Dr. Jones Opposes Freshman Hazing At N. B. University

Welcomes, Sixty-Seven New Students as Classes Start Today — To Conduct Health Survey — Many Chances for Essay Prizes This Year.

In his address this morning to the undergraduates of the University of New Brunswick Dr. C. C. Jones, President of the University stated: "The University authorities forbid the hazing of new students, or what is commonly called 'Freshman Initiation'."

In welcoming the old students back, and the new students to new experiences on the campus, Dr. Jones strongly urged that all realize that college is not a place for recreation or amusement, but is the training-field for the sterner realities of mature life.

Dr. Jones stated that, as an effect of the raising of the standard of matriculation this year, in which the third division were barred from entering the University, the enrollment this year is not as large as it was last fall. He mentioned the fact, however, that what was lost in quantity was gained in quality, as about one half of the matriculation students were in the first division, a very high average. The new students this year number 67 of whom 61 are Freshmen, five are Sophomores and one Junior.

Dr. Jones also announced that next week the Provincial Department of Health will conduct a health survey at the University in order to examine the students for symptoms of tuberculosis.

Following Dr. Jones, Dr. W. C. Kierstead addressed the students. The subjects of the essays for the following prizes were announced:

Douglas Gold Medal—What Health Education should the Public Schools Provide?

James Simond's Prize—Pioneer Agriculture in New Brunswick.

City of Fredericton Gold Medal—Wood Fuel Supply for the Homes and Industries of the City of Fredericton and the relation to the Forest Area Required for its Perpetuation.

HALL COLLAPSES ON A LIBERAL PARTY RALLY

Fourteen Injured as Part of Ceiling Falls on Large Gathering

ST. JOSEPH D'ALMA, Que., Sept. 23—A large slice of rough-casting, 40 feet long by three feet wide, fell from the ceiling of the town hall in which a Liberal rally was being held here and 14 persons, including Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former minister of justice, were injured. Mr. Lapointe was unconscious for 10 minutes from shock. He was struck on the leg.

When he regained consciousness Mr. Lapointe insisted on the program being carried out and delivered a one-hour speech. He was forced to keep his injured leg off the ground most of the time.

Jules Martel of Herbyville, was the most seriously injured. He was unconscious all night and was administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. Tonight his condition was reported slightly improved.

Of the injured eight suffered head injuries and six bruises and cuts on the legs.

The slab from the ceiling fell as an orator was winding up his speech.

BUTTER EXPORT SCHEME TO KEEP PRICES FIRM

Announced by Federal Department of Agriculture

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 23—The department of agriculture Saturday night made public details of a scheme by which it hopes to aid Canadian dairymen through control of butter exports mainly to the United Kingdom, and to prevent possible glut of domestic holdings.

The scheme, known as the "butter export stabilization scheme", is similar in many ways to projects under the Dominion Marketing Act for regulating marketing of other products.

It constitutes a butter export marketing board of three dairy officials empowered to do these things:

1. Regulate the time and place at which and to designate the agency or agencies through which the regulated produce shall be marketed.

2. Determine the manner of distribution and the quantity, quality, grade or class of the product that shall be marketed by any person at any time.

3. Prohibit marketing of any of the products of any grade, quality or class.

4. Compensate any person for loss sustained by forwarding to a specified market any of the products pursuant to an order of the local board.

5. Require full information relating to marketing of the product from all persons engaged therein and to require periodic returns to be made by such persons and for the purposes of the scheme to inspect the books and premises of such persons.

6. Appoint an advisory committee to advise in the direction of marketing of the product.

7. Issue such orders or determinations as may be deemed necessary to attain the purpose of the scheme and to revoke and amend the same.

8. Determine the kind, form and terms of any document or documents that shall be submitted as evidence of the shipment for export or export of the regulated product.

Considerable Problem

In recent years the handling of Canada's surplus butter supply has been a considerable problem. With a high protection on butter in the Canadian tariff domestic prices tend to be higher than world prices. Accordingly when a surplus piles up either the domestic prices break below world prices or the exporters shipping the butter abroad must take a loss.

It is to compensate exporters for this loss in order to keep the domestic market firm that the scheme has been inaugurated. At present there is little difference between prices in Montreal and those in London. The last quotation from London for New Zealand butter was 23.19-24.25 cents a pound. There was no Canadian butter on the market but had there been it probably would have been slightly lower than the New Zealand product. On the same day the price in Montreal ranged from 23 to 24 cents.

