SOCIAL HAPPENINGSMrs. Warwick, wife of Dr. William Warwick entertained charmingly at a three table Bridge last evening at her home in honor of Mrs. Witzler who is the guest of Mrs. J. M. Cameron. The prizes were won by Miss Lydia Hunter and R. K. Nevers.Friends of Major and Mrs. John S.
Scott are today congratulating them on their fortieth wedding anniversary.
Major Scott, who is county secretary treasurer, was married on October 22, 1895, to Miss Clara Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Everett, of Kingsclear. Rev. Mr.
Knight officiated at the ceremony.
Mrs. Scott before her marriage, taught school in Dumfries. The happy couple have four daughters, Mrs. Thompson in British Columbia; Miss Helen Scott, Mrs. Karl Bishop and Miss Magdalene Scott all of this city. Major and Mrs. Scott are enjoying the best of health and are celebrating their anniversary quietly at home today.
They have made their home in this city for many years and they and their family enjoy the respect and esteem of a large number of friends.Miss Katherine Lynch who has been spending the past few weeks with her mother Mrs. T. Lynch is leaving this evening to return to Montreal.The men of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church entertained the ladies of the congregation and the Presbyterian students last evening in their church hall. Those who took part in the program were Fred McArthur, who gave a cello solo, Mrs. John Webster and Donald Pringle who gave solos and readings by Miss Phyllis Wilby and Robyn Bailey. A social hour and refreshments were later enjoyed.The ladies of the Fredericton Subdivision of the C.W.L. were hostesses last evening to the Catholic students of the city. The evening proved most enjoyable, being one of the outstanding social functions given in St.
Dunstan's Hall for some years. Over two hundred young people were present. The earlier part of the programme was devoted to a musical programme which was followed by contests and musical games. Refreshments were served at eleven o'clock after which a short dancing period was enjoyed. Rev. Dr. J. H. Milligan, in the absence of the pastor welcomed the students. Very Rev. Dean Philippe Hebert of Buctouche and Rev. Father Hector Belliveau of St. Anne's, Kent county, were present and addressed the students as also did Mrs. F. G.
Foster, president and convener of the evening. Miss Martha O'Neil was convener of the programme, the musical dances were in charge of Miss Cecil Gallagher and Edward Carten, and Mrs. Charles Cremin was in charge of refreshments. The following programme was carried out: Vocal solo, Miss Lorraine Allain; Clarinet solo, Arthur Foster; vocal solo, Bernice Mc-Ginn; whistling solo, Miss Josephine Hughes; piano solo, Gilberte Roussel.
The ladies in charge are to be commended for the success of the evening. The Misses Dorothy Hughes, Dorothy Feeney and Harold Hughes were the accompanists of the evening.Mrs. Edward Hurley is leaving this afternoon for Trenton, Ontario, where20th Century ClubA meeting of the Young Ladies'

Flying Officer Joseph Hurley of Camp Borden will be married to Miss Helene Gauthier.Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark of Charlotte Street, and Mr. Sutherland are away on a motoring trip to Boston.Thanksgiving reunion services which began in the Brunswick Street Baptist church on Sunday and will continue until Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, were held in the church last evening, being in the nature of a Baptist Young People's Union Rally.
Many were present and a pleasant as well as an instructive time enjoyed.A brief drama "Youth Sees Ahead" was put on during the evening under the direction of William Springfield and proved most interesting. During the evening supper was served, Miss Gertrude Munroe being in charge, and Miss Gertrude Davis looking after the decorations.The evening's program was featured by addresses from Rev. Dr. G. C.
Warren, former pastor, and now editor of the Maritime Baptist, and also Dr. G. S. Patterson, secretary of the National Council of Y. M. C. A. of Canada. Remarks of each were along people's work, and dealt with the prospects of youth for the future.Mrs. W. M. Walker, president of the B. Y. P. U. was in the chair. Last night's function was one in a series of Thanksgiving reunion services, which takes in nearly all organizations of the church. It was under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U.The Devon branch of the Women's Institute met last evening at the home of Mrs. Allan Sewell. The meeting took the form of a musical and literary evening. Routine business preceded the programme after which refreshments were served. A feature of the evening was a humorous reading by Miss Sarah Haines.The Delta Rho Debating Society of the University of New Brunswick will debate with the Fredericton High School team some time in the near future, it was decided at a meeting of the society today. U.N.B. will support the affirmative of the subject: "Resolved that the public platform, including the radio, is mightier than the press." A date for the debate has not yet been decided but it will likely occur early in November.Miss Bertha Harvey who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Redpath by Elmer spent Saturday in the city.Mrs. John Kelly is visiting friends in New Market and Smithfield.IMPORTED SQUIRRELSIn reference to the large grey squirrels mentioned in yesterday's Daily Mail as having been seen in the Cathedral grounds. It is stated that a number of these squirrels were imported some months ago by J. Stewart (Neill). Others came here from the Canadian West in a grain car. Many of these squirrels have been seen recently in the lower end of the city.CAR TURNED OVERA narrow escape for a number of young people, several of them young lady Normalites, was the situation last night when an automobile owned by a Westmorland street garage proprietor overturned. No one was seriously injured luckily, although two of the young ladies received scratches.

