UNDER YOUR HAT

In trying to get along in the world, men frequently blame "society" for their own shortcomings.

Into our office not long ago came a young man looking for employment. He was hatless. It was not that he could not afford a hat. He was one of many who thought it was smart not to wear a hat.

It was dumb.
 What business house would ever think of sending out a representative whose mental plane was plainly established by the silly hatless craze? One of the contributing causes of the hatless habit is the fact that now and then a girl tells a glibly youth that he has "pretty hair." He then cringes at such a compliment.

In winter the hatless get themselves painful and costly sinus trouble. In summer they get head and eye ailments.

Yes, Indians went without hats. Are we Indians? They went without socks, too. Most of them went without baths.

What brought up all this comment is the fact that this is straw hat time and we hope the stores sell many new hats. Why? Because they advertise with us? Yes, in part, but chiefly because we should all wear hats, and, secondly, if many hats are sold, many men and women will continue to have employment in the industry.

LEST WE FORGET

"Lest We Forget" is the name of a picture. We have not seen it but from what we have been told it is one that should be seen by every person. Sponsored by the Canadian Legion, and made in co-operation with the Government of Canada, "Lest We Forget" is an honest attempt to tell the real truth about the Great War.

The picture is designed to be educative. It is not entertainment. Were it possible to show this picture to every civilized human being in the world, we venture there would be, temporarily at least, no war talk.

Wars are made possible by the ignorance of the mass of the people. Wars are sold to the people on display. Military, naval, aerial reviews are pictured in their peacetime smartness. The swish of kilts, the beat of drums, the brightness of the military band, the body building physical training given to the troops, the massiveness of heavy artillery, the majesty of battleships, the grace of aircraft, the mathematical precision of field guns, the spiciness of huge training camps, the finely groomed members of the government, he said, horses, are the war maker's bait that is alluring to young and old. There is nothing horrible in the instruments of war apart from the receiving end. But the receiving end—would that it set forth in its true light!

"Lest We Forget" is an attempt to bridge this gap. It is an honest effort to make people really and truly conscious of the horrorfulness of this legalized and massed murdering that we designate, at times, lightly as "war."

Canada is a young, growing, virile nation. We are not great, numerically, but we have a strength that is given world recognition. The attempt to make Canadians appreciative of the real truth of war is a real contribution to world peace.

FIRST OF NEW BRUNSWICK'S INDUSTRIES STILL ACTIVE

One of New Brunswick's first industries, trapping, is still carried on but the close of the season at the end of April, shows a falling off from former years in the case of weasel, otter, marten, skunk, muskrat and return.

red fox and a slight increase for wild cats and mink. Muskrats show the greatest decrease. A decrease was also registered at the close of the 1934 season when 18,589 muskrats were taken as against 25,354 for 1933, according to the Fish and Game Department of the Canadian National Railways.

The House of Iniquity is becoming more of a talk than the House of Mystery. It is situated farther up town. They say that this is where the "shake downs" take place.

Speaking about public meetings being well attended the writer asked the late Alby Grass one day about a meeting held at Maugerville at which he and the late George Perley, M.P.P. were to have been the speakers. The night was stormy, and no person showed up except the two speakers. Mr. Grass was equal to the occasion in giving the report to the press. He said: "It was a large and respectable meeting. Mr. Perley was large and I was respectable." Mr. Perley, it might be explained weighed over 200 pounds.

Illustrating how far the thing has gone, a local shopper purchased a roll of cellophane Saturday and it was wrapped in cellophane.

Dysart and York County Men Heard

"Ask the government why they cut labor wages 50 to 200 per cent and only deducted 2 1-2 to 10 per cent. from salaries of government employees and then postponed the deduction of the latter for six months", said Mr. Durling.

J. B. McNair, Fredericton, declared that on the 27th of June York County is going Liberal. "It will be a victory for the county, not for the candidates", he said.

He attacked the government for taking away the voting franchise of the men on the Federal relief project and said that the "miserable stipend of 20 cents a day", would not take them home to vote.

He accused the present administration of repudiating all the principles of representative government established by our forefathers.

Hon. A. A. Dysart

Hon. Mr. Dysart, the leader, declared that the Tilley has been driven from cover. He has set an alltime record, being the third premier under one field guns, the spiciness of huge training camps, the finely groomed members of the government, he said, he did not speak of them as men. "As men they are fine fellows. But I speak of them as trustees of the people", said Mr. Dysart.

Mr. Dysart attacks the methods the government used in dealing with the Grand Falls Hydro, Old Age Pensions and said that there were too many unfulfilled promises.

"Our party is made up of the best brains in the province and we are going to put old age pensions into force", said Mr. Dysart.