POISONING IS LAID TO RUSTED GRAIN

NOKOMIS, Saskatchewan, Sept. 23—Badly-rusted grain crops are believed to have been the cause of several cases of blood poisoning among harvesters in this district. Many workers have infected hands.

APPEARED IN COURT

Arthur Lorette of this city appeared before Magistrate Limerick this morning in connection with the illegal selling of liquor. Three witnesses were called this morning. They were Constables Ryder, Moffat and Randall of the R. C. M. P. E. A. McKay is prosecuting the case and Leo F. Cain is the defending counsel. The case will continue this afternoon. The case of William Dunlop, city and a young man by the name of Hazelwood of Marysville for having contraband liquor in their possession will also come up this afternoon before the Magistrate.

Pensions and School Books

Two of the chief promises made by Hon. A. A. Dysart during the last election related to Old Age Pensions and Free School Books. The first move in regard to Old Age Pensions was made on Friday evening last when Premier Dysart announced the appointment of a leading Woodstock lawyer, Hon. W. P. Jones, K.C., to arrange for the establishment and administration of such a system as will appeal to the people of this province.

The Free School Books will be given to the people as soon as the necessary machinery can be put in operation. This will be at the session to be held within the next four months.

It may be remembered that the free school books were abolished by the Baxter-Tilley Government. As the granting of free school books requires legislative consent, Premier Dysart will have to wait until the next session of the Legislature before introducing the proper legislation giving him the authority to proceed with the purchase and distribution of these books. Had the old government which was defeated in June last not repealed the Act in regard to school books Hon. Mr. Dysart and his Government would have had less delay in providing the books.

It is understood that the new system of free school books will be much superior to anything yet attempted in that line.

People who expected to wake up the day after the election and find free school books and pension envelopes sitting on their doorsteps, along side of the milk bottle, are unreasonable. No government can turn on the tap and produce these things in a moment, especially a government that has been chased to death in the last three months by job hunters.

LIBERAL LEADER SAYS SOCIAL CREDIT WILL "SPREAD LIKE WILD FIRE" IF SCHEME PROVES SUCCESS IN ALBERTA

Will be No Need for Federal Social Credit Government if Scheme Successful as Every Party Will Adopt It, Mackenzie King Believes

LEASK, Sask., Sept. 24—Social Credit parties. The Reconstruction party held a meeting last night and decided not to contest the seat.

"If Social Credit ever gets a chance to prove itself it will be in Alberta," said Mr. King. "Mr. Aberhart has the whole province in his hands and if a Liberal government is returned to power at Ottawa he will be given the fullest opportunity to work out his plans. But until it has proved itself let us confine it to Alberta."

"He promised to do certain definite things in a certain time. If he does them you won't need a Social Credit party to carry those ideas across the Dominion. They will spread across the whole world. This thing of $25 or $75 a month is just what the world has been looking for for hundreds and thousands of years."

The great need of Western Canada was trade, Mr. King told his farmer audience. The last five years of Liberal rule prior to 1930 were the most prosperous in history for Western Canada. The succeeding five years of Conservative rule were about the least prosperous. This was due to faulty trade policies, policies of extreme protection and trade restriction which would be speedily altered by a new Liberal government.

The people of Canada made a momentous decision 24 years ago. It was on Sept. 21, 1911, that they rejected the reciprocity treaty with the United States arranged by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and a Liberal government. Sir Wilfrid had warned them then that it might be 25 years before such an opportunity for wider trade presented itself again.

His words had been true. It was only within the past two years that the United States had again become willing to trade with Canada on a reciprocal basis. President Roosevelt wanted a treaty, but Mr. Bennett and his government entered into negotiations in a half-hearted way. The correspondence Mr. Bennett had published was a year old. Apparently nothing had been done since. A Liberal government would immediately seek an effective trade treaty with the United States.

It will not be known until sometime tomorrow whether or not the scheme will be adopted, Mr. Hubbard stated.

Geneva Committee Still Waiting For Favorable Word

BENNETT SAYS SOVIET PLANNED FOR CANADA

Says He Was Recently in Danger of Being Held as Hostage

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 23—Behind the recent march on Ottawa of relief camp strikers and sympathizers lay a plan to hold the prime minister of Canada as a hostage while a Soviet government was established in the Dominion, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett revealed in an address here.

This, he said, Saturday night had been learned by the government which, he declared, stood for law and order, liberty and freedom, but not for license. When men tried to overthrow constituted authority by force, they must be stopped.

