Strange Bone

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—Emily Vass, who plays Pan in the Billy Batchelor sketches over NBC networks, has a dog who is somewhat bewildered. Emily's pet turtle looks like a bone to the dog and he thinks it should be buried. Hence he is constantly dragging it out to the backyard and depositing it in a specially prepared hole. He can't figure how the turtle always gets out again.

Connie Gates, the songstress, got her start in radio at WHK, OBS station in Cleveland, when Vic Knight was production chief there. Now both Connie and Vic are at CBS in New York, and she is introducing two songs—"I Wear the Same Size Hat" and "Slow Poko". Vic wrote them and they are now being published.

KAY FRANCIS AND GEO. BRENT GUEST ARTISTS

Will Appear on "Hollywood Hotel" Program This Evening to Enact Highlights in Their New Film.

Exotic Kay Francis and George Brent will be brought to the WABC-Columbia microphone as Louella Parsons' guest stars during the "Hollywood Hotel" broadcast tonight, from 10.30 to 11.30 P. M. AST. They will enact dramatic highlights from their new film, "Living on Velvet," which is described as a strange and unusually dramatic modern-day romance, containing several highly emotional scenes, some of which will be reproduced during the broadcast.

In addition to Miss Francis and Brent, "Hollywood Hotel" will present its usual cast of featured performers, headed by Dick Powell, Jane Williams, and Ted Fio-Rito and his orchestra and entertainers. Powell will be heard in three popular songs, "I'm Marching to You, Georgia," "Love is Just Around the Corner," from the new Bing Crosby film "Here Is My Heart," and the new ballad, "It's All Forgotten Now." Jane Williams will feature as her solo the new Arthur Schwartz tune, "You and the Night and the Music" from the current Broadway production, "Revenge with Music."

Fio-Rito will conduct his orchestra through the varied strains of "Ha Cha Cha," "Say When, Your Head on My Shoulder, Winter Wonderland, and Who Cares? Down to Uncle Bill's will be presented as a musical novelty by the orchestra with the Debutantes, Muzzy Marcellino and the triple-voiced Candy. "Let's Be Thankful" will be played by the orchestra with Fio-Rito featured at the piano.

A Singing Lesson

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—"Learning to sing is no mild business, that is, if you learned the way I did," declares Lawrence Tibbett, famous baritone, heard on the Packard program Tuesday nights over NBC. "One of my teachers, Basil Ruysdael, believed in strong-arm methods. He'd yell 'Loosen up' while I was singing and give me a terrible clout on the back. Then he would grab my jaw and shake it from side to side if I happened to miss a note. Sometimes when I was singing he would make me lie face down on the floor, roll over, get up, climb on a chair and jump down. This was supposed to make me relax."

Hall to Preview Song Hits of 1935

CHICAGO, Jan. 4—His conception of the song hits of 1935 will be given a preview by Wendell Hall during a broadcast over an NBC-WEAF network Sunday, Jan. 6, at 8:45 P. M. AST.

Included in the program of that evening are "Hands Across the Table," As Gabriel Played Hi-De-Do, I Can Sew a Button, and I'm Gonna Rest My Weary Soul.

The program sponsored by F. W. Fitch Co. is repeated for western listeners at 11:00 p.m. EST.

Richard Himber, maestro of the Champions, is still chuckling over requests he has received since he played the song, "Winter Wonderland" on CBS. A number of the requests for the new tune hit ask him to repeat his performance of "Winter Underwear."

RECALLING 1934

The year 1934 in retrospect. This will be the idea for the Radio Commission's "Up to the Minute" program at 10.30 p.m. tonight. The program will consist in brief dramatizations of the principal events of the year. Such events will be recalled as the birth of the Dionne quintuplets in Northern Ontario, the Morro Castle disaster, the wedding of the Duke of Kent and Princess Marina of Greece. All the other outstanding happenings of the year will be dealt with. George Taggart, assistant to the Commission's program directors, is carrying out the idea with enthusiasm and promises a program of special merit. It should be a radio feature of New Year's week.

Swarthout Sings In Firestone Program

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—Gladys Swarthout, celebrated Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano, will mingle operatic, old favorite and musical comedy selections when she appears before the microphone as the Voice of Firestone soloist over an NBC-WEAF network on Monday, January 7, at 9:30 p.m. AST.

Miss Swarthout, who will be supported by William Daly's orchestra and a mixed chorus, will sing the Musetta Waltz from La Boheme; Someone to Watch Over Me, from Oh, Kay; The Rosary, and Last Night the Nightingale Woke Me.

The chorus will be heard in: Blow Gabriel Blow, from the current musical hit, Anything Goes, and Good Night, Good Night Beloved, and the male members of the chorus will offer Ramona. Daly's orchestra will present a special arrangement of "I Get a Kick Out of You," also from Anything Goes.

Youthful Uncle

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—A small visitor to Raymond Knight's Billy Batchelor program at the NBC Radio City studios changed Bobby Jordan's standing with the rest of the cast. The visitor was three year old Doris Jordan, Bobby's niece. Bobby, who plays the role of Peter in the program, now feels considerably more important since he has proved the existence of a niece. This makes Bobby the only uncle in the cast.
