A letter of condolence is to be forwarded to the family of the late William Tufts, New Maryland, Mr. Tufts having been actively identified with the Society.
