WORLD SERIES COSTS ARE HIGH FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Detroit Tigers are "In the Red" on Series

DETROIT, Nov. 2—Those poor 'ole Detroit Tigers threw $500,000 today at the wolf that started hanging around during the world series.

Mr. Wolf didn't have a chance to prowl around the Tiger den during the regular season. Attendance which surged past the million mark made the turnstiles click so fast and the money bags jingle so merrily that the noise kept him away. But then came the world series, and the wolf, sniffing the thousands of dollars in expenses of which only the boss Tigers knew, came padding around the Bengal bawling.

But when he poked his nose inside the door at Navin Field today he took it on the lam, routed by a crash of concrete as workmen started wrecking operations which started expenditure by the Detroit club of a cool half million dollars to pep up business hereabouts for next year.

Didn't Break Even

Charles J. Navin, Secretary, said today that the Detroit club didn't break even on the 1935 fall classic. Without digging the receipt and expenditure records out of the vault, Navin further said that even the Chicago-Tiger battle gone a seventh game, "Detroit would not have climbed out of the red" on the series proper.

The expenses in getting ready for a World Series is terrific, considering the fact that the players take the big share of the first four games," Navin pointed out. "It cost the Detroit Baseball Company more than $55,000 just to get the park ready by improving the field, moving the scoreboard and building the temporary bleachers to seat about 20,000."

More Expenses

Navin then pointed out that extra ticket-sellers, ushers and other attendants had to be employed. Then there was the item of about forty young women who worked for weeks taking ticket applications. Extra ground men were hired, and when the series began the club entertained members of the working press at a Detroit hotel. The item of ticket printing was also a heavy expense.

Navin said the past season was one of the best the Detroit club ever has enjoyed, and the enlargement of the park is an effort to accommodate the fans who loyally have supported the team. While plans still are tentative, he said that the general idea is that the pavillions in right and left field will become part of the two-deck permanent grandstand, and that the centre-field bleachers will be connected with the right-field grandstand, and also be made into two decks.

European Officers Compete in N. Y. Show

NEW YORK, Nov. 2—The military invasion of the United States was completed today when the army officers of France Holland and the Irish Free State arrived to compete in the international military jumping contests at the National Horse Show, starting in Madison Square Garden Monday.

The Chilean team has been in the country for several weeks and with the United States and Canada complete the group that will fight it out for the coveted prizes during the seven-day program. France won the team trophy last year, while Capt. Dan Corry, of the Irish Free State, carried off the individual championship with Limerick Lane.

The Irish team is in charge of Commandant J. G. O'Dwyer, while Capt. Pierre Clave heads the French forces, and Capt. I. Sirtema Van Grovestins the Dutch team.

McLenahan Family Prominent in Athletics

The name McLenahan has become a by-word among New Brunswick sport fans in recent years. It seems that it is always a McLenahan who either garners all his team's points or a large part of them in almost any competitive sport in which Fredericton participates. As a matter of fact the name McLenahan has become so prominent in Fredericton athletics that the mention of one immediately suggests the other. This is not surprising in view of the fact that there are seven in the family, each of whom has shown that he has exceptional ability in from one to four sports.

They carry on the athletic tradition of the family like an endless chain, and as the eldest one steps farther and farther up the athletic ladder the younger ones follow. John LeRoy, better known to sport fans as "Shiner," the eldest in the family, deserves most of the credit for starting the chain of athletic fame for the family, according to Jack McLenahan, the head of the family. "Shiner" showed promise of being an athlete when he first booted a football for Fredericton High School in 1920. When he graduated from U.N.B. in 1927 he was considered one of the best rugby forwards in the Maritime Provinces. He was a member of the U.N.B. team that brought the McTier Cup on its first trip to the Maritime Provinces. "Shiner" also excelled in hockey and baseball, playing on both school and city teams.

Since the pioneer of athletics in the McLenahan family made the name known in sports in the Maritimes, there has been a steady march of McLenahans up the ladder of fame. For a while "Shiner" had the field to himself, but as the younger ones grew up, the name "Shiner" was crowded out of the headlines by such names as "Mus," "Bun," "Nobby," "Skinny," "Art," and "Rolly." So, "Shiner" retired and moved out west where he took up ranching. But he started something that will last for years when he taught his younger brothers how to become athletes. The youngest is now 14 and the ages of the others range upwards to 29.

"Nobby," who was christened Walter C., is 29. He has been prominent as a baseball player ever since he was old enough to hold a bat in the back yard of their home, the primary playing field of the entire family.

"Bus" Probably Best Known

Albert V., better known as "Skinny," who is 25, is the natator of the family. Although he does not participate in any other sports, he excels in swimming.

Edward R., who appears in most headlines as "Bus," is probably the best known of the family. Only 21, he has probably more field goals to his

U. N. B. and Mt. Allison Playing Today at Sackville

The New Brunswick Intercollegiate rugby crown is at stake today as the U. N. B. fifteen, present holders of the title, line up on Mount Allison University grid against "Bull" Lister's battling Mounties at Sackville.