In reply to the Conservatives queries as to how they were going to do all these things, he said that they would be brought about by greater economies.

He attacked the reorganization of the Provincial Hospital by the government, saying that there is, about $250,000 shortage in this work. "We do not say that it was stolen, but we would like to know where it went", he said. "All these things will be investigated after June 27th", he added.

He said that Mr. Tilley's claim of stabilizing the price of eggs was just an election dodge and attacked the Compensation Board saying that it is on the verge of bankruptcy.

These problems can be solved and we will solve them", said Mr. Dysart in conclusion.

CARAQUET, Gloucester Co., May 28—Dr. W. H. Coffyn, M.L.A., Bathurst; George Hache, Beresford; Martin J. Robichaud, Shippegan; and A. J. Witzell, Tracadie, were selected as Gloucester county candidates for the Conservative party in the provincial election at a nominating convention held in the parish hall here this afternoon. Other names before the meeting were those of Albert Robichaud, Lamèque, who withdrew his name, and Jean Paul Chiasson, Lamèque. Charles Poirier, Caraquet, and Joseph S. Dumas Grand Anse.

Dr. Coffyn obtained 73 votes, Mr. Hache 57 votes, Mr. Robichaud 60 votes, Mr. Witzell 68 votes, Mr. Chiasson 19 votes, Mr. Dumas 17 votes, and Mr. Poirier two votes. Mr. Chiasson moved a resolution to adopt the choice of the four candidates unanimously. A. V. Landry, Caraquet, was chairman and Albany M. Robichaud, Bathurst, secretary.

All four candidates addressed the convention, expressed their appreciation of the honor and pledged their support to the government party. Other speakers were Premier Tilley and Hon. A. J. Leger, provincial secretary treasurer.

Premier Tilley stated that previous to establishing the Forest Operations Commission men were working in the woods at an average wage of $12 to $18 monthly. The Commission had forced the operators to pay the men a minimum of $32 monthly and in cases where they were unwilling to do so they were compelled to fall in line. He stated that he had received a report from his office this morning that 500 men were getting the difference between $25 and the minimum set, $32 monthly.

U. S. Supreme Court Upsets N. R. A. Code

over-working and under-paying labor". In one high and informed quarter it was said the decision was "a complete defeat" for the new deal.

Hurried conferences at the White House and congress shed little light on the future. On all sides responsible officials and legislators asked for time to study the words of the court.

Equally shaken and in confusion were the heads of the code authorities—boards named by the industries to administer the codes. They urged deliberation.

Reading slowly and with emphasis, Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes marked out the two main counts against the NRA. At one point he said:

"Extraordinary conditions may call for extraordinary remedies, but the argument stops short of attempting to defend action outside of constitutional authority.

"Extraordinary conditions do not create constitutional power".

The House of Representatives ways and means committee, in charge of now-doomed administration plans for extending NRA for two years in much its old form, met almost immediately but adjourned with nothing accomplished. Its chairman, Charles Dought of North Carolina, asserted: "It will require careful study".

SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Patsi Rocco and Tony Daniels, Italian Miners, Sent To Dorchester Penitentiary By Mr. Justice LeBlanc, Presiding in Queens County Circuit Court Monday.

Twenty five years in Dorchester penitentiary were imposed yesterday in the Queens county circuit court sitting, on Patsi Rocco and Tony Daniels Italian mine workers of Black Diamond, into, who were convicted of manslaughter in the death of George Madoore, a fellow miner. Sentences were imposed by Mr. Justice LeBlanc at an adjourned sitting yesterday.

Madoore was stabbed with a knife during a scuffle on the "shaft road" at the Black Diamond mine on the night of Sept. 8 and died the following day. Both Rocco and Daniels were charged originally with the murder of Madoore and a true bill was returned against each last week. On May 22, Rocco was convicted and when court resumed following the week-end recess, Daniels pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter.

Before Daniels was asked to plead, R. P. Hartley, K.C., Fredericton, deputy attorney general, moved that the charge of murder be amended and reduced to that of manslaughter. This was agreed to by Mr. Justice LeBlanc, and Daniels pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Mr. Hartley asked that leniency be shown the accused, who had no previous police record. Mr. Hartley and C. L. Dougherty, Fredericton, appeared for the Crown, and Warren G. Brooks, Gagetown, was counsel assigned to the accused.

In passing sentence, His Honor addressed the prisoner: "There is abundant evidence that you are guilty of murder. You have escaped by a hair's breadth, the only thing that permits you to escape the gallows is that Madoore hit you with a bottle. There is evidence of provocation and that you acted in self-defence."

Both prisoners were returned to Queens county jail, where they are allowed by law to remain 30 days, pending an appeal, before being taken to the penitentiary.
