Social Evening at Lr. Southampton
An enjoyable social evening and entertainment was recently held at Lower Southampton under the direction of Miss Jean Todd, who is in charge of the school in that district. The evening was in the nature of a basket and social evening, the hall being appropriately decorated. Mrs. Sterling King was chairman of the evening. Those taking part included Miss Mary Hall, Miss Norma Major, Miss Millicent Fox, Miss Donna Major, George Fox, Gerald Miller and Gordon MacFarlane. A programme of solos and recitations was carried out, the auctioneer being Fred B. Hall, Alva Hall taking the contributions. The sum of $13 was raised for Red Cross and school purposes.

Mrs. F. H. Rowe returned yesterday from Moncton and Sackville, where she spent the past ten days with her daughters Mrs. Ritcey in Moncton and Mrs. Watling in Sackville. Mrs. Rowe was accompanied to Moncton by Mrs. Frank Lister was entertained at several social functions.

I said to my ten-year old one day
"Run up and wash, Jack, right away,
Your neck and ears, give your face a rub,
And don't forget your teeth to scrub."
I stressed each item loud and long
Knowing full well he'd get them wrong.

In less than no time back he came
With shining face and hands the same.
But I, made doubtful through past years

Examined, and found dirty ears.
He said, when I had him on the spot:
"Oh Mom! my ears I clean forgot."
"Now off you go again," I said
"Teeth, neck and ears before you're fed."

Once more he stumbled up the stair
Happy still and without a care,
Down again with ears so clean
But a part of him I had not seen
He said, when I at his mouth did peer:
"Did you say teeth—I didn't hear."
"Your teeth you'll clean, your neck you'll wash."

So up the stairs again he clattered,
Came whistling back as if nothing
mattered,
And when I said, with faith sublime,
"I hope you washed your neck this time,"

Dismayed, the answer came, "Oh heck!
Did you tell me to wash my neck?"

Guimond—Powers

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends took place quietly at St. Dunstan's church, Fredericton, on Saturday, November 9th, when Gladys Alice, eldest daughter of John W. Powers, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and the late Mrs. Powers, of Fredericton, was united in marriage to Francois Xavier Guimond, son of Mrs. L. C. Guimond and the late Mr. Guimond of Campbellton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Milligan, the witnesses being C. Gordon Powers, brother of the bride, and Stanislas deK. Guimond, brother of the groom. Only immediate members of the family were present.

Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known throughout the province, the groom being a graduate of the University of New Brunswick of the class of 1932 and at present engaged as a chemist with the Restigouche Co. Ltd., Campbellton. They left on a short motor trip and later will reside at Campbellton.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Reid of Moncton, with Miss Emily Hovey and Miss Margaret Eardley, teachers at Upper Woodstock, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Eardley.

Hickman—Ward

Miss Barbara Ward, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ward of 4171 Suro Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., was united in marriage with Norman Fry, son of Mrs. Lester Hickman of 2241 South Ava also of Los Angeles, on Friday, October 18th, in the Little Church of the Flowers.

The bride was given away by her father, and looked charming in a gown of white satin, designed princess style with long train and lace yoke. She wore a finger-tip veil of tulle with lace cap and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, gardenias and lilies of the valley. Miss Frances Phillips was maid of honor and was gown in pink lace with picture hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of Transvaal daisies. The groom was supported by Ray Sorenson, and the ushers were Percival Snyder and Britt Gray. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Lawyer of the San Fernando Methodist church, music being furnished by Wm. VanAlst and Sibley Pease.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which they left on a short honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in Los Angeles. Both bride and groom are graduates of Manual Arts High School and Los Angeles College. The bride is a granddaughter of George Ward of South Devon, and a niece of Mrs. F. L. Boone also of South Devon and of Mrs. Minnie Ballard of this city, and has many relatives and friends in this section of the province who will learn of her marriage with interest. Her parents both are former Marysville residents.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Ainsworth and young son Verne formerly of Fredericton, now of Charlottetown, were recent visitors in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pitcher. They are now spending a few days in Calais.

Questions Answered
Re Cooking Contest

Culinary Contest Editor, Daily Mail, Will you kindly enlighten me on a few points concerning your contest, which are not clear to me?

All other contests in which I have participated have definite classes for the various articles cooked—I. e. a prize for the best bread, the best biscuits, etc.

As I understand under your contest rules, a person may not only cook the usual articles customary in other cooking contests, but might cook such articles as a boiled Virginia ham, a roast fowl, or even barbecue a whole ox! Am I right in this assumption?

Kindly answer through your columns and let me know your ruling.
BEBWILDERED HOUSEWIFE.

Answer

Dear Bewildered Housewife,
You are quite right in your surmise. While for your own sake we would feel sorry if you barbecued a whole ox in our contest, there is nothing against it in our rules.

Our whole contest has been based upon the fact that we wished to encourage the entry of the many hundreds of housewives, who are competent and capable cooks in the older more substantial style. Entries of fish, game, fowl and meats are welcome, and we wish to encourage them by every means in our power. For this reason we did not limit the entries to classifications. We feel that owing to special prizes from manufacturers of Baking Powders, Yeast, etc. under emphasis has been laid lately in all contests on the lighter side of cooking, i. e., the preparation of dessert dishes, which are only one branch of the culinary contest. We wish those who believe in the older style of substantial cooking, which we have called, "Mother's Day". In our contest, to feel that their entries are welcome and have an equal chance to win a prize.

CULINARY CONTEST EDITOR.
