

JUNE FRESHET SPEEDS UP PULP WOOD DRIVES

Steady Rise In River Level in the Past 24 Hours

7 Feet Above Low Level

Port Royal Pulp & Paper Co. Delay Big Drive Until Autumn

A mild June freshet which has occurred in recent weeks and which has raised the water steadily at this point has enabled greater haste in the various pulpwood drives in this section of the province. During the last 24 hours the river level rose slowly and steadily. The level now is about seven feet above summer level.

The rains of the last two weeks have augmented the rivers and its tributaries and there has been an increased activity from the pulpwood buyers.

A number of small drives have occurred and are still occurring on the tributaries of the St. John river. A drive of one thousand cords on the Nashwaaksis stream has only recently been completed by Grant & McDonald and W. W. Boyce of this city.

The Port Royal Pulp & Paper Co. of Saint John will not commence its usual giant drive until the late summer or early fall. The higher water at that season expedites these operations. The big drive of this company means the unloading of at least 30,000 cords of pulpwood into the St. John river at Grand Falls. The pulp is floated down as far as the Mitchell boom at Lincoln, where it is rafted and sent to Saint John from there.

CLOCKS TO BE MOVED AHEAD ON SUNDAY

Daylight Saving Time Comes Into Effect On Midnight Saturday

Affects Schedules

Railways, Marysville On Old Time; Devon May Adopt D.S.T.

The clock atop the City Hall will be officially jumped ahead an hour on the coming week-end and Fredericton will be on Daylight Saving Time until the last day of August. At sharp midnight on Saturday the hands of the city hall clock will be moved to one o'clock.

It is understood that practically all public services in the city will be operated on the new time, thus saving considerable confusion. The one chief exception is the railway, both the C. P. R. and the C. N. R. having signified their intention to run on the old schedule. It would be impossible for the railways to operate in a maze of Daylight Saving schedules as well as the old time schedules. The post office, merchants, in fact, all those who will have to do with the railways, will govern themselves accordingly when the new time comes into effect.

So far Devon and Marysville have not bothered about Daylight Saving Time, and it is understood that both these townships will live under the old time during the summer months. The natural conflict which will result between these two towns and Fredericton as regards time schedules will have to be "ironed out" during the early weeks after Daylight time is inaugurated.

More Play Time
Briefly the new time will mean that Mr. Average Citizen who is in the custom of going to work at eight o'clock and who "knocked off" at five o'clock, in future will go to work in reality at seven o'clock and "knock off" at four o'clock in the afternoon. While it is a bit inconvenient in the morning, Mr. Average Citizen saves the hour in the afternoon, and has this additional hour in which to recreate himself at golf, on the highway, or at anything he chooses.

The most significant saving is in the hours of daylight and while it will still be five o'clock in good round figures when Mr. Average Citizen quits work, nevertheless the extra hour of daylight will give him ample opportunity to go on picnics, and generally have a full relaxation period while daylight still exists. Ordinarily darkness supervened soon after supper was finished.

The post office here will operate on Daylight Saving Time. Donald F. Cameron, postmaster, said today that the office will be opened and closed on the new time schedule, and that mails will be sent out on the new time also. No confusion with the railways will result since it will be too early to affect the train schedule, the postmaster said.

According to a report this morning Devon may go on the new time, but so far the town council there has taken no definite step in this direction.

The churches of the city of Fredericton will conduct their services on Sundays under the new Daylight Time schedules it is understood.
