FREDERICTON, N. B.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGSGovernor General Expert Guide

Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir spent much time on deck as the Canadian Pacific SS. Duchess of Richmond steamed up the St. Lawrence. In the above picture Canada's new Governor-General, who is a distinguished historian as well as a successful writer of romantic adventure stories, pointed out historic landmarks of Canada's Ancient Capital to Lady Tweedsmuir and his son, the Hon. Alastair Buchan, as the liner neared Quebec.

Mrs. F. L. Miller entertained at a small fireside tea yesterday afternoon at her home. Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett poured. Mrs. Miller was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bryce M. Love.

The members of the Community Concert Association of Fredericton are to be favored with a musical treat tomorrow evening in the opening programme of the season. Miss Myrtle Leonard, contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Association will be the artist of the evening.

At the regular meeting of the Victoria Order Nurse held this week it was stated that during October the Pythian Sisters served tea at the weekly well-baby Conference in this city. In Devon tea had been served by the Barker's Point Women's Institute.

The church boys' league of the Cathedral are sponsoring a tea this afternoon in the Cathedral Memorial Hall. The tables are decorated with candles and the tea and coffee cup are presided over by Mrs. LeB. Bull and Miss Pearl Peters. The boys of the League will assist in serving.

Miss Margaret Evans, former provincial librarian, who expects to leave this city on Saturday next, is the guest of Mrs. J. M. Lemont, George Street.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Wilmet Church were entertained at an enjoyable sewing party last evening at the home of Mrs. William Johnson on Saint John street.

Miss Helen Neill entertained the Bridge Club of which she is a member last night at her home. The prize was won by Miss Dorothy Pond and Miss Mary Neill presided over the tea-cups.

F. J. Boyer, Victoria, Carleton County is a guest at the Queen today.

The A.Y.P.A. held its weekly meeting last evening. Oscar Harris was in the chair and a good attendance present. Dancing and games were enjoyed. Three violin solos were ably rendered by Miss Marcelle Gorham, accompanied on the piano by Miss Miriam Eardley. Harold Hughes also provided music for dancing.

Will the ladies, who have left plates or other containers for exhibits at The Daily Mail Cooking Contest, kindly call for same at Maritime Electric Co., Ltd., store.

N. P. McLeod, Saint John, is in the city today.

SERVICE ON RIVER ENDS
NEAR FUTURE*Temperature Colder Today Following Three-Inch Rainfall

Rain earlier this week and a sharp change today to colder temperature with snow flurries was a warning to citizens of approaching colder weather. The thermometer fell to the freezing point this morning. A total of 2.61 inches of rain has fallen in this vicinity since Monday.

With colder weather here the closing of the St. John river is not far off. Marking the first stage of the closing of the river of navigation, the steamer Majestic of the Eastern Canada Coastal Steamships, Limited, is making its final trip of the season to Grand Lake and Washademoak points today. While no ice has yet been encountered, the company officials are momentarily prepared for any emergency.

The Majestic, which boasts the only steel hull, among the company's river craft, will replace the motorship D. J. Purdy on the Saint John-Fredericton run on Monday. The Purdy will leave Saint John tomorrow on its final trip to this city and will be made ready for the winter upon its return Saturday night.

The closing of the Washademoak this year will be one day later than last when the final trip down river, was made on November 14—a year ago today. On that trip, the Majestic met with some difficulty when ice was encountered in Salmon River. The previous year that service concluded on November 11.

Indications are that the Fredericton service will remain open longer this year than for the past two years. In 1934, the Majestic was laid away on November 24, while in 1933 the ship made its last trip from the capital on November 16.

During the past few days, the level of the Saint John has risen considerably, although it is still well below its usual level for this time of year. He did not believe the level of the river would influence to any extent the time of its freezing.

LATE MISS HELEN S. KEEN

The funeral of Miss Helen Sarah Keen, who died at her home in North Devon yesterday morning, took place this afternoon with service at the home, conducted impressively by Rev. Milton Burt. A large number were in attendance as the young woman had been esteemed by all and who was very popular with young and old alike. Interment was in the Rural Douglas cemetery. The pallbearers were Ralph Campbell, George Howell, Jack Watson, and Oswald Reynolds.

FLORENCEVILLE, Nov. 12—When the new Governor-General and his wife Lady Tweedsmuir arrived at Quebec, the N.B.W.I. sent a message of greeting and good wishes to her, having heard of her work for Women's Institute in the Old Country. The message sent by wire was: "N. B. Women's Institute welcome you, a fellow member to Canada and extend greetings and best wishes. (Signed) Mrs. Andrew McCain, president N.B. W. I.; Mrs. Robt. Thompson, Secretary N.B.W.I."

I have received a letter in reply conveying thanks for the message of welcome and stated "that she was looking forward with much pleasure to being identified with the splendid work of Women's Institutes throughout Canada."

FLORENCEVILLE, Nov. 13—The death of Mrs. Miles Birmingham occurred at her late home on Friday morning. She died of heart failure, having been in failing health for the past year although able to be up and about each day. Before her marriage she was Miss Annie Trafford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Trafford and was born in Centreville 77 years ago. She was a life-long member of the Baptist church and was president of the U.B.W.M. Society in Connell for many years. She also organized and superintended a Baptist Mission Band. She was a woman of fine Christian character who will be much missed by a large circle of friends. She is survived by her sorrowing husband, three daughters, Mrs. Charles W. Clarke, Woodstock; Mrs. John Kilpatrick, Florenceville; Mrs. Eldon Estey, East Florenceville; two sons, Coy at home; Owen of Lakeville; two sisters, Mrs. G. W. Jamieson, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Geo. Holmes, Cloverdale, B.C.; and three brothers, Sewell Trafford, Centreville; Rainsford Trafford, Andover; William Trafford, Fort Fairfield. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, Connell, by Rev. A. S. Bishop, pastor of the church. A mixed quartette sang. The pallbearers were Eldon Estey, C. W. Clark, Lynn Stickney and Clinton Trafford. The flowers were numerous and beautiful. There was a large attendance, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Upton burying ground, Florenceville.

Mrs. John Kilpatrick is now convalescent at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, where she has been a patient. She will soon be able to go to the home of her sister Mrs. C. W. Clark, Woodstock, before returning home.

Wilmet Hunter, who had his foot hurt so severely on Monday is doing as well as can be expected at the Parker Hospital, Bath.

Mrs. A. Beecher McCain is quite ill at her home here.

The N.B.W.I. are now sponsoring a Short Course for Girls at the Vocational School, Woodstock. The course is from Nov. 6 to Dec. 4. The teachers are Miss Weldon, Miss LeBlanc, and Miss Morton of the Vocational School staff, and Mrs. Lawson, of Moncton. Subjects taught include cookery, sewing, weaving, needlepoint novelties and lessons in Home Nursing, waitress and laundry work.

The Carleton county W. I.s are offering prizes to the students attending these classes. The course is especially for counties of Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska. There are 19 girls in attendance. The course is similar to the one put on at Sussex each winter for several years past. It is the first time such a course has been staged at Woodstock. The girls board at different homes. The housing was arranged by Mrs. R. W. Maxwell and the Woodstock W. I.
