

HOUSEHOLDER FINED UNDER HEALTH ACT

Only One of 33 Failing
To Comply Gets Fine
of $50 and Costs ..

Didn't Appear

Chairman of Sub-Dist.
Board of Health, Is Informant

Robert Anderson failed to appear in the police court this morning after previously pleading guilty to the charge of not having his home connected with the city sewerage system. He was fined $50 and costs by Police Magistrate Walter Limerick. Anderson was the only one of thirty three householders in this city, who had failed to make satisfactory arrangements, after having been warned in court earlier this month, that each householder would have to make some arrangements to fulfill the requirements of the Board of Health.

Informations against the thirty-three householders was laid by Dr. J. M. Cameron, chairman of the Fredericton sub-district Board of Health. Dr. Cameron was present this morning at the local police court. All of the residents involved are residents of districts newly sewerd along Woodstock Road, Albert street and Northumberland street extension.

The seven who originally pleaded guilty with one exception, have complied with the health requirements. Action against the residents of the above named streets was decided upon at a meeting of the health board following a period of two years during which notices were sent requesting the householders to connect with the system.

THE RED CROSS COUNCIL MEETS IN NORMAL SCHOOL

Demonstration Work by Group From the York
Street School

History of the Work

Aims of the Junior Red
Cross, Service Health,
Etc., Spoken On

The meeting of the Red Cross Council of the province was held yesterday afternoon in the Normal School auditorium. Dr. L. DeV. Chipman of St. John was in the chair, and a good attendance of the local members and several representatives from outside points were present. Reports were read as follows: Junior Red Cross committee, Mrs. Frances H. Stetson; Relief committee, C. W. McKee; Hospital Aid, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley read by Mrs. W. S. Usher; enrollment of nurses, Miss Nan Estabrooks read by Mrs. Walter Allison, and divisions and finances, C. H. Lee, honorary secretary treasurer.

Others present were Richard Dale, Col. E. C. Weyman and Mrs. Weyman, Mrs. J. H. Doody and Christina Graham.

The reports showed that cheer and comfort had been given to ex-service men at Lancaster Hospital and River Glade Sanatorium and from all parts of the province. Gifts, picnics, drives and other thoughtful deeds had been meted out to those unable to provide such things for themselves as a result of the war. The chairman quoted the words of Kipling which advocated the right hand for the better things of life. The Junior Red Cross branches were builders of health, character, and strength for the children, the future of the country

Started in 1922

The Junior Red Cross was started in Canada in 1922. Its aims are service, health, citizenship and international friendliness on the part of the young. Its motto is, "I Serve." It is open to all schools in the province and the head office is in St. John and from which all information as to the plan of work and necessary literature may be obtained. Suitable suggestions and playlets in keeping with seasons are provided on application. There are now four hundred and seventy six branches in the province with an enrollment of 13,034 members. At the conclusion of the meeting a demonstration of red cross work was given by one group, the class of Miss Nellie Winters of the York Street school.

The pupils had arranged their work themselves under the supervision of Miss Winters and acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. The programme included the plan of the rules of health for young children which all seemed to have mastered. The Mother Goose Rhymes figured in an interesting as well as instructive manner, bringing out the thoughts of safety, rest, health, play and good habits. The closing number was the salutation of the Flag. The youthful actors were complimented on their splendid showing.

The guests were welcomed by Major I. B. Rouse and Mrs. B. B. Barnes on behalf of the local council.

Summer Begins —But Where Is It?

Today, June 21, marked the beginning of summer, according to the almanac. The temperature remained obdurate, however, and was still raw and cold today, the same as it has been for more than ten days. There was a slight rise in the temperature this afternoon with some promise of clearing. Today the daylight hours are at their maximum duration of the year. Almost an inch and a half of rain fell here during the past couple of days.

The stretch of weather in recent weeks has been most unseasonable and decidedly unsummerlike. From the Dominion Experimental Station today it was learned that crops have been affected adversely by the heavy rains. The river level here has risen several inches as a result of the general rains along the St. John River Valley.

HAD BEEN ORDAINED HERE

Rev. A. W. Teed, who died at Dorchester, N.B., yesterday in his seventy fifth year, and who was well known throughout the province, had been ordained in the Parish church here in 1887. The late Mr. Teed served in Richmond Parish a few years, then accepted an appointment to the business staff of King's College, Windsor, N.S. Later he became rector of Westmorland parish before accepting a call to St. Mark's Parish, Mount Whalley, where he resided during the last few years of his life.

R. B. Hanson will speak for the Government at Cross Creek tomorrow Harvey Station June 24th, McAdam June 24th, Canterbury, June 25th, Burt's Corner, June 26th.

MAYOR AND ALDERMAN LIKELY TO FACE COURT

St. George Mayor, Five
Aldermen in Appeal
Court Case

Adjournment Made

Court Recommends Resignation of Civic Bd.
and New Election

The New Brunswick Appeal Court sitting in adjourned session here this morning, heard further argument in the application of W. A. I. Anglin, of Saint John, on behalf of H. Vaughan Dewar, St. George merchant, for an order to exhibit an information in the nature of a quo warr anto against the mayor and five aldermen of St. George to answer and show by what authority they claim to hold and exercise their duties.

P. J. Hughes, K.C., of this city, was heard this morning for the defense and the court suggested to Mr. Hughes that he recommend to the St. George aldermen and mayor that they resign and order a new election.

The court indicated that if such action is not carried out that the rule would be made absolute, with the result that the mayor and aldermen of that place would face court action. Following the completion of this case, court adjourned until next Friday at 11 a.m.

Chief Justice Baxter and Justices LeBlanc and Grimmer comprised the court.
