

No Happiness In the Home When the Mother Is Sick

The tired, worn out mother cannot make a happy home if she is sick and worried by the never ending household duties. She gets run down and becomes nervous and irritable, downhearted and discouraged, can't rest at night, and gets up in the morning as tired as when she went to bed.

Women suffering in this way will find in Milburn's H. & N. Pills a remedy with which to recuperate their health, build up the run down system, and bring back their bodily vigor.

Revealing the C. C. F.

For many months it has been obvious to many people in Canada that the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation was in substance a less outspoken and, perhaps for that reason, a darker branch of communism. There have been many slips by C.C.F. orators to confirm such a belief, despite the courageous efforts of the party leader, Mr. J. S. Woodsworth, to keep the fact hidden. But fresh evidence of the absolute unanimity that exists in the thought and purpose of the two radical groups comes from the Surrey Leader, a weekly newspaper of Cloverdale, B. C.

In it there appears the report of the funeral services held for the late James Roebuck, one of the 'Comrades' of the C.C.F. Party in that district. The service was conducted if we may burlesque the customary use of that term, by Rev. E. H. Baker, the C.C.F. candidate for New Westminster at the recent federal election. What Mr. Baker had to say, in the name of the C.C.F. Party, is of vital importance to the people of this country. His words disclose for the first time the anti-Christian nature of the Woodsworth party, and expose the type of degenerate mind Mr. Woodsworth had gathered around him and seeks to establish in authority over the House of Commons.

Said the so-called Rev. Mr. Baker: "Comrades! I deeply appreciate the honor conferred upon me in your invitation to address this meeting, a meeting representative of the mass workers of the world, men and women pledged to change the order of things by enforced enactments of mass economics. We are here also to pay our respects to Comrade Roebuck, who died a few days ago. . . . Comrade Roebuck, as one of the world's workers for mass psychology, lived and died an atheist, whatever that may mean. He had no use for Divinity or Godhead, whatever that may mean, and what Karl Marx described as the opium of the masses furnished by the classes of oppression."

"It perhaps seems strange to many of you to hear expressions like this emanating from one who at one time was the propounder and dispenser of such theological jingo, but the economics of the mass workers have no room for theologians or weaklings. Look at R. B. Bennett, the pernicious tool of theological and financial tyranny and oppression, and again at Mackenzie King, a thing with the spine of a jellyfish. It is these mouthpieces that, sheltered by the multitude of ologies and isms, administer the opium of which Marx speaks, to the masses."

What is there in that speech to differentiate it from the advertised creed of communism? In what way does it mark any difference between the theories of J. S. Woodsworth and the theories of Tim Buck? In making clear the foundations upon which Mr. Woodsworth would erect a government for Canada it reiterates in brief the mercenary, godless religion Moscow is seeking to force on the world.

But why has Mr. Woodsworth left it to an understudy to tell Canada that his aim is the destruction of the Church and the overthrow of Christianity? Why has he been afraid, while stumping the Dominion, to tell his audiences that the "revolution" he seeks is a revolution against God and the destruction of the Christian faith, which is the essence of Christian life. Has Mr. Woodsworth, knowing the character of the people, hoped that by remaining aloof from communism he could capture the vote before disclosing his alliances? In the past he has been fairly successful in smoothing over the mistakes of subordinates and denying the relationship. This time a henchman has gone too far. Canada should know now where the C.C.F. stands, and Canadians will judge accordingly.

$55,000 Toward Peace

A British foundry, in refusing an 11,000 pound Italian order has taken a stand voluntarily that subordinates private gain to international morality. Nations at Geneva in course of applying sanctions might, after making due allowance for any nationalistic motive in the firm's action, take its telegram of rejection as a text. It reads:

"Regret we are not prepared to entertain further business relations with Government which has flagrantly ignored its treaty obligations."

Only $55,000 was at stake, but in these times any commercial sacrifice comes hard. Application of sanctions also means self-denial for the nations. In its small way, the British foundry apparently put loyalty to the new structured of world law ahead of profits. The strength of that law depends on similar loyalty among the nations.

Central Kingsclear

Central Kingsclear, Oct. 31—The farmers of this place have finished the gathering in of the crops and are busy with their fall plowing and getting ready for King Frost.

A large number attended the funeral of the late Frank Goodine on Monday morning showing sympathy for his bereaved family and respect and esteem for one who was highly regarded by all with whom he came in contact.

Rev. Father Coughlan and sisters Miss Hannah and Miss Gertie Coughlan, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Goodine, made a trip to Saint John and returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burgoyne were in this place Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Goodine.

Miss Annie MacGibbon of Douglas, has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. James Grey of this place.

Mrs. Miriam Murray of Island View was the week-end guest of Mrs. Jas. Grey.

Mrs. Meighan of Marysville has been spending a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. Alex. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burden and little daughter Bertha accompanied by Joe and Hattie McKay spent Sunday at Keswick the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKay.

Mrs. Cochrane of Perth and Mrs. Charles Poore of Marysville are staying at the home of their sister Mrs. Sam Gallagher where they were called some days ago by the sudden illness of their father, Isaac K. Good. Mr. Good suffered a stroke and is still in a critical condition.

Mrs. David Graham of Houlton and Mr. and Mrs. Gales Graham were visiting Mrs. David Graham, mother of Mrs. Frank I. Goodine one day last week.

Central Kingsclear can keep up with other places in telling its bear stories. Several bears have been seen and Mrs. Jas. Mills, Hazen Goodine and Roy King had the experience of seeing three bears on the highway road in the vicinity of Central Kingsclear school a week or two ago. One bear stood on its hind legs and watched the car they were riding in go past while the other two ran off the road. Mr. Vamerran of Fredericton had a bear trap set on his property in this place. He entrapped one but Mr. Bruns evidently was anxious to be gone when Mr. Vamerran came to his trap, so he broke his toes off and left them in the trap and he himself disappeared.

A variety shower and dance were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Goodine one evening last week in honor of their recent marriage.

Find Out

From Your Doctor
if the "Pain" Remedy
You Take Is Safe.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's
Well-Being to Unknown
Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with "Aspirin."

We say this because, before the discovery of "Aspirin," most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of "Aspirin" largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken "Aspirin" year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: "Aspirin" is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

"Aspirin" Tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

ZTJ LONESTATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

There is only one short-wave radio station in Southern Africa and it is purely experimental, with no claim at present to have more than a technical interest.

It is located at Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, and although it does not stand on a mountain, it is at an altitude of 6,000 feet.

The station is ZTJ, but the call is never announced. It works on 49.2 meters with 5 kilowatts power.

The station is operated at present by the African Broadcasting Company, the managing director of which is Isadore W. Schlesinger. H. L. Adler is general manager and Rene Caprara studio manager. There are no artists of note, the experiment being virtually confined to records.

Radio generally has reached a turning point in South Africa. Since 1927, it has been organized by a private company, which now controls stations at Johannesburg, Pretoria, Bloemfontein, Durban, Capetown and Grahamstown, besides the short-wave station mentioned. In terms of the recommendation of a commission headed by Sir John Reith, chairman of the British Broadcasting Corporation, the State will take over next year, when great developments, particularly in short-wave radio, may be expected.

He—The bank has returned your cheques.

She—Isn't that just splendid. What shall we buy with it this time.

Each ceremony is carefully planned and intelligently administered. And each service is a fair-minded business arrangement. We believe that no tribute should be exacted from those who grieve.
