Next to Kileel's Shoe StoreAt the farewell reception and tea being given by the Women's Canadian Club of Montreal, in the Windsor Hotel next Friday afternoon, in honor of the Countess of Bessborough, Her Excellency will say a few words to the members in both English and French.Hundreds of Anglicans paid their respects to the Most Reverend Derwyn T. Owen, Archbishop of Toronto and Primate of All Canada, and to the Right Rev. L. Ralph Sherman, Bishop of Calgary, and Mrs. Sherman, when they received in the round room of the Paliser Hotel, Calgary, one evening last week. Mrs. A. E. Cross, president of the Calgary Diocesan of the Woman's Auxiliary, received with them. Mrs. Sherman wore a trailing model of dark brown cut velvet made with a V decolletage with a bouquet of gardenias; Mrs. Cross wearing a Baby Now LivingLOS ANGELES, Sept. 24—A baby "technically dead" for 79 hours and 57 minutes after birth appeared to be enjoying excellent health today.

The son of Mrs. Court Manzat did not begin to breathe at birth. Fire department squads worked on him with an inhalator in six-hour shifts until his lungs started functioning.Snow Hinders Hunt For Missing FlierANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 24—A deepening blanket of snow spread over northern Alaska today, threatening to end for the winter any possibility of solving the strange disappearance of Pilot Arthur F. Hines with his airplane and three passengers.Aviators arriving here told of the snowfall in the area between Dawson and Fairbanks where Hines' ship-bearing Alton Nordale and Mr. and Mrs. John Lenz, all of Fairbanks, vanished a month ago.THE LATE GEROME SMITH Gerome Smith, 84, passed away at

Mail.GATEWAYS ARE NEW MARITIME
CHAMPIONSST. STEPHEN, Sept. 23—Yarmouth Gateways tonight were the newly-crowned champions in Maritime senior baseball.A ninth inning rally that filled the sacks and a double by Halley Horton which scored the three runners ended the four-year reign of the St. Stephen-Milltown Kiwanis in the fourth of the Maritime finals here this afternoon.
The final score was 3-1. The victory gave the Gateways three of the four and the title.The Gateways left tonight for St.
John on the first stage of their journey home with the Kyslop trophy, emblematic of the Maritime championship, tucked away.Today's was the victory that brought the Yarmouth nine their first title in six years. They were Maritime champions in 1929. It was also a great victory for Copie LeBlanc, southpaw finger and ace of the Gateways, for at last he had beaten the Kiwanis on their home diamond.LeBlanc and Roy Boles staged a hurling duel up to the first of the ninth when the latter got in difficulty and retired in favor of Brownell.ASK $100,000 FOR ADVERTISINGMONTREAL, Sept. 24—A resolution urging the Dominion government to make an appropriation of $100,000 for publicity in the Canadian daily newspapers to promote the domestic consumption of fish, was unanimously approved here at the one-day convention of the Canadian Fisheries' Association.The Association claimed necessity for such action was shown in that the Dominion government was obliged to meet demands for relief among thousands dependent upon the fishing industry throughout the country. Should the government embark upon such a publicity campaign the association is willing to contribute in a reasonable degree "predicated upon its economic ability."RECONSTRUCTION CANDIDATE HEARDHILLSBORO, Albert Co., Sept. 24—At largely attended meetings at Middlesex and Parkindale last night, Paul B. Cross, Reconstruction candidate for the St. John-Albert riding, opened his Albert county tour. Mr. Cross charged that the reason farmers were receiving low prices for their produce was "manipulations by large corporations." He said his party was pledgedBuchanan's