The car was badly damaged.W. F. Bull, Trade Commissioner, in City Today

is quite stable and most of them are now eating about all they can, said the commissioner. This, he added, means that the Canadian export market for table stock will never reach much greater proportions than at present.Holland has offered some competition in the potato market, but in recent years the British preferential tariffs had helped Canadian competition with Holland.The demand in the West Indies is for small potatoes rather than larger ones, revealed Mr. Bull. He gave as his reasons the fact that the system of purchasing is different than it is here, in that down there they buy only a day's and at the most three days' supply at a time.When the potatoes are small a householder can buy a potato for each member of his family rather than carve a larger potato into small parts.
Another reason why the small potatoes are popular is that they are sold there by the pound and it is easier to weigh small potatoes accurately than it is large ones.No potatoes are kept longer than two or three weeks in Trinidad, said Mr. Bull. "A month after potatoes leave Canada for the West Indies they are all consumed", he said. He said they usually get good firm potatoes because the importers know to the hour what time a boat load is to arrive and they have their shipments timed so that none are ever left on their hands. The people of the islands are great potato eaters and the demand is always stable, he said.Other products imported by the West Indies from Canada are flour, pork products and lumber. Recently, the trade commissioner said, they have been buying Canadian box shooks for the manufacture of boxes, used in the packing of fruit. These, as well as barrel staves, were formerly bought from the United States. A stimulus in the fruit growing industry there has caused a great demand for box shooks, and Mr. Bull pointed out that the Canadian quality could not be depended on so well as that of the United States. "Improvement in quality is essential to bring about an increase in box and barrel exports to the West Indies," said Mr. Bull. Many barrel staves are used there in the manufacture of barrels for asphalt. These barrel staves were formerly imported from the United States subsidiaries of the asphalt companies. They have been importing lumber from the Maritimes for years, and a large quantity of Douglas fir from British Columbia.
Pitch pine, more suitable for flooring, is imported from the United States.In speaking of the possible export of apples from here, Mr. Bull said that apples are regarded there as a luxury, selling for from 5 to 12 cents apiece. The possibility of large apple exports was not very encouraging, he said.Mr. Bull stated that in recent years there has been a remarkable development in tourist travel from Canada to the West Indies. Tomorrow the trade commissioner will go to Saint John where he will meet the board of trade there.HEARD NO DISTURBANCEA reported disturbance outside one of the local churches last evening, while a meeting was in progress, is given no credence in police circles today. The city police had no report of any such disturbance, and officials of the church heard nothing of it either. The story was that two men, evidently intoxicated, attempted to interrupt while a service was in progress.CORNWALL, Ont., Oct. 22—Arthur Tremblay 27-year-old Cornwall carpenter, appeared in court charged with the hammer murder of Rene Tessier, 34-year-old railway section-hand and was remanded for one week.Classified Ads.RATE: 25 words 25 cents per
