SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Johnston, wife of American Consul Frederick C. Johnston, is leaving today for Halifax, N. S., where she will spend a few days.Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas accompanied by Mrs. Ray of Saint John, are leaving tomorrow by motor for Portland, Oregon, where they will spend the winter.Arthur F. Wightman, who has just returned from the Dominion Hydro-graphic survey in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was with Mrs. Wightman, the guest over the week-end of his father, Rev. F. A. Wightman and his sister, Mrs. Murray G. Kierstead and Mr.
Kierstead. He proceeded to Ottawa today to resume his duties there.Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McF. Limerick, nee Helen Fleming, who were recently married at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, returned last evening from their wedding and have taken up residence at the Calder Apartments on Queen Street. Mr. and Mrs. Limerick while away travelled to Halifax and other points in Nova Scotia.Mrs. Ray of Saint John, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. S.
Thomas and Mr. Thomas for the past week.A. S. Gunn of Moncton, who is president of the United Church Laymen's Association of the Maritimes, was the guest speaker at the Wilnot Brotherhood yesterday. In addition to being a powerful speaker, Mr. Gunn is a poet of outstanding quality and the reading of several of his poems was a particularly enjoyable feature. Mr.
Gunn was accompanied on his visit to the Brotherhood by Mrs. Gunn and their daughter Bernice. The meeting opened at 2:30 with prayer and a song period. The gathering was favored by a fine vocal solo "His Eye is on the Sparrow," by Mrs. Neva Buckley Inch accompanied by Miss Dorothy Thomas.The president W. R. Crewdson, introduced the speaker whose theme was "Poetry and its Use in Spiritual Life." Mr. Gunn in opening his address spoke of the contention that a first rate poet is of less value to the world than a second rate mechanic or a third rate farmer. Poetry was defined by the speaker as "beautiful thoughts expressed in beautiful words." It is valuable then, if for nothing else, because it develops and strengthens the imagination. Music and poetry have been a medium of worship in the Christian religion since its origin, and in the Jewish faith before it. In the sorrows of life our greatest solace is to be found in those poetical chapters of the Bible, the Psalms. The greatest longing of man is for immortality and his hope here is to be found, not in astronomy or physics, but in the sublime poetical expression particularly in the Bible. Poetry is not only useful but essential to a full interpretation of the meaning of life. Mr.
Gunn then read several of his poems,
"The Aviator's Hymn," "My Father's House," "The Gift" and several others.
These poems are all based on religious themes, the last named being in the form of a drama. The appreciation of the Brotherhood was expressed in a vote of thanks moved by Austin Squires and seconded by Col. Crocker.
Mrs. Inch and Miss Thomas also received a unanimous vote of thanks.Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Powers of Grand Falls spent the week-end as guests of Mr. Powers' sister Mrs.
Frank Donahoe. Their two daughters Nora and Melva accompanied them, also Miss Mildred Rogers, superintendent of the Grand Falls Hospital.Mrs. Rolfe K. Nevers entertained charmingly at a double Bridge on Saturday evening at her home on Lansdowne Avenue. The prizes were won by Mrs. Wetzel and E. M. Taylor. The hostess was assisted in serving by some of the guests.Miss Clara LeBlanc is spending a few days in Rimouski, Quebec.Mrs. B. B. Barnes was hostess at a three table Bridge recently at her home. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McDiarmid.Miss Helen Skene of McAdam was a week end guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson A. Skene.Councillor Geo. W. White, Mrs.
White and their son Rupert of Oromotto, left on Sunday morning on an auto trip to Boston and other parts of the New England States.Miss Margaret McMullen is in Plaster Rock where she is organizing girls' sewing clubs as part of the work of the Women's Institute.Mrs. G. B. Nevers is spending a few weeks with her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe K. Nevers.
Mrs. Nevers, who has spent the summer at MacDonald's Corner, expects to spend the winter at Dartmouth, N.
S., with her daughter, Mrs. Eltee and Rev. Wm. H. Eltee.Miss Vina Target, switchboard operator at the Provincial Government Buildings, is leaving this afternoon for a week's hunting trip in the Salmon River district.The beautiful store of Colwell and Jennings in their new establishment was an ideal setting for an enjoyable tea on Saturday afternoon. A delicious chicken salad tea was served by the Guild of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to several hundred guests who also enjoyed a social chat taking advantage of the few minutes before tea as well as after supper to spend a while chatting with friends and visiting the store. The tea-table covered with an Italian lace cloth, was centered with a basket of yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow tapers in candelabra were at each end of the table which was presided over for the first hour by Mrs. Geo. E. Ross and Mrs. A. L. Gerow. For the second hour Mrs. Wm. Clark and Mrs. W. C.
Crocker poured tea and coffee. Those who replenished were Mrs. J. D.
MacKay, Mrs. Harold Limerick, Mrs.
K. R. McAdam, Mrs. Donald McAdam, Mrs. Robert Biggs and Mrs. Gordon.
The members of the Junior Guild served. The cakes were in charge of Mrs. Dell Hossack, Mrs. Harding Kierstead, Mrs. E. W. Elliott, Mrs.
E. A. Moore and Miss Susan Kelly.
The salads were in charge of Mrs. J.
B. Crocker, Mrs. John S. Scott, Mrs.
Harry Pond, Miss Norina Smith, Mrs.
Grant, Mrs. George Lockhart, Mrs.
Foster and Mrs. Raymond. The tea and coffee were looked after by Mrs.
Chas. VanWart, Miss Christine Fraser and Mrs. Geo. W. Hodge took the contributions. Mrs. A. P. Crocker was in charge of the dining-room. Miss Lucy Anderson, president of the Guild, was the convener of the tea, the Right Honourable the Countess of Ashburn-ham being the general hostess.H. B. Hachey of St. Andrews, was in the city yesterday.Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McAdam and Dr. and Mrs. A. W. G. Good have gone to Boston on a motor trip. They expect to return to Fredericton in about a week.C. C. Avard, managing editor of the Sackville Tribune, is spending a couple of weeks in New York.Mr. and Mrs. Alden R. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Wilson of Fredericton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDade and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Ryan are engaging a motor trip to New York.