The prime minister lashed out at the Communists of Moscow and "their emissaries here". He declared his party would never "pander to any lawless organization to secure votes". Pledging his government to the maintenance of law and order in Canada, Mr. Bennett declared "Canadians will never tolerate interference from the outside", and that Section 93 of the Criminal Code would not be repealed by his government.

At a mass meeting in a local theatre Mr. Bennett was prompted to deal with Communism Section 93, relief camps. Tim Buck and his own personal wealth, by questions showered upon him by a group in the gallery. He spoke about two hours and, in addition to answering numerous questions and taking up various challenges from the audience, he discussed the main points of the government's platform and record.

Recent U. S. Note

Referring to the recent protest from the United States to Soviet Russia against propaganda activities of the Third Internationale, Mr. Bennett described the United States note as one of the most significantly and ably worded ever to pass from one friendly government to another. That incident he said, was indicative of the "dead set that has been made against this continent in the past weeks by the Communists of Moscow. There sit their emissaries now", he declared, pointing to the gallery.

"Section 96 stands", Mr. Bennett declared, "and those who violate it must bear the consequences". He said this section of the Criminal Code, enacted to prevent illegal assembly, was necessary as it ever was. "No law-abiding citizen need fear it".

SHOOTS AT BEAR, MISSES, DIES FROM HEART ATTACK

Andrew Coulsey, Killarney Hill, dropped dead from a heart attack yesterday after firing one shot at a bear which had wandered onto his premises. Mr. Coulsey, who had been called by Harry Kolding, a neighbor, when the latter saw the bear wandering about the premises, took his rifle from the house and fired at the bear. He missed the bear and started to walk away when he was seized with a heart attack about 100 feet from the spot where he first stood. He died almost instantly. Dr. J. M. Cameron, district medical health officer, investigated as coroner and decided an inquest was not necessary.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Fred Murdock, Fredericton; Mrs. Wesley Whitlock, Penniac; Mrs. John Doherty, Victoria Mills; and Mrs. Charles Howland, Saskatchewan; and four sons, Harrison, Vanceboro, Me.; Frederick and Thomas, Connecticut, and Roy, Nashwaaksis.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Church of England at Tay Creek following prayers at the McAdam Funeral Home on King Street at 1:00 o'clock by Ven. Archdeacon A. F. Bate. Rev. J. R. Belvee, Stanley, will officiate at the service at Tay Creek. Interment will be made at Tay Creek.

Italian Cabinet Rejects League Nations Plan—Mussolini Covers Military and Political Situation Open for Discussion.

ROME, Italy, Sept. 23—Premier Benito Mussolini took one of the gravest steps in his nation's history when he rejected as unacceptable a League of Nations plan to avert war with Ethiopia.

The plan rejected on the ground that it did not offer the minimum basis necessary for realization of Italy's interests and rights, had been advanced as the final hope of preventing an outbreak that threatened to precipitate a world crisis.

League of Nations leaders, learning of the rejection with horror, called it disastrous.

Word was flashed from the League of Nations capital, Geneva, that the Committee of Five Nations which made the offer to Italy in behalf of the League Council, would be convened urgently to consider the situation.

Any discussion with the Italians, it was stated at British headquarters, will be on the basis of the five-power committee's plan. There is no idea of submitting a new scheme. The committee is drafting the plan, it was pointed out, took note both of the Italian charges against Ethiopia and the Ethiopian reply.

The charges summed up were:

1. Ethiopia was a backward country needing assistance.
2. Italy wanted more security for her East African colonies.
3. Italy was not obtaining the economic outlet in Ethiopia to which she was entitled.

Any new peace proposals by the committee would have to go much further than those submitted.

GENEVA, Sept. 23—Reports in certain League of Nations quarters stated that Italy will offer Ethiopia a seaport in Italian colonial territory—either in Eritrea or Italian Somaliland. In return Ethiopia would cede certain of her provinces to Italy.

Italy's newly reported desire to hand over a strip of her territory to Ethiopia on the Italian colonial seacoast was interpreted in some international circles as reflecting her ambition to exercise control over the seaport which other nations want Ethiopia to have.

Thus Italy could build a railroad from the seaport to the interior and have a channel for "Pacific penetration."

Hitherto, discussion of territorial concessions as a possible peace measure has been a question of Great Britain or France ceding rights of their respective Somalilands to Ethiopia with an outlet to the sea.
