Halifax Expert's Review Of F'ton Races

James W. Power Writes Interesting Comment on Recent Fredericton Exhibition Horse Races — Gives High Praise to Directors for Manner They Handle Show Each Year.

(By James W. Power, harness racing critic of the Halifax Herald, who writes a yearly review of the Fredericton Exhibition horse races.)

HALIFAX, Sept. 18—Nova Scotian horses made a fine showing at the big race meet at the Fredericton Exhibition last week. Eleven turf performers from this province raced in the events and they took four firsts, four seconds, one third and two fourths.

The victory of Calumet Budlong, 2:02 3/4, owned by Mrs. Margaret Ballard, Sydney Mines, piloted by Billy Hood, in the free-for-all was outstanding. Last spring Budlong had a mishap in training with the result he was laid up, blistered and fired, and reserved for the Fredericton and Halifax, and in his first start since coming to this country, he won in a field of six fast record performers.

Another Highlight

Mrs. Ballard's two-year-old colt Sully, by Volagda, in making his time mark of 2:21 without a pace maker, was another highlight of the meeting. Both were strikingly handsome stallions and should be valuable additions to the breeding interests of the Provinces.

Another richly-bred stallion which should prove likewise and was also imported since last season is Abner T. Clegg, 2:04 3/4, by Jim Abbe, owned by Frank Adams, of Halifax, and driven by Billy Keyes. His finish in the third heat, when after being back in fourth place with no notice being taken of him, he suddenly came from nowhere to win the heat, created a sensation.

Another stallion which particularly impressed with his speed, gameness, and perfect manners was Signal Senator by Signal Peter, owned and driven by H. M. Sweeney, of Bridgewater. Signor Senator entered the 2:10 list last week.

The Halifax pacer, Star G, 2:09, owned by J. H. Breen and piloted by Billy Cummings, went the best race of his career, pacing faster than his record and finishing second to Lady Locket from Bangor, Maine, with the time in each heat being faster than those of the free-for-all. Lady Locket won at Bangor the week previous in 2:07 1/4.

Gained Admiration

Baronet, owned by H. T. Fulton, Upper Stewiacke, and driven by Billy Keyes, was another horse that gained the admiration of the horsemen. Formerly a pacer, his race at Fredericton marked his first start as a trotter. He not only won his event, handily in straight heats but took a record of 2:15 at his new gait and was officially timed to the last quarter of the third heat in 30 1/2 seconds, a 2:02 clip.

Marjorie M., 2:07 1/4, owned by Richard J. Daley, North Sydney, won new honors in winning second place in the free-for-all. Make Jabalee drove a fine race, giving the Cape Breton mare an easy heat in the first and then winning second money. Josie the Great of the Amherst stables, and driven by Jones, took second place in the 2:25 class, giving Captain Aubrey another performer in the 2:20 list. Josie took a record of 2:15 1/2 and was right up with the leaders in the third heat, won in 2:11.

Billy Cummings won third money with August Queen, 2:15 1/2, when he drove her to second place in the last heat of the 2:25 pace, won by E. B. Avery's fast paced Martindale, in 2:11. Calumet Duke, owned by George Kuhn of Dartmouth, was second to the Maine horse Duet in the first heat of the named race won in 2:12. Bonnie Cameron, owned by W. Thompson, Halifax, captured fourth money in the 2:18 trot.

Reduced Her Record

Calumet Bee, which at the outset of the season was owned by H. M. Sweeney, and is now owned by Wellington McNeil, Southport, P.E.I., and driven by him, won the 2:18 trot to reduce her record to 2:11, and two days later was close up in the third heat, won in 2:09 1/2. The wonderful finishes of Betty S., the St. John mare, owned by C. M. Alexander and driven by Avery in the junior free-for-all; her pacing in 2:07 1/4, the fastest mile in the three days, stood out in an excellent meet with racing the first day that was the talk of everybody.

The Exhibition itself had the largest attendance for some years and had a number of fine exhibits, including a sportsmen's display of game and fish, so attractive as to be worthy of a place in the largest shows anywhere; excellent vaudeville, including the Dazzling Jewels, five girl jugglers, who only arrived from England six weeks previous on the steamer Berengaria, and Ben Williams' carnival show, on its fourteenth annual engagement was in attendance.

Praise For Dave

The success of the show each year is due to the manner in which it is conducted, and the general interest displayed by the citizens. Most of the directors have been associated together for many years. They are prominent men, who as members of the Exhibition Association, work with a system; every member has his special department to attend to, and they do so throughout. Besides their preparation meetings, they gather together at an appointed hour every night of the show, discuss matters of general benefit, and work in perfect harmony, accepting what they deem best.