The two teams will go into battle on even terms as a result of a scoreless draw at College Field, Fredericton, on Thanksgiving Day.

On the eve of battle both squads are confident of victory. Coach Burden of U. N. B. has strengthened his forward line for the final of the home-and-home title series while Coach Lister has given more attention to strengthening his backfield for the fray.

U. N. B. gridders left the Capital yesterday en route to Sackville and spent last night in Moncton.

The second teams will play before the regular scheduled game. The lineups for today's games are as follows:

U. N. B. first team—Forwards, Armstrong Eldridge, Palmer, Scotcher, Jamer, Pond, Corbett; halves, Thomas (captain), Donaldson; three-quarters, Cogle, Inch, Kilburn, H. McKinnon, McDermott; fullback, Sleep.

Second team—Forwards, Watson, D. Logie, Smith, Mallory, Weston, Perkins, Brown, Anderson; halves, Currie, Stuart; three-quarters, R. Logie, Clements, Wilson, Rowland, Freeze (captain), Mann, Belding, Bartlett; fullback, Keswick.

The first team lineup for the Mounties will be: forwards, Kerr, Storey, MacKay, MacRitchie, MacFarlane or Stone, Blanchard, Woolner; halves, Gough, Burke, Brodie (captain); three-quarters, Neilson, Robertson, Mosher, Gascoigne; fullback, Johnson.

credit in the Maritimes than any other rugby player.

"Bun," Charles W., is 19 years old and as full of vitality as a lion cub. He plays hockey, baseball and tennis with the same ease that makes him a star in rugby.

"Art" and "Rolly", the junior members of the family, and 17 and 14 years old. Ever since they have been big enough to toddle they have been knocking around taking the bumps with their older brothers in the backyard forum on Needham Street.

Their success in High School and junior sport has shown that they are capable of carrying on the athletic tradition of the family. "Art" has been distinguishing himself this fall by tallying a large share of Fredericton High School's points to help them win the "Big Three" title. Like his big brother "Bus" he favors the boot method.

And as the years pass it looks as though the name McLenahan will occupy a prominent place in Maritime sport for many years to come.

F. H. S. BATTLING ST. VINCENT'S AT COLLEGE FIELD

At College Field today, the Yellow and Black clad rugby players of Fredericton High School are making their final stand of the season in an endeavor to recapture the New Brunswick Interscholastic championship from St. Vincent's High School, 1934 title-holders.

The finalists are the same as last year, the Capital High having won the "Big Three" section of the N.B. league and Saints having turned back Vocational in the league frays and Aberdeen High of Moncton in the semi-final.

The lineups are as follows: Fred-

Babe May Promote Baseball Abroad

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 — Babe Ruth said yesterday that he was "seriously considering" an offer to devote his future to introducing baseball into Greta Britain and other foreign countries.

"While baseball is really our pastime," he said, "I see no reason why it can't be built up in other countries so that in the time of our children it would be an international as well as a national sport."

The Babe spoke at the monthly luncheon of the Circus Saints and Sinners' Club which initiated him as one of its "fall guys."

Today is the crucial day for the rugby teams of Fredericton. U.N.B. one of the City's hopes for the McCurdy Cup, and its only hope for the N. B. Intercollegiate title, is battling Mt. A. at Sackville this afternoon for the right to meet Acadia for the Maritime Intercollegiate title. Fredericton High are entertaining St. Vincent's High, N. B. Intercollegiate champions, at College Field here this afternoon. The Yellow and Black are determined to upset the crown from the Saint John team's head and, according to their record in the "Big Three" this year, they should have little trouble in regaining their lost position as champions.

Fredericton City, that surprising team that nobody hears about until they appear on the field in a game, has been negotiating with the Saint John Trojans about games. The Trojans suggested that they play home and home games, each taking their own gate receipts, but the far seeing Fredericton manager, Robin Kilburn, foresees the possibility that his team might not get enough to buy a dozen oranges by that scheme, and now he is awaiting word from the Trojan manager regarding a guarantee for the game in Saint John.

City seems to always get into difficulties when it comes to finances. Last year they were gyped out of their second game with U.N.B., the receipts for which were supposed to have gone to City, and then this fall they had much difficulty in driving a bargain with the college management for their money share of the last game they played against the University. Some of the U.N.B. men suggested another game for which the City team would take the whole gate. We have heard nothing more about this second game and, ten to one, if U.N.B. loses today there will be no second game—they will hang up their boots for the rest of the season.

When the fifteen selected to represent Ontario in the annual inter-Provincial English Rugby match with Quebec were finally successful in putting a stop to the string of Quebec victories, as they did on Saturday last, they were aided to no little extent by the pressure of two lads who learned their rugby in the Maritimes. One was Arthur Stothart of Newcastle for whose work Harkins High School and Mount Allison can take a bow, and the other "Cam" Kyle, who is well known in Fredericton, and whose family moved to Toronto a couple of years ago. Both are now attending the University of Toronto, and are members of the Varsity XV which had four representatives in all on the Ontario side. Stothart and Kyle formed the second rank of the eight-man pack, and their work in the loose stood out in last Saturday's game.
