N. B. SPECIAL
NON RESIDENT
DEER LICENSE

A special Non-Resident Deer Hunting License in the Province of New Brunswick will be available for $10.00 for the coming autumn, according to an announcement issued today by Hon. F. W. Pirie, Minister of Lands and Mines.

"This Special Deer License", said Hon. Mr. Pirie today, "has been made in order to stimulate sporting trade. Formerly a good many non-resident sportsmen who would otherwise have visited New Brunswick have gone elsewhere on account of our high license fees. While the new arrangement may or may not make any substantial change in direct revenue accruing to the Provincial Treasury, it certainly will prove advantageous to a large number of our people. When we can offer a popular license at a popular price the sporting fraternity are bound to take advantage of its benefits in increasing numbers. More sportsmen will come to the game areas of this Province and consequently the guides and outfitters, and those associated with them in their activities, will profit to a greater degree than heretofore. While on this note, it should be remembered that all revenue accruing from the sportsmen is essentially new revenue".

FROM SEPT. 15 TO NOV. 30.

This Special Non-Resident Deer License will permit the taking of two deer and two bears. The season will extend from September 15th to Nov. 30th.

The regular $25.00 Non-Resident Deer License will still be available permitting the taking of two deer, two bears, ducks and partridge in open season.

"While we are making a bid for increased sporting trade", stated Hon. Mr. Pirie, "we are not exploiting our game resources at the risk of extermination. Reports from guides and game wardens of the Department of Lands and Mines have indicated that red deer are on the increase within our boundaries".

YOUR HAT

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 30 — "It's your hat. You don't know how to act with your hat. You're not a complete gentleman at all and you don't have good manenrs because you don't know anything about hats. I'm ashamed of you", scolded the dimutive girl as she looked up into the flushed face of her tall escort, as they ascended in a department store elevator.

"You don't have to remove your hat in a public elevator, Toots", replied the big fellow, trying to speak in a whisper, "and besides, if I take off my hat here and hold it in my hands it'll only be smashed like a pancake. Want my hat smashed like a pancake?"

"Well, no", pouted the lovely girl, "I don't want your hat smashed like a pancake, but you really should take it off your head in any elevator".

"All right", acquiesced the big fellow, removing his hat and holding it gingerly abait his left shoulder.

At the sixth floor, just as everything seemed to be tranquil and peaceful, the girl looked at the big fellow and said:

"That reminds me. Last night you forgot to tip your hat to me when you said good night. You just kissed me and sort of waved. That wasn't gentlemanly either, was it?"

That was the straw that broke the camel's back. The big fellow jammed his hat on his head, looked down into the lovely eyes of the cunning girl and almost roared:

"How can I kiss you properly with my hat in my hand if that's the way you want it, it's okay with me. But I know lots of other girls who don't give a darn about a fellow's hat while being kissed".

war and their uncertainty, the years of depression which followed it and the years of prosperity, the greatest Canada ever knew in the late 1920's. He saw no reason why that prosperity should not return but whether or not it should be dependent on the clearness with which the people of Canada came to see what lay behind the word "Whither".

measures, by whatever party they may be advocated, which tend in the direction of Hitlerism, Fascism or Communism. In Canada, we want, and we need, none of these.

"What we want and need, above all else, is an entirely different spirit in all matters of government than the one to which we have been obliged to grow accustomed; not the spirit of the autocrat, at home and abroad, but the spirit of brotherhood, in seeking the solution of our domestic problems and the spirit of neighborhood in our relations with other nations. We have been living too much under a reign of terror.

"Instead of blasting our way, which we have been doing for the past five years let us pursue our way, doing unto others as we would have them do unto us. It is a wholly different method, but surely it is the one which above all others, will best answer our own and the world's need".