Fredericton Junction

FREDERICTON JUNCTION, Oct.
21.—The subject for discussion in the B.Y.P.U. on the 18th inst., was the Spread of Christianity. Miss Lois Shearer was in charge of the programme. Miss Rosie Redstone, first speaker, traced the beginning of Christianity as a strictly Jewish sect, in Palestine, where the faith was preached to Jews and proselytes and only incidentally to Gentiles.Rev. H. G. Westrup dealt with the Significance of the Great Commission, under which the faith was offered to the whole world. H. H. Stuart spoke on the Spread of Christianity from East to West and back to the East, tracing its growth in the Roman Empire; the trickling of Nestorianism through Persia to the Mongolian lands and its decay there because of lack of support from the West; the Jesuit missions in Japan; and the rise of modern missions. He also spoke of the serious check to Christianity in several leading countries lately and the necessity of Christianity putting its house in order and carrying out its principles if it would survive.The Signs of Christ's coming were discussed by Miss Shearer and Rev.
H. G. Westrup both of whom urged more attention to the trend of current events and the necessity of putting Christian principles into practice, in order to avert disaster.Carry-Over Values In Recreation(Continued from Page Eight) arts, Mr. Summers stated. This idea of enriching the recreational programs of Young People was carried as the theme through both sessions of the recreational school.On Saturday afternoon Clark Ready who is physical director of the Y. M.
C. A. in Saint John, gave a demonstration of party games, which were enthusiastically received by those present. Rev. John Copp, who is a Maritime Secretary of the S. C. M. and is going to reside in the city gave a demonstration of sailors' chanty songs, folk songs of various countries and negro spirituals. Mr. Copp gave the background and setting of each song and the leaders present decided to work toward getting more of this type of song into the sing song periods in their own groups.

MEETS NEXT WEEK

The New Brunswick Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes will meet here next week. A fairly large docket is scheduled.SPECIAL SERVICES AT CHURCHES
WELL ATTENDEDRev. Dr. G. C. Warren, Former Pastor Brunswick Street Baptist Church Heard in Special Message—Preparatory Thanksgiving Services.The churches in this city were well attended on Sunday as special preparatory Thanksgiving services were conducted in several of the churches.
At the Brunswick Street Baptist church the opening of Thanksgiving Re-union services was signaled by the presence of Rev. Dr. G. C. Warren, former pastor, as the guest speaker.
Rev. Dr. Warren, who is now editor of the Maritime Baptist delivered a special message on peace during which he outlined the Italo-Ethiopian crisis and deplored the ominous fact of war. He congratulated the League of Nations on its stand in erecting sanctions, economic and financial, against Italy, the aggressor nation. A large congregation attended the service which was broadcast over station CFNB. Rev. Dr. Warren spoke also at the evening service. He will be here all the early part of the present week and will take part in the special services being held by the church in connection with the approach of the season of Thanksgiving.During the morning service Dr. J.
H. MacDonald was heard from Acadia College via the radio. A former pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist Church. Many were pleased to hear his voice again.

Children's Day

Christchurch Parish Church conducted services of particular interest on Sunday. Features were United Sunday School service in Christchurch Cathedral at three o'clock in the afternoon, attended by a great number of children. In the morning the officers and teachers of the Sunday School attended church in a body and in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the parade of Anglican Sunday Schools left the Parish hall for the Cathedral. Many were present to see the lining up of the parade.

Wilnot United Church

Thanksgiving services also were held at Wilnot United Church, Rev.
W. A. Burge, pastor of the Gibson Memorial Church in Devon, spoke in the morning while Rev. J. W. Bartlett, the pastor, was the speaker at the evening service. The speaker drama-tized the sermon: "More than These", and was assisted by a number of others in the church congregation. It was a Thanksgiving theme. In the afternoon at the regular meeting of the Brotherhood Class, A. S. Gunn, of Moncton spoke to the men.

Thanksgiving Music

Music on the theme of Thanksgiving was a feature of the services on Sunday at St. Paul's United Church. The morning theme was "The Thanking Heart", and the evening theme, "Representative Men". Rev. George Telford, M. A., B. D., spoke at both services and there were large congregations present.At St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Rev. Dr. G. E. Ross spoke morning and evening. The morning subject was "The Church of the Living God", and the evening theme, "We All Do Fade As a Leaf".
"Thou Shalt Be Missed" was the theme of the sermon taken by Rev. D.
L. Kennedy at the morning service of the Devon Baptist Church. In the evening at 7 o'clock a baptismal service was conducted.Gibson Memorial United church concluded its Jubilee anniversary which had lasted all week. At the morning service Rev. J. W. Bartlett