They change their leading officers every two years, who with their experience prove most capable, and after filling office continue on the directorate. David Olts, their popular and energetic President of the past two years, has been succeeded by the former vice-president, Parker H. Currier, who is most active, full of vigor and takes the deepest interest in every department. D. W. Griffiths, the very able racing secretary, who will compare with the best anywhere, and upon whom depends the great success of the harness meetings in securing entries and conducting affairs, is also a Director.

Treasurer C. D. Holder has occupied his important position for a number of years, while they have a Secretary in C. L. Sypher who is thoroughly efficient, deals ably with the many matters that come before him, and is a

SPORT REVERBERATIONS

NEW YORK, Sept. 17—Now it can be told—Pepper Martin almost went to the Reds during the spring trading season. The Cards wanted Chick Hafey back. Charlie Dressen was willing, but held out for Martin. Branch Rickey almost fell for it. If the deal had gone through, would his face have been red? Ray Miller, the only man to flatten Jimmy McLarnin, makes periodical returns to the ring just for the fun of it. He's a Chicago coal baron with plenty of potatoes in the bank, and doesn't have to fight unless he wants to. Johnny Kling, a success as a minor league club owner, is trying to buy into the Dodgers. One keen baseball man said his three smartest major league managers would have to include Casey Stengel and Bill McKechnie. Paul Berlenbach has quit tending bar in Yorkville to manage Pete Reilly, Wilkes-Barre middleweight. Harry Smith, San Francisco sports editor, will run a special train east to the Baer-Louis fight.

Watch that fellow Boozer in the Alabama backfield next summer. That ten-week 11,000-mile tour of the Japanese golfers cost $8,330.84. Mickey Cochrane says master-minding in baseball is just a lot of bunk. Pitching, hitting and fielding is what it takes. John McGraw, who used to direct every pitch from the bench, would give Mickey an argument on that one. Consider the plight of Major Robert R. Neyland, whose team lost only seven games in the nine years he coached Tennessee. He is exiled down in Panama and won't know how the Vols make out until he gets the papers a week later. The Major writes he will spend his Saturday afternoon fishing—if he can sit still.

In the last twenty years the Yankees have only lost two first sackers—Wally Pipp and Herr Lou Gehrig. Which probably is a major league record. One day back in 1925 the late Miller Huggins told Gehrig, then a recruit, to go in and play first base and they haven't been able to get him off the lineup since. They are getting up a Charley Dressen day in Cincinnati and the biggest contributors to date are Nashville fans. Dressen spent last season in Nashville developing Clydell Castleman—for the Giants—ouch!

MANTHA OR JOLIAT MAY LEAD CANUCKS

MONTREAL, Sept. 18—Speculation is rife as to who will manage the Canadiens under the new regime and already rumor is busy bandying the names of several probable nominees. Cecil Hart is reported to be in the running but two veteran players, Sylvio Mantha and Joliat are also considered to be among those who are likely to be named.

The exclusive Star story in the first edition took the Montreal sport world by storm, and further statements by Ernie Savard indicate that the formal transfer will be made and ground cleared for the club reorganization which is expected to bring Red Beattie in exchange for Carson and Jenkins. It is reported also that negotiations may be entered into with the Chicago club to secure Howie Morenz, but this report is sheer rumor.

In the meantime the Messrs. Cattarinich and Dandurand are said to be casting about for a new location, and within a month some very startling sport developments in which their names will be coupled are expected.

The sum paid for the club is now variously reported as between $175,000 and $200,000.

COPIE LEBLANC GETS BACK AT KIWANIS 3-2

YARMOUTH, Sept. 18—While beaten for the first time by "Copie" LeBlanc during his brilliant career, St. Stephen-Milltown Kiwanis put up a desperate battle in dropping the opening contest of the Maritime senior amateur baseball final round to Yarmouth Gateways here today. The score was 3-2. The New Brunswick champions, out to win their fifth consecutive Maritime crown, held the lead twice but could not hold the Nova Scotians tilts at bay.

In one of the greatest and most exciting finishes in Maritime ball annals, the Gateways punched over the winning tally in the 11th inning of the smartly played overtime game. Close to 2,000 rabid fans were hilarious with joy as the homesters took the edge in the series by capturing the opener.

New Regulations

TORONTO, Sept. 17—Amateur hockey players who intend trying out this fall with professional teams will have to make up their minds and receive official permission before Dec. 1, it was announced here today by W. A. Hewitt, registrar of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

It pays to advertise in The Daily Mail.

most valuable official in every respect.

The people of Fredericton, too, are most hospitable, and a program of the Exhibition extending a welcome to visitors makes a statement worthy of consideration at places where there is much criticism voiced of a constructive nature, when it says "Please give us your ideas of how and where improvements may be made in our show."
