

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

The annual meeting of the Alumnae was held at the home of Mrs. H. F. McLeod. The president, Mrs. B. W. Harmon was in the chair. Fifteen new members were presented and admitted to the Society. Miss Margaret Anne Morrison was announced the winner of the Alumnae Scholarship for highest standing of the girls in the Sophomore class. Mrs. G. A. B. Addy was elected to the Senate. The out of town guests included Miss Barbara Dobson, of St. John, Mrs. H. B. Hachey of St. Andrews, and Miss Elsie Crickard. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

In celebration of the 2000th anniversary of the birth of the great Latin poet, Horace, occurring this year, the Sophomore Latin Class of the University of New Brunswick, with the aid of Professor R. E. D. Cattley, head of the Classical Department of the University, held a Roman Banquet last evening at a local hotel. The banquet and entertainment followed as closely as possible the style set by the court of the Emperor Augustus. Some of the characters represented were the Emperor Augustus, Maecenas, Horace, Julia, Octavia, Ovid, Livy and Virgil.

Speeches in Latin were read by those enacting the parts of Maecenas at whose residence the dinner was being held; Augustus, Horace, and Virgil. Then there followed a three course dinner eaten with the fingers while reclining on couches in the Roman style. The "Convivium," i. e., refreshments, followed the last course.

A quartet of four sang "Integer Vitae", and then the entire assembly sang "Amo, Amas, I Love a Lass", and "Gaudemus". A high light of the evening was the tumbling exhibition of Ernest B. VanDine. His feature act was the drinking of a glass of water while doing a handstand.

stuck by the ship," he said of Mr. McNair. He remarked that the secretary was working with the best brains in the province and added, "We are ready to match those brains with those of the Conservative party."

"Mr. Tilley has been driven from cover and will have to take his medicine on the 27th of June," continued Mr. Dysart. "The people voted for Baxter in 1930—not Premier Tilley."

He pointed out that although Mr. Tilley says he is not bound by the promises of Mr. Baxter or Mr. Richards, the Liberal party is going to hold him responsible for the record of the Conservative party from 1925 down to now. "In civil life we would drag him to the courts, but in political life we drag him to the polls and let him take his medicine," explained Mr. Dysart.

He said that the people were deceived in 1930, but they will not be deceived in 1935. Mr. Dysart said that we are in a new age, the age of youth. "The youth of the country are well-people will come in throngs to vote come to the Liberal party—not to any for a better government."

He maintained that on the 27th of June the Liberal party would save the province from bankruptcy and point-tongue, French, and in an eloquent ed out that during the period from way extolled the merits of the Liberal 1917 to 1925, when the Liberals were leader.

In power, there was never a period marked by such sound legislation.

Mr. Dysart attacked the alleged payroll padding by the government, the hydro question, the Compensation Board, the Crown Land leases, finances, agriculture and the purchase of so much road machinery by the government.

He claimed that the government through the prompting of the opposi-

PROBABILITY OF CLOSING RELIEF SCHOOLS FOR SUMMER

W. K. Tibert, director of vocational education in New Brunswick, returned last night from Cambridge, Queens county, where he was inspecting the school of Federal relief project No. 2. Earlier this week Mr. Tibert inspected the school at Havelock, project No. 41. Mr. Tibert announced today that it was his intention to visit the schools in all the projects for the purpose of determining whether or not it is advisable to continue classes during the summer months. Owing to decrease in personnel in the summer it is quite improbable that the classes will be continued during the summer. But in the event that they are discontinued, they will be resumed again about the fifteenth of September. Mr. Tibert stated that no definite decision could be reached concerning the matter until all the projects are inspected. Project No. 123, Sunbury county, and the Brockway project are yet to be inspected. Classes at the Millidgeville project near Saint John have already been discontinued.

tion, had been forced to make a uniform hydro rate to rural districts, but he alleged that they had made the taxpayer pay the shortage.

He said the Compensation Board was on the brink of bankruptcy and that the government had given away the Crown Lands and water power of the province because they had to borrow money to carry on.

The debts of the province have doubled so that 60 per cent of the net income is required to pay them.

He stated that agricultural had to be put on a pound basis and that the Liberal party would put men to work where the present government were buying vast amount of road machinery and paying more for them than they are worth. He attacked the present education system and promised that it would be improved when the Liberals came into power.

"It is our aim to give the people work instead of continuing in this 'machine age,'" he said.

In conclusion, he said that he would be advised by the best brains in the province and that when the 27th rolls around his party will not need to hire cars to drag people to the polls, the people will come in throngs to vote for a better government.

J. A. Doucet

J. A. Doucet, M. P. P., Gloucester, spoke to the convention in his native province from bankruptcy and point-tongue, French, and in an eloquent ed out that during the period from way extolled the merits of the Liberal 1917 to 1925, when the Liberals were leader.

On behalf of the Liberal women and compared politics to keeping house, stating that politics was nothing more than national housekeeping. She felt that housecleaning time was near.

Moved by E. J. Henneberry and seconded by F. T. B. Young, Carleton, a resolution of appreciation of the members of the Opposition was adopted.

On motion by J. E. Michaud, M. P., Edmundston, and seconded by Donald V. White, Sussex, a resolution expressing loyal appreciation of the leadership of Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, Federal opposition leader, was adopted.

C. Percy Burchill, South Nelson, submitted a slogan to the leader of the party. "What New Brunswick Makes, What New Brunswick Produces, Makes New Brunswick"

Platform

Fred Magee, chairman of the policy committee, submitted a report containing seventeen major planks of the Liberal party, which was adopted by the convention. The report contained some of the following planks. The Liberal party when elected promises to revitalize industry, form a Federal Relations Department, lessen taxation by reorganizing the financial system of the government, inaugurate a new land settlement policy, improve agriculture in all its branches, carry on a progressive road policy, enlarge the scope of the present public health policy, improve the courses in the school instruction and restore free school books, make an immediate investigation into the Crown Land department, reorganize the present system of justice, to continue the electrical development policy inaugurated by the Liberal party in 1920, make a thorough investigation of the operations of the Liquor Control Board, reduce motor vehicle fees, co-operate with the fish and game associations, encourage the mining industry and promote the establishment of a national park in New Brunswick.

On motion by Senator Foster and seconded by C. C. Avar, the report of policies was adopted by the convention as a committee of the whole.

Hon. A. A. Dysart in a short address thanked the delegates for the splendid spirit shown and reminded them that the work of winning the election was just beginning and advised all the delegates to return to their constituencies and work tooth and nail for the party.
